

BRIAN KEEVER: We're on. There we are. Good morning, Montrose, Houston, and the world. This is Brian Keever with After Hours News. Well, we have a new health director in the city of Houston. Mary Kathy Whitmire has nominated the chief executive officer of Oklahoma City's County Health department to direct Houston City Health department. Pending the city council approval, Dr. John Arandando will take over March first here in Houston.

Dateline, the community. Reverend Chuck Larsen, the former pastor of the Metropolitan Community Church of the Resurrection, is here in town for a spiritual renewal, January the 22nd through the 24th. Reverend Larsen, who left MCCR Pulpit in 1985 will speak. Come and hear him Sunday morning, 10:45 AM. MCCR 1919 Decatur.

Dateline, San Antonio. Levi Strauss gives $30,000 to the San Antonio Tavern Guild AIDS Foundation. The Levi-Strauss foundation made its first payment of two donations to the San Antonio Tavern AIDS Foundation for an eventual gift of $30,000. The Tavern Guild will have until next December the first to come up with a matching donation, and was asked by Levi officials for a mid-year progress report on how donations from individuals and businesses were progressing.

Anti-gay Arizona Governor indicted. Dateline, Phoenix, Arizona. The indictment of anti-gay governor, Evan Meacham, on perjury and fraud charges will not stop his recall effort in which gay people in Arizona have played a leading role in getting that man out of office. Meanwhile, the state representatives are considering whether to impeach him or not. The conservative Republican governor has galvanized the people of this sunbelt state.

His sliding remarks about Blacks, Jews, gays, all these people have earned him his national headlines. Words like pickaninnies, queers, are words that have found offensive for the last century for Blacks, for gays. We need to get this man out of office right now.

Joan Kroc, the major stockholder in McDonald's restaurants, has given $1 million to the American Foundation for AIDS Research, AMFAR, and $25,000 each to the San Diego AIDS Assistance Fund and the San Diego AIDS Project.

Update. Our gay San Diego weekly reported that checks were drawn from Clark's personal accounts. This is not the first time the wealthy owner of the San Diego Padres baseball team has donated generously to AIDS-related causes. Congratulations to Joan Kroc.

Los Angeles civic leader, Sheldon Anderson, widely regarded as one of the nation's most powerful and influential gay political figures in the nation, died December the 29th of complications due to AIDS. He was 56 years old. Anderson was a lawyer, a banker, an art patron, and a philanthropist.

He gave generously to gay-related causes. In his Bel Air estate, he has entertained the likes of Senator Edward Kennedy, former Vice President, Walter Mondale, presidential candidates, Gary Hart, and other Democratic luminaries. This man came in at the top, was one of our most powerful gay leaders. We will sadly miss him.

New gay TV show in Austin, Texas on channel 10. Leave it to Austin, our wonderful sister city Gay Lesbian Straight Talk is a new television magazine of news, culture, and opinion serving the lesbian and gay communities of Central Texas.

It airs at 7:00 PM each Monday evening except for the second Monday of each evening on Austin cable channel 10. The program is produced and hosted by Tom Dole and Linda Ferrin. Congratulations to the new gay TV show in Austin on channel 10. Dateline, Dallas, Texas. A secret, clandestine, quiet CDC official meeting with gays.

When officials from Atlanta's Centers for Disease Control held a secret, two-day conference last week in nearby Grapevine they really got blasted to their feet and kept their feet to the fire. DGA President, William Waybourn, told us, the meeting was at a secret location, so the media couldn't cover it. Well, some local gay participants said, we'll have none of that.

The media descended on the Hilton Hotel. Following the CDC conference, participants there included Jeff Levi from the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, Vic Basile of the Human Rights Campaign Fund in Washington, DC, Kate Bishop of the Fund for Human Dignity, Dr. Ron Sable of the Cook County Hospital in Chicago, and others.

This is community-sponsored radio, Pacifica 90.1 FM KPFT, and this is Brian. From the heart of the Montrose, give us a call. 3:15 AM. 520-5738-520 KPFT. Collect area code, 713-520-5738.

MALE JOCKEY Now, ladies and gentlemen, we switch you back to Marathon Central. Hello, Marathon Central.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Marathon Central here.

TERRY ATKINS: How's it going?

ROGER KINSER: It's quiet. We've had a few false alarms. But nobody's taking us up on our $68 pledge offer, and we'd love to give some of these t-shirts, and sweatshirts, and especially those satin jackets away. They have become very popular this year.

