SPEAKERS

[Music], Jimmy Carper, Speaker 3, Speaker 1

J Jimmy Carper 00:03

Whoa, hey, just had to do that one because by request, John requested some Miss [unintelligible].

S Speaker 1 00:12

and Miss [unintelligible] otherwise known as--

J Jimmy Carper 00:14

Well, you can say it.

S Speaker 1 00:15

Pussy. Yeah, I hate that word.

J Jimmy Carper 00:18

I don't like that word.

S Speaker 1 00:19

I like the C word much better. But you can't say that on radio.

J Jimmy Carper 00:22

You really can't say that one. No, and I don't like to use it because at least 50% of the lesbians I know are offended by it.

 Speaker 1 00:31

Mostly offended when men say it, actually. And I, you know, I don't know why. The fact that they don't have one.

 Jimmy Carper 00:39

There you go. Hey, so. So after that I wanted to do well, that was like I said, that was for John. And that was--

 Speaker 1 00:48

Hello.

 Jimmy Carper 00:49

"If I Can't Sell It." Yes, yes. And so I thought, well, I need to do a real drag queen song. And so I mean,,.

 Speaker 1 00:57

That is a drag queen song.

 Jimmy Carper 00:58

That is a drag queen song. "I Will Survive" by Gladys Knight. Done is a ballad so you can get you know, real emotional.

 Speaker 1 01:07

And you know what? I did stay home specifically to watch on, I think it was Tuesday night.

 Jimmy Carper 01:12

Yeah.

 Speaker 1 01:12

Speaker 1 01:12

On regular TV, a salute to the 70s, where they had everybody from KC and the Sunshine Band to Gloria Gaynor show up thank you very much, really, and lots of other people. I mean, Olivia Newton John was there, name it, Bee-Gees were there, everybody.

Jimmy Carper 01:28

It'd be interesting to see what they looked like, you know, towards the--

Speaker 1 01:31

And it was. Olivia Newton John looked fabulous. Yeah, like a total babe. However, KC and the Sunshine Band, Casey's missing his hair now. He was wearing a cap.

Jimmy Carper 01:42

No!

Speaker 1 01:42

Yes. He was wearing a cap the whole time. And I didn't see any hair sticking out from underneath the cap. It was like Kojak under that cat telling you. He had a big ol ribbon, big ol red ribbon on the front of his cap.

Jimmy Carper 01:54

As well, as well she should.

Speaker 1 01:56

Thank you very much. And she was getting pretty tubby. Oh, yes. Casey was wearing his punch very well. But I'm a fan anyway, what can I say? And the Bradys were there. Most of them. Not all of them. But what they did was really bad. The moms--

Jimmy Carper 02:15

So what's new?

Speaker 1 02:16

Yeah, what's, the mom they did some kind of Brady talk show thing where they were supposed to be 24 hour Brady TV and this particular installment was talking with the Bradys about the Brady's and it was question and answer about asking Florence Henderson if she and Greg it ever slept together and they winked and played it up and was touching on each other. And the only people that were there were Florence Henderson, Greg, Peter, Bobby and Cindy. And of course, I say that because I don't know their real names. Oh. And they were the only ones there. They made no mention of, uh, Robert Reed.

 Jimmy Carper 02:55

You're kidding.

 Speaker 1 02:56

None whatsoever. They talked about Alice a little bit and they talked about the other kids but they made no mention whatsoever of Robert Reed, and I thought that was kind of almost downright tacky.

 Jimmy Carper 03:05

Well, you know, from what I read before he died. I mean, he talks about how much he hated doing,

 Speaker 1 03:10

He hated it.

 Jimmy Carper 03:11

He hated ot. So he's probably a bitch on set.

 Speaker 1 03:14

Proably snub at him. So go figure anyway, that was the 70s for me. What about you, Jimmy?

 Jimmy Carper 03:24

Oh geem I barely remember them.

