And this way out, did a five part interview with them. And I thought, well, that that really sucks. You can keep up with a five part interview. new stuff.

07:03

Well, we'll say speaking of new groups, if you picked up a copy of the triangle this week, there is a great interview with a group called kitchens of distinction, which we have been playing for weeks and weeks and weeks. They have a brand new CD out called Cowboys and Aliens.

07:58

Oh, that sounds interesting. Yeah. And,

08:02

and we've got it set up right there in CD number one. Okay, oops. So why don't we get to that? Why don't we do that? And then we'll be back with Rudy and Romanovsky and Phillips and all kinds of other folks. Great. Oh, yeah, brand new from kitchens of distinction. The title cut Cowboys and Aliens. And whoa, and we've been getting some requests. I'm going to do one right now to Brooks in Kingwood. From Spencer in Montrose and also to my dear at moonbot. Ooh, yeah, one of our favorite queer bands a ratio with give me gimme gimme a man after midnight, and that was by request to Brooks in Kingwood. From Spencer in Montrose.

09:07

And that was good music. But you know why? We only pet play openly gay artists that Well, I try. I try. There are some straight artists that I played if they've got a song about the gay community or you know something that's supposed to be a member that's openly Oh, hell yeah. Yeah. You don't play enough Garth Brooks. Wow. Yeah. Why sisters? Really? I know. He's out about a sister, which is really cool. But you know what, guys? I have liked the BG since disco cheese, but that we had come from? Well, we have a request for the BJs and I'm sorry. Yes, a lot of us party to the BJs. And yes, we were all queer while we were partying to the Beegees but none of them are out Sorry, guys. No big stretch,

09:13

09:21

09:52

10:52

11:24

I see. We have a guest in the house. We do. And it's really love net. And it seems to be a new group forming. Why call we need more groups. Sure. And that happens to be along with a very nice place that happens to be doing a fundraiser for KPFT this very weekend, Borders Books.

11:28

11:32

11:49

And boy, we like borders, thank you borders, go visit borders, books. And if you come by the station and pick up a form before you go to Borders Books, they will donate a percentage of your purchase to KPFT.

12:03

Right? It's not it's not it's not a discount, but a percentage of whatever you buy all day today, Sunday will be donated to KPFT. We've got forums here at the lobby. So you can stop by anytime you can probably get some forms. Orders.

12:19

Yeah, you probably can. And I think if you tell the cashiers, you know, you want a portion of this to go to KPFT they will probably have something to fill out. Sure.

12:26

Sure. Okay.

12:30

So let's let's we're hearing some mattering in there. What's going on is we've got mics on in there. Yes, and Rudy slide. I didn't know if they were doing this at borders.

12:34

12:39

And I've got to say, well, I've got to say one more thing. Baba Baba Sue's real name is Dawn. She has a name. She has a name. And we teased her about being above it because she is. But she's really a cute little building. And she's six foot three and very tough. Ups. I do have. She's got breasts as large as your head, easily. Tuck the mic in there. Already.

12:56

12:59

13:06

Hi, Don, how you doing?

13:07

I'm fine. Did she slaughter your last name?

13:10

A little Linetti. But tell me about your group given this is a new group are starting at borders bookshop and Marlin Plaza. It's a gay and lesbian book discussion group. We are having our first meeting on Monday March the sixth at 730 in the upstairs lounge over at borders. And the first book we're going to be discussing is significant others by Armistead Maupin.

13:35

Yeah, well, how did this group gets started? Well, it's the mission of borders to be as involved with the community as possible. And I'm glad to say that they are, you know, they recognize the importance of our community and, and they respect our ideas and, you know, the development of our community. And they wanted to recognize that in a special way, and then they thought it was the most logical way was to form literary discussion group. And because you know, there's more to our lives. You know, the trolls, even though I love the trolls, a lot of us enjoy reading a lot of his talk. A lot of us enjoy talking about reading and just just a great idea, and I'm glad I'm part of it.

13:38

14:20

Where are you going? Are you going to be doing specific topics?

14:23

Well, to begin with, we're going to we're going to start from a literary bent, Armistead mowan is very good. His work is very timely. I'm sure you're familiar with the Tales of the City series, and the American Playhouse production that they did that but significant others touches on a lot of issues, relationships, fidelity, AIDS crisis camp, something that's you know, it's something that's, you know, there's something that is important to everybody, and I'm sure he's a really strong voice for the community. And we thought that was a real, that was real appropriate choice to make for our first discussion type because we wanted to bring as many viewpoints in as possible.

15:09

Are you going to have discussions like political discussions or ethical discussions?

Are you going to have discussions like political discussions or ethical discussions?

15:15

Yes, I think it's just the nature of the kind of group that you just, you really can't limit it to literary talk per se, because you know, of all the topics that are covered. And, you know, we're going to welcome any kind of different viewpoints in will want to discuss things like civil rights for gay and lesbian partners, and the military ban and that kind of thing. I mean, we're gonna want to branch out from literary but it seemed a real good starting place to get everyone together to begin with, and we're going to be entertaining a lot of viewpoints.

15:52

Will this be your first meeting? Or have you had meetings going on?

15:56

This is our first meeting, there is a group starting at the Westheimer. Store as well. But this is the first meeting at the Marlins store, and it's going to be on March 6.

16:07

Is it mainly men, a mixture Young Young?

16:10

Well, since it's going to be our first meeting, I really don't know what to expect. We have had a lot of a lot of patrons come in and you know, both gay and lesbian. So I really don't know what to expect, I hope I hope there's a nice representation of both men and women. Because everyone's got something important to contribute. And, you know, I'm, it's, I think it'd be great to be able to talk and listen and discuss and debate and I look forward to doing it.

16:40

How about some info here on where they can go phone numbers at 16:44