In fact, the people from Pacifica who were in town a few weeks ago, they said, these are some of the best premiums that any of the Pacifica stations offer.

TERRY ATKINS: But then we had to do it.

ROGER KINSER: And we did it here right here at KPFT. And you can pick up on some of these premiums by calling 520-5738-520 KPFT. And become a listener sponsor, and support the programming in eight different languages, and 20 different musical styles, and all of the news and information programming that we do here.

There are shows on here that you can't hear-- find out this information anywhere else other than KPFT just like After Hours, Wilde 'N Stein, Breakthrough, Woman's Place, to name some of the gay and lesbian programming. And there's also things like Talk of the Earth about-- that talks about environmental issues.

There is French potpourri that gives information, music and information, about-- for the French-speaking people here. There is Black on Black that gives a lot of information about the Black community. There are several Black programs.

There are jazz programs. There's Celtic programming. There's German programming, French programming, Spanish programming, Vietnamese programming, Indian programming. We were the first place that the Vietnamese community could come to and talk to their own.

So KPFT is some place as diverse as a quilt of many, many, many different colors and people. And we all coexist here and get along, just like we should in the community in general. And you can support this by calling 520-5738-520 KPFT and become a listener sponsor.

Because if you listen to any program on KPFT, you should be a listener sponsor of KPFT. Don't wait one or two years or even three years. Call now, and be a listener sponsor. Call and pledge $18 and get the program guide for a year. It comes out every two months. You'll get six copies of it.

Or pledge $38 and get a guide, and a t-shirt, and one of the special premiums, such as the Harvey Milk tapes or the timeline tape. Or call and pledge $68 and get the guide for a year, a sweatshirt, and the two cassette package of the highlights of the March on Washington last October.

Or call and pledge $128 and get the guide and a jacket, and you can even pick up one of the other premiums, too. The timeline tape, or the Harvey Milk tape, or the march tapes. Those aren't just limited to those other pledge levels.

Or if you're really into it, you can get even pledge $218, and you can get the guide, plus the t-shirt, the sweatshirt, the jacket, and one of the other special premiums for your extended family.

That's the family pledge, and you don't have to be the so-called nuclear family. You can be an extended family or an alternate family, like most of us here. And you can do all of this by calling us now at 520-5738-520 five zero KPFT.

MALE JOCKEY And the number to call is 520-5738-520 KPFT. Normally, we come in, and we talk about gay rights, and women's rights, and men's rights, and everybody's rights. Right, Brian?

BRIAN KEEVER: Everybody's rights.

ROGER KINSER: Especially the rights of the people down in South Africa.

MALE JOCKEY And we do it because this is our radio station. This is community radio station.
1:

BRIAN KEEVER: And we care about our community.

ROGER KINSER: Sponsored non-commercial.

MALE JOCKEY By listeners like you. Call now.
1:

ROGER KINSER: You don't have to listen to commercials on KPFT. Betty Crocker's not going to advertise on KPFT, anyway.

BRIAN KEEVER: No, wait a minute.

ROGER KINSER: There's no way. Can you imagine Betty Crocker or have imagined Anita Bryant coming down here and advertising her orange juice on here?

BRIAN KEEVER: We have a boos and hisses about that woman.

MALE JOCKEY What's the boos and hisses department tonight?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: She was recently quoted in one of the gay press as saying, well, I don't want to say anything about the problem of AIDS and gays, but I guess I have to say, I told you so. And was quoted as saying that.

ROGER KINSER: 520-5738-520 KPFT.

ADVERT Because there's Mojo Nixon, man! I say, send your cash now, man! Don't take it to the banks! Don't give it to no

ANNOUNCER: real estate agents, man! Don't give it to no fools and three-piece suits! Right here in KPFT, they need your dough! They need your cash! They need your money!

Come on, bring it in! Send it in! You can bring it over here! You can mail it! You can pledge it! They need your dimes, nickels, pennies, quarters, dollars! $30 bill with Bill Graham's picture on them! They need all that stuff down here because this is free radio, and somebody's got to pay for it!

MALE JOCKEY That makes a lot of sense.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: It's 3:20 in the morning.

MALE JOCKEY And we-- you even got volunteers in the lobby, right?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Sure do.

ROGER KINSER: You know how many people are out here in the lobby right now?

MALE JOCKEY Have them count off. Let's just hear them. Let's have a countoff.

1:

ROGER KINSER: There are seven.