 Speaker 1 03:26

Yeah. Yeah, we know.

J

Jimmy Carper 03:29

Speaking of going down memory lane, I got a call from Roy. And he suggested to--

S

Speaker 1 03:33

And who's Roy?

J

Jimmy Carper 03:35

Roy calls in you know, almost every week.

S

Speaker 1 03:37

Oh, a caller. Hi, Roy.

J

Jimmy Carper 03:40

And, and he suggested that I dig up some gay music from the 60s.

S

Speaker 1 03:51

Cool. Did you find any?

J

Jimmy Carper 03:54

Oh, there's lots. Actually, The Kinks did "Lola," which I've played before. I haven't played it much lately. There's some early Bowie stuff. Yes, that might go.

S

Speaker 1 04:05

There's a whole beginning of the women's music movement during the 60s.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:09

Oh, yeah.

S

Speaker 1 04:09

Women with guitars.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:10

Yeah. Yeah, white women with long hair and--

S

Speaker 1 04:14

It was very popular and it's very tacky. Even though it can also be very monotonous.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:24

Yes, absolutely. You know, a couple of those are great, but then they start sounding all the same to me. And I got a lot of them, so I know.

S

Speaker 1 04:35

So we're gonna do this sometime soon?

J

Jimmy Carper 04:37

Yeah, I think so. I'll try to.

S

Speaker 1 04:39

The gay 60s.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:40

Yeah, why not?

S

Speaker 1 04:41

We should come in dressed, we'll come in costumes. All of our radio listeners will be able to see well.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:45

You see, it's a little bit like KC, you know, I still have them hip-hugger bell bottoms, but I just can't fit them on my body.

S

Speaker 1 04:53

I can probably get the bottoms of it. But not the top. I have bell bottoms and I don't know what to do with them.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:02

Shall I tell you?

S

Speaker 3 05:04

They make good things to wax the car with.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:06

Oh, okay.

S

Speaker 1 05:08

I'm gonna have to go through my closet soon but you know, I haven't and most of my stuff's pretty out. Okay. Well, I want to I want to talk to some people about some callers. We've had several, several, several, several. And once again, I'll say it, several called since we last spoke. I'm going down the list. Go see Jeff Mackey Sunday at Curtains. We said that.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:29

Yeah.

S

Speaker 1 05:29

Okay, now I have some gossip here. Heavy duty serious gossip. Ladies and gentlemen. And all of you those in between and around. Get your pens out because I have it on good authority. And that means you, Polo. Thanks for calling. We love you.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:43

Oh Polo called.

S

Speaker 1 05:44

Yeah. Polo. And he said that he has some friends over at Maverick records. Who will work with

REDACTED

Madonna. Madonna is going to have a weekly series on HBO. Madonna, like talking with Madonna?

J Jimmy Carper 05:58

Really?

S Speaker 1 05:59

Yes. This is the scoop. You heard it here on what is today the 20th.

J Jimmy Carper 06:03

21st now.

S Speaker 1 06:04

21st now. The 21st on After Hours. Write it down. I want you to write it down right now. Diane Williams of After Hours. Madonna is gonna have a weekly series on HBO. We're open. I think that would be just too odd.

J Jimmy Carper 06:18

Boy, you're gonna have to keep that HBO.

S Speaker 1 06:20

Yeah, I'm gonna have to and it's expensive and I don't really want to. Yeah, anyway, that's the scoop. That's a gossip. Spread it, spread it really thick. Spread it all round. Tell him you heard it here first. Thank you the gossip queen, Polo. I don't know if you're queen or not but you know, what I'm saying. Will that work? Will that be offensive, do you think Jimmy? If I say that?

J Jimmy Carper 06:40

Well, it can kind of avoid that word too, because there are a lot of guys that get offended when.

S Speaker 1 06:47

It's just a general term. I would have said that to a woman too.