MALE JOCKEY Have them count off. I don't believe it. Let's hear it.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Hey.

ROGER KINSER: Everybody, let's countoff. Start with one.

COUNTER 1: One.

COUNTER 2: Two.

BRIAN KEEVER: The phone.

COUNTER 3: Three.

COUNTER 4: Four.

COUNTER 5: Five.

COUNTER 6: Six!

ROGER KINSER: And I'm seven.

MALE JOCKEY Who was that six?

1:

ROGER KINSER: Six? That's a friend of mine from high school.

MALE JOCKEY Are you kidding?

1:

ROGER KINSER: No.

BRIAN KEEVER: You had friends in high school?

ROGER KINSER: He's six.

MALE JOCKEY He say six or seven?

1:

ROGER KINSER: No, he's sick. He's sick. He's sick.

TERRY ATKINS: Sick, sick, sick.

BRIAN KEEVER: You had friends in high school?

MALE JOCKEY You had friends?

1:

ROGER KINSER: Yes, I had friends. I had friends in high school.

MALE JOCKEY Hey, listen.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: All three of them.

MALE JOCKEY The bottom line is--

1:

ROGER KINSER: Brian.

MALE JOCKEY --this is listener-sponsored radio. That means that you, the listener.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Yes, you.

MALE JOCKEY Support programs like this and every other program that you hear on KPFT. We come in every week for 40-some 1: odd weeks out of the year, and we never ask you for anything because we depend on you to pay our bills. And you do. You have for the past 18 years, and we thank you for that.

And this is just another chance for you to show your support for KPFT and free speech in America. Free speech in Houston. Free speech at 90.1 FM because if you don't call us, this is what you're going to hear, and it's going to sound like this.

It's pretty scary.

ROGER KINSER: Did you miss us?

BRIAN KEEVER: I sure did.

MALE JOCKEY 520-5738-520 KPFT. Give us a call.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Call us now. Call. Please.

MALE JOCKEY We got some great people out in the--

1:

ROGER KINSER: --a listener sponsor.

MALE JOCKEY --lobby.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Yeah.

MALE JOCKEY This is radio celebrating life from the heart of the Montrose. Next week, it may say the old-time gospel hour with

1: Jerry Falwell from 2:00 to 4:00 AM KPFT Houston 90.1

BRIAN KEEVER: Call us now.

MALE JOCKEY I want to play something for you right now. We're going to dissect it live on the air. You hear this every week.

1: First, we're going to play it just like you hear it. We're going to listen to the very beginning of it.

REPORTER: The disorders began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar, the Stonewall on Christopher Street.

Say it loud! Gay and proud!

TROY PERRY: We take great pride in what's happening in the gay community and what's going to happen.

ANITA BRYANT: The people of Dade County have said, enough, enough, enough.

CROWD: Human rights are here to stay! Anita Bryant, go away!

JOHN BRIGGS: There's no question in my mind that the people of California don't want homosexuals teaching in the classroom.

ELECTION State Senator, John Briggs, has just conceded the election.

ANNOUNCER:

REPORTER: Both Mayor Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk have been shot and killed.

REPORTER: Dan White has been found guilty of one count each of voluntary manslaughter.

CROWD: Fight now! Fight back!

REPORTER: It has now broken loose. Cops are now bashing heads.

REPORTER: And here comes the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights.

REPORTER: Gay power, gay politics. That's what this report is about.

REPORTER: There are gay and lesbian people singing out here. What's your reaction to that?

CITIZEN: I think it's terrible. If I had a rock, I'd throw it at them.

ACTIVIST: The real message of these gay games is that every one of us is a winner.

ACTIVIST: Tonight, we are marching, as are others across America. And we shouldn't have to be.

MALE JOCKEY Let's stop it before Linda starts screaming that she screams at-- 1:

ROBIN TYLER: Say it, so they can hear you at the Capitol! For love and for life, we're not going back! For love and for life, we're not going back! For love and for life, we're not going back! For love and for life, we're not going back!

REPORTER: I think that's Robin Tyler on the stage leading the chant. For love or for life, we're not going back.

ROBIN TYLER: Good afternoon, and welcome to the National March on Washington DC for Gay and Lesbian Rights and choral reciting! Let's hear it out there!

MALE JOCKEY Let's hear it out there. 520-5738-520 KPFT.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Call us now.

MALE JOCKEY Now then, we're going to take this tape, and we're going to dissect it if I can get it rewound. And we're going to 1: play name that tune.