J

Jimmy Carper 06:51

In fact, you know that these things about words. It's really strange. I was--

S

Speaker 1 06:55

Tread easy.

J

Jimmy Carper 06:56

I was at super, soup and salads tonight. There was a lesbian. No, there was a dyke.

S

Speaker 1 07:02

There was a gay woman.

J

Jimmy Carper 07:03

A dyke on the phone. Dyke. And she was talking to her girlfriend. It was very real obvious with the conversation. And I was just--

S

Speaker 1 07:12

Did you call her a sister?

J

Jimmy Carper 07:14

No, but she was just an, she's a, and girl, and girl, and girl. I'm girl. I mean, she referred to this woman as girl.

S

Speaker 1 07:25

And I say that.

J

Jimmy Carper 07:27

Yeah, but you know so many people.

S

Speaker 1 07:29

Some people don't like it. Yeah. Well, I a lot of men don't like it because they're not. It's that

SOME PEOPLE DON'T LIKE IT. I CAN'T, I DON'T, I DON'T LIKE IT BECAUSE THEY'RE NOT. IT'S THAT kind of P word thing. I don't really like men saying it because they don't have one. And you know, people. People can refer to gay men as women or with female terms, but when they refer to women with male terms, women get very, very upset. And I don't know if men get as upset as women do. Because I don't like to be called a brother. I don't even like to be called man. You know when someone says hey, man, but I say it sometimes just to be obnoxious. So go figure. It's one of those nice little words.

 J Jimmy Carper 08:08

Aren't words funny? It's really, really strange how just shading of meaning, meanings can offend people. Tone of voice. I mean, there's lots of words that we can't say on the air right now.

 S Speaker 1 08:21

Yes, like. Yeah, and that one, too. There's what six or seven really big ones?

 J Jimmy Carper 08:29

Yeah, yeah. Seven, seven, real big ones. Yeah. And then a lot because a lot of others because all of a sudden PC, you know. You know.

 S Speaker 1 08:38

You can say penis.

 J Jimmy Carper 08:39

You can say penis and vagina.

 S Speaker 1 08:42

Anything else?

 J Jimmy Carper 08:44

You just can't say--

 S Speaker 1 08:44

Let stretch some boundaries.

J Jimmy Carper 08:45

No, so to speak.

S Speaker 1 08:49

Okay, let's move on.

J Jimmy Carper 08:55

No, really, hey?

S Speaker 1 08:57

I don't know about the weekly part. I heard that but I'm kind of wondering if they're gonna give Madonna a weekly series. Well, I mean, she could be like a VJ, you know, like an MTV VJ kind of thing. Because she wouldn't let anybody show her, their videos but her.

J Jimmy Carper 09:14

I don't think so. Just, just get on there and do some gossip stuff.

S Speaker 1 09:18

Yeah, yeah, that's true.

J Jimmy Carper 09:20

What're the new clubs and you know, new fads.

S Speaker 1 09:23

What's hot and what's not. Coacha. I called her something. Anyway, thank you Polo for that little bit of, little tidbit of information.

J Jimmy Carper 09:32

We like that.

S

Speaker 1 09:33

Okay, more stuff. Somebody called. actually Chris called Chris in North Houston called.

J

Jimmy Carper 09:40

Hey Chris in North Houston. How you doing?

S

Speaker 1 09:42

He's new to town. Hi Chris. Welcome. Yeah, much fine after hours anyway, I want to know who told you about After Hours. How did you find this was where you just twirling past those Christian radio stations on your dial and heard somebody say fag. You picked them.

J

Jimmy Carper 09:57

Let's stay here while.

S

Speaker 1 09:58

Let's see what they're talking about. Or someone said lesbian real loud and your little ears perked up. Anyway, thanks for calling Chris. There. Chris was looking for information, social functions, about four people have already called tonight want to know about social functions of one particular group or another. There's lots I mean wow. possibly begin to tell you everything from skydiving and or scuba diving. To bowling. I know--

J

Jimmy Carper 09:58

Oh, I love--

S

Speaker 1 10:15

Some bowling things.