BRIAN KEEVER: I played that game before.

MALE JOCKEY This is the first-- this is the killer. This is the very first thing you hear, and we're going to listen to this.

1:

REPORTER: The disorders began with a routine--

MALE JOCKEY Now, did you hear what he said, Brian?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Yes, I did.

MALE JOCKEY What?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Began with a routine raid.

MALE JOCKEY The disorders began with a routine police raid. What does routine mean, ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls?
1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Something that I used to experience a lot during the '60s.

MALE JOCKEY A routine police raid on what?
1:

ROGER KINSER: Every day.

BRIAN KEEVER: Every day bar.

REPORTER: The disorders began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar, the Stonewall--

MALE JOCKEY The disorders began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar.
1:

BRIAN KEEVER: And it wasn't even a preppy bar.

MALE JOCKEY The Stonewall in Christopher-- on Christopher Street in New York. And routine, that's what really gets me about
1: that. Because it was routine, and it still is routine. If you want to know when gay pride 1988, lesbian, gay pride
1988 is this year, just watch. You'll see the paddy wagon start pulling up in front of the bars.

ROGER KINSER: Yeah, that's routine. They do it every year Gay Pride Week.

BRIAN KEEVER: That's part of gay pride week.

ROGER KINSER: Yep. We even put it on the program. It's part of the program. It's a kind of a roulette, though, because they've gotten tired of raiding Mary's every year.

BRIAN KEEVER: Well, that's true. Yeah.

ROGER KINSER: So they're playing Russian roulette with which bar they're going to hit. We really ought to pick it for them.

BRIAN KEEVER: Yeah.

ROGER KINSER: Submit names and-- we should have a drawing here.

MALE JOCKEY Like a lotto.
1:

ROGER KINSER: Yeah, a lottery.

BRIAN KEEVER: Well, you know what would-- what would be funny if they pick the bar that has all the BMWs and the condos, and the people that live in those.

MALE JOCKEY Oh yeah.
1:

ROGER KINSER: Somebody's going to be mad, but they won't do it.

MALE JOCKEY Too much insulation.

2:

MALE JOCKEY Too much what?

1:

MALE JOCKEY Insulation.

2:

ROGER KINSER: Say that three times real fast.

MALE JOCKEY No, no, no, no.

2:

MALE JOCKEY So now what do we do next?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: But that's just it. They never do hit the rich.

MALE JOCKEY So next, we hear--

1:

REPORTER: Christopher Street.

CROWD: Say it loud! Gay and proud!

MALE JOCKEY Say it loud, gay and proud. That's right after the Stonewall riots, right?

1:

ROGER KINSER: That's right.

MALE JOCKEY So we know what that is.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Three days.

TROY PERRY: --in the gay community--

MALE JOCKEY Wait a minute. Do you know who this is?

1:

TROY PERRY: Gay pride.

ROGER KINSER: I know who that is.

CROWD: Say it loud! Gay and proud!

TROY PERRY: We take great pride in what's happening in the gay community, and what's going to happen.

MALE JOCKEY You know who that is? We take great pride in what's happened and what's happening in the gay community?

1: What's going to happen?

BRIAN KEEVER: Who is that?

MALE JOCKEY Does anybody know Roger don't say? Does everybody know? He gets real mad if you call him the Pope of MCC.
1:

TERRY ATKINS: Troy Perry.

MALE JOCKEY Yeah, that's Troy.
1:

ROGER KINSER: That's right.

BRIAN KEEVER: Big daddy Troy.

MALE JOCKEY The moral majority, they were throwing rocks at him in Los Angeles.
1:

ROGER KINSER: Yes, and you know how many of their churches got burnt down in the early days?

TERRY ATKINS: A lot.

MALE JOCKEY A lot.
1:

ROGER KINSER: And people died.

MALE JOCKEY Do you know how many gay men and women died in their churches? People died.
1:

ROGER KINSER: Because the un-Christian Christians didn't like gay Christians.

TERRY ATKINS: Right here in Houston on 1919 Decatur. MCC had a cross burning in front about four or five years ago.

ROGER KINSER: We all know who burns crosses.

BRIAN KEEVER: Yes.

MALE JOCKEY And then next is my favorite.
1:

ROGER KINSER: But they wear tacky sheets.

MALE JOCKEY My favorite lady is next.
1:

ANITA BRYANT: The people of Dade county have said, enough, enough, enough.