J

Jimmy Carper 10:30

You know, I've talked about this before because I've all my life I thought of bowling as--

S

Speaker 1 10:36

Redneck white trash sports?

J Jimmy Carper 10:38

Yeah.

S Speaker 1 10:38

Yeah, me too, Jimmy.

J Jimmy Carper 10:40

And, since I'm Czechoslovakian, and you know, and that's real close to being Polish. You know, I've been sensitive to those bowling jokes, you know, and, but it's fun. It's really, really fun, especially in the, in the gay league.

S Speaker 1 10:58

With family.

J Jimmy Carper 11:01

And you can be yourself and it's a whole lot of fun.

S Speaker 1 11:03

And, you know, I know a lot of people that do gay AA, there's a, there's a lambda group of Alcoholics Anonymous, that they get together and they have dances and parties, and it's just a huge humongous lifestyle. And it's a lot of fun. And I know they're over. I don't, I don't know the phone number where you can get in touch with them. But I'm gonna give you a phone number to the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard, that you can get in touch with all these people, though, put you in touch. They know the numbers. TWIT, there's all there's a magazine called This Week in Texas, also known as TWIT, the TWIT this week in Texas, get it. And as raunchy and as nasty as it may appear to be at times. It's also a very good source of information. There's a guide in the back and the guide in the back has everything from galas, dentists to AIDS support services, if you've just found out you're HIV positive or you're afraid to get tested and want somebody to hold your hand and go with you there's bound to be somebody there you can call that, you know, will do the buddy system and go with you to get tested. It's a wonderful source.

J Jimmy Carper 12:06

An unbelievable amount of of gay sporting activity.

S Speaker 1 12:10

Gay sports for days, like we have to prove we're athletic or something.

J Jimmy Carper 12:13

Tennis, women's rugby.

S Speaker 1 12:15

Rugby in some of those rugby girls, do the sporting thing.

J Jimmy Carper 12:21

And HO group, Houston Outdoor Group. HOG, they do camping and-- Camping and bike riding and all this kind of stuff.

S Speaker 1 12:28

There's a group called Lesbians in Business and LIB has little subgroups, and they have lesbians and their dogs, women, if you have a dog, yes, you go to the park and walk the dogs together. I mean, how normal is this? This is fun. It's just stuff. Yeah, you know, the most important part here, folks, is taking the first step, you can make the call and then you can, you can you know whine or or be afraid or whatever you need to do about the person you're calling to get the information. You can talk about how hard it is to come out of the closet. And we know, believe us we know. I necessarily don't know, because I was kicked out of the closet. I was outed at a very young age.

J Jimmy Carper 13:08

Oh, really.

S Speaker 1 13:09

And in high school. By my principal. I'll tell you the whole sort of story sometime later. But yeah. And have never had to go back because I was forcibly added at such a young age. And I think that that was really lucky for me, because I didn't have to worry about venturing out of a closet on my own and taking the first steps and doing those scary things that that it takes a lot of people, especially if you're a Latina, I don't know about especially but certainly, I've had several calls in the past two months from Latinas who have such ingrained cultural stereotypes that it's hard for them to break out. And it's hard for them to get in touch with other members of the same culture or even any other culture for social events or support systems or support networks. And off the top my head the only one I can think of is Gay and Lesbian Hispanics Unidos.

J Jimmy Carper 14:00

No, Amigas.

S Speaker 1 14:01

Amigas. That's true. Me. Yes. I know that there's lots out there, but I personally don't know 'em. You know me, the person. I don't know everybody. So I would suggest a couple things. I would suggest looking in the back of the TWIT looking in the guide that that would be a good thing. Also, there's a store Inkling.

J Jimmy Carper 14:22

Inkling.

S Speaker 1 14:22

The bookstore.

J Jimmy Carper 14:23

1846 Richmond Avenue.

S Speaker 1 14:26

Hazard Street.

J Jimmy Carper 14:28

If you walk into this vestibule and there's like bulletin boards on both poles and they're covered, covered with notices of things.

S Speaker 1 14:36

It's a feminist, right?

J Jimmy Carper 14:37

Yeah.

S

Speaker 1 14:38

It's a feminist and lesbian bookstore. So if you walk in, you know, if you're married and have a husband or if you have sons or daughters or mothers, you can go in that bookstore and you're not outing yourself.

J

Jimmy Carper 14:51

You know, actually, if you want to, you can park your car in the back of the store.

S

Speaker 1 14:54

That's right, and you can walk in and you're not outing yourself. You're not even outing yourself as someone that's curious, you're outing yourself as someone who likes to read, and and or someone who needs community information of whatever community.

J

Jimmy Carper 15:08

See, you know, you and I. Let me go off on a tangent for--

S

Speaker 1 15:12

Please do, I'll join you.

J

Jimmy Carper 15:15

And a lot of the people here on after hours have been out for so long that we--

S

Speaker 1 15:20

Only 10 years.

J

Jimmy Carper 15:20

We don't realize that for a lot of other people just walking into Inklings or Lobo or Crossroads. Well, just walking into the store is a big effort.

S

Speaker 1 15:34

It really is. There's a lot of places you can go. And I tell people this especially since I work in a bookstore, I tell people go into any bookstore, hey, you know any library.

J

Jimmy Carper 15:46

That's the other thing, go to, I-I've said this many, many times and when talking about gay and lesbian reading, go to Half Price first,

S

Speaker 1 15:55

They have a gay and lesbian section you can just kind of amble on by, right? Stop and look at a couple of books. Step in the aisle and look around, no one's looking, grab a book.

J

Jimmy Carper 16:05

No one cares, actually.

S

Speaker 1 16:07

And there's a lot of you know, straight people, I'll say straight people suppose the straight will assume straight people who go in, you know, the husband will be in the gay and lesbian section and the wife will be off walking somewhere else, and they're just interested. So you're not outing yourself. You don't need to feel self conscious as you probably feel, go and read, look, find out what you can find. Coming out is a very hard process, but it's not an immediate jumping off a cliff or an immediate rising to the heavens. What it is it's it's a small, step by step venture, that it really helps if you have somebody there to hold your hand. But if you don't, you can find somebody even if it's After Hours radio if it's, um.

J

Jimmy Carper 16:51

Lesbian and Gay Voices.

S

Speaker 1 16:52

Lesbian and Gay Voices.

J

Jimmy Carper 16:53

Friday night at 6.

S

Speaker 1 16:55

There's churches, there's lesbian and gay church groups.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:00

Unbelievable amount you name the religion there is a gay and lesbian affiliate.

S

Speaker 1 17:04

Protestant, there's gay and lesbian, Pentecostals, who you would think that that would be nearly impossible. There's a gay, lesbian Pentecostal group.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:12

What what what's more possible sounding than the gay and lesbian Catholic group?

S

Speaker 1 17:16

Right? There's Catholic groups, Dignity. And there's many, many Hispanics that go to Dignity because it affords them the place that they can practice the faith that they grew up in, and still be a gay and lesbian person. Yes. And I think that's pretty amazing and wonderful. I frequent MCCr, which is a multi-denominational kind of church, kind of half Catholic, half Baptist.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:41

Oh, you know, just another little tangent on that. I love that building so much. It's such a beautiful church. And I know that they're raising funds now to build a new one, a larger one, but boy, just walking down those, that the wooden aisles and it's all, every creek, I just love it. I just love it that, that says church to me.

S

Speaker 1 18:04

Me too. There's some saying, actually, the stained glass at MCCr represents something really special to me, because we had, when we first bought the church in '75, or six, I think the church was a very small previously Baptist Church in North Houston historical district and I forget what word it is.

J

Jimmy Carper 18:24

It's pretty close to downtown.

S

Speaker 1 18:25

Oh, it's right. It's very close to the police department has been in fact, it's like Houston and Washington. But the church is very small. And we grew from a congregation of about 20 or 30 to kind of

J Jimmy Carper 18:37

Oh, really?

S Speaker 1 18:38

Yeah, we started out at a con as a congregation of six in somebody's living room. So now there's about 400 people that go there on any given day. And the church is small, and they're, they're finding more space. But we didn't want to leave that building as yet anyway. So we've moved in, created larger space, and the stained glass had to be updated when it broke. The panes were old, and they just, it just broke. It wasn't made well. The two guys, two men, two gay men who were lovers who own their own stained glass company did the stained glass. And-

J Jimmy Carper 19:15

I never knew this.

S Speaker 1 19:16

Ralph and Steve, and they were good friends of mine, and they both now passed away. Ralph got very sick during the making of the stained glass and passed away before the last panel was completed. And his lover Steve had it finished and the panel, it's just beautiful. So there's a little--

J Jimmy Carper 19:34

The stained glass is gorgeous in there.

S Speaker 1 19:35

And there's a little remembrance chapel in the back there. And every time I go in, I go in and say hi and say thank you to Steve and Ralph, who donated so much time to help build the stained glass in that church, which just goes to show you getting back to the main point that coming out is a process. There are people who will love you and take care of you and be with you and support you throughout the process. You don't have to even like 'em, but there'll be there with you to tell them, to tell you that there are others like you. The number that I want you to call and contact is the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard. And they are your clearinghouse of information. The number is 52993211, 5293211. And they are the people you call, they're like the yellow pages, call them up, get the information from them, then make your phone calls. And then--

J

Jimmy Carper 20:29

Not every group will be for you either. I'm trying to say that this is you know, you're gonna just jump right in, because like anybody, anything else, a lot of groups have their own kind of cliques and things. Maybe you'll fit into that clique, and maybe you won't, and so--

S

Speaker 1 20:43

You know, and I was gonna mention to one of the caller, I'll call you, Blue, caller. You asked me when I was gonna have a Latina or I'll say Hispanic person on the air. I was going to have one on tonight as a matter of fact. I was hoping that a friend of mine who is a Latina business owner, was going to come on the show tonight and talk about her growing up, her family. She's very highly educated. I can't think of what school but somebody told me Ivy League college, but I was hoping that she was going to be able to come on and tell us about actually starting her own business. She has, she's very, like I said, she's very well educated and she has a career. And I think advertising that she began and then she decided that coming out was really important her and so she started the Gay and Lesbian Yellow Pages. And now the Houston Gay and Lesbian Yellow Pages have branched down there in Dallas. They're in Washington, DC. And they're they're beginning to be across the country now. And I just want to salute her even though she's not here tonight. And maybe she can come next time I'm on.

J

Jimmy Carper 21:50

We, um, normally Sarah's here and she's Hispanic.

S

Speaker 1 21:53

She's our token Hispanic person that you can talk to on the phone.

J

Jimmy Carper 21:56

Token., but.

S

Speaker 1 21:57

Well, you know what I mean? She's--

J

Jimmy Carper 21:58

She also does rugby.

S

Speaker 1 22:00

Yeah, I know. And Sarah has some likes to I've seen, not up close, you know, but you know, I've seen.

 Jimmy Carper 22:06

Not up close and personal.

 Speaker 1 22:07

Oh, it gets up close. That gets kind of personal but you know, not really intimate.

 Jimmy Carper 22:12

Oh, I can talk about is Gossip. Gossip. Gossip. No, no,

 Speaker 1 22:15

no. We like each other but you know, as friends. Okay, so thank you for calling callers. Callers all of you. Let's see. I don't have a lot of phone numbers for you here because, listen, there's just people that was for you, Joel. I love you. I was wrestling paper. Dropping the mic, dropping the mic is important too. I did that. That wasn't for Joe.

 Jimmy Carper 22:41

Boy. That sounds that felt real good in my ear, yes.

 Speaker 1 22:46

We're there. Okay, I have one more phone number for some women who called earlier. The Women's Network. The Women's Network is a support group established to serve the lesbian and bisexual women's. Hello. The Women's Network is a support group established to serve the lesbian and bisexual women's community of Houston. Any woman who is sensitive to and comfortable with lesbians is welcome. The Network provides an opportunity to discuss women's issues in a safe environment, network with other women and socialize with old and new friends. A donation is requested and any woman is welcome regardless of her ability to donate. They have a series of meetings here in November 10, November 24, December 18 and December 22. Let's see. For those who celebrate the holidays wish he was safe and joyoud holiday. To all we wish peace and love that's double holiday greeting. December 18. The meeting is going to be about sharing the holidays. Many lesbian women find this time of the year to be depressing. Very very tricky. Oh, I know my mom suffers big time from holiday blues. And I've been known to myself but even when my Christmas and holidays had been very good, you still you sometimes you just get that hibernating.

We talked about that two weeks ago Sharon Stone was here.

S

Speaker 1 24:05

That's right.

J

Jimmy Carper 24:05

We talked about that.

S

Speaker 1 24:07

Let's see. The evening will be a time of sharing ideas for transforming what can be a lonely experience into one of meaningful connection. We will conclude in sharing good wishes. All are invited to bring finger foods and munchies. I'm not going to touch that one.

J

Jimmy Carper 24:23

Thank you.

S

Speaker 1 24:25

Punch will be served. Punch--

J

Jimmy Carper 24:27

One time actually. Finger food and punch, hmm?

S

Speaker 1 24:31

Oh, okay. Anyway, December 18. There is a phone number on here. And there is an address too, and the address is a Richmond address. 701 Richmond.

J

Jimmy Carper 24:40

Oh, so that's just the Montrose counseling.

S

Speaker 1 24:42

Speaker 1 24:43

Right that's the main address, Montrose Counseling Center. The number as as it is and always shall be 5290037.

Jimmy Carper 24:52

That's the one.

Speaker 1 24:54

So give them a call and that by the way is is a strictly social group, support group, go there, talk to people meet them have a good time. If you don't like them, they'll come back. It's that simple, or come back later. So that's just one of the many ways you can go and do something supportive to enjoy the community of other women who are either coming out or have been out and are looking for the support of other people. Jimmy is frantically writing notes.

Jimmy Carper 25:24

No actually.

Speaker 1 25:26

Well just tell me. You're gonna write notes. No. Okay. Okay, Women's Network. There's also a men's network that operates out of Bering Care Center, but I don't have their phone number in front of me, but I happen to know that it does exist. So if your man there is one Bering United Methodist Church has that information for you. And they're also very good positive, so if you're Methodist, give them a call.

Jimmy Carper 25:47

Very good. Thanks. We'll be right back. That's right. It's time for the QMZ, queer music zone. Heard right here on After Hours, a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston, 90.1 FM World Radio for the people. And this week I've got, I do have new music, something I've, by an artist I never heard of. Joseph Victor Seiger. Sager? Seiger. Something I picked up over at Crossroads. It's an interesting CD. A lot of it, I can't play over the air. It's celebrating men's sexuality. But he does a couple of other types of things that I'm going to do right now. One is if you, ever, if you're a fan of Marlene Dietrich, you'll recognize the song "The Boys in the Back Room." Well, Joe kind of updates it. And then he does a little kind of a dancy thing with a nice message to it. So let's let's do a couple from Joseph Victor Seiger.

[Music] 27:23

Is everybody Thursday?