MALE JOCKEY That was, of course--
1:

ROGER KINSER: The orange lady.

MALE JOCKEY The orange juice lady.

1:

ROGER KINSER: No, she's orange. She's from Mars.

MALE JOCKEY You don't remember all that, do you?

1:

ROGER KINSER: She's not from Earth.

MALE JOCKEY I remember faintly echoes of Anita Bryant when I was young.

2:

ROGER KINSER: 520-5738-520 KPFT.

MALE JOCKEY Visa, Mastercard, American Express.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Call collect.

CROWD: Human rights are here to stay! Anita Bryant, go away!

MALE JOCKEY Human rights are here to stay. Anita Bryant, go away.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Not necessarily. They can be voted out.

MALE JOCKEY That's right.

1:

ROGER KINSER: The people have voted many times to take our rights away even here in Houston three years ago this month, I believe it was.

BRIAN KEEVER: Yes, January the 19th. I'll remember it.

MALE JOCKEY We can continue to sit on our butts and not do anything, but--

1:

MALE JOCKEY Don't wait until the big, bad things happen before you stand up.

2:

ROGER KINSER: It's conceivably possible that we could lose our right to vote, and our people that propo-- have proposed that recently.

MALE JOCKEY You know what really killed me? A lot of gay people said, well, I don't work for the city, and I don't know very 1: many people that are gay that work for the city. And I certainly know there are no gay police officers that work for the city. Hey, I'm gay, and I do work for the police department. I do know there are gay police officers down there,

BRIAN KEEVER: I know a couple.

MALE JOCKEY Just like there are gay lawyers, and doctors, and teachers.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: --everywhere.

MALE JOCKEY We are everywhere. So what's next?

1:

JOHN BRIGGS: There's no question in my mind that the people of California don't want homosexuals teaching in the classroom.

MALE JOCKEY That's a good one. That's John Briggs. He had Proposition 6. That was to get rid of all the gay teachers in 1: California.

ROGER KINSER: It wasn't just gay teachers, though. It was people who--

BRIAN KEEVER: Didn't fit his--

ROGER KINSER: --believed that gay people-- that even straight people who believed gay people had rights.

MALE JOCKEY But what happened to that?

1:

ELECTION State Senator, John Briggs, has just conceded the election.

ANNOUNCER:

MALE JOCKEY And that was John Briggs defeating-- he went down to defeat two to one.

1:

ROGER KINSER: It was our first victory after a long string of defeats.

MALE JOCKEY Straight people decided that John Briggs and his Nazism ideas just weren't going to make it.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Fascist.

MALE JOCKEY Yeah. And then, one of the darkest days in our history.

1:

REPORTER: Both Mayor Moscone and Supervisor Harvey Milk have been shot and killed.

REPORTER: Dan White has been found guilty of one count each of voluntary manslaughter.

CROWD: Fight now! Fight back!

REPORTER: --has now broken loose. Cops are now bashing heads.

MALE JOCKEY It was one of the darkest days I can remember. November the 28th, 19--

1:

ROGER KINSER: 27th.

MALE JOCKEY Excuse me, November 27th, 1978, when a man--

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: I still don't eat Twinkies.

MALE JOCKEY When a man that's a--

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: It must have--

ROGER KINSER: Might kill someone.

BRIAN KEEVER: --to work one morning.

MALE JOCKEY Yeah, man with a gun climbed into a window in the basement of City Hall, killed two people in cold blood, and he

1: got sent to the penitentiary for seven years.

ROGER KINSER: Why did he crawl through the window?

MALE JOCKEY Because he had a gun in his pocket.

1:

ROGER KINSER: What would that matter? Couldn't he walk through the front door with a gun in his pocket?

MALE JOCKEY No, the San Francisco of-- the mayor of San Francisco had metal detectors put in the lobby of City Hall because 1: he had a nut get in his office. And after that happened, they put metal detectors in the lobby.

ROGER KINSER: If someone was really that deranged, why wouldn't they-- it seems to me that they would be too off out of their senses to realize that. And then to crawl through a basement window.

MALE JOCKEY See, he killed a fag.

1:

MALE JOCKEY Homophobia.

2:

ROGER KINSER: Is that what it is?

MALE JOCKEY Hey, man, he killed a fag, so he was OK.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Two of them.

MALE JOCKEY We'll just send him to jail for seven years. It's OK.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: Just like slapping his hands. Go on, little boy. Go on.

MALE JOCKEY Those are the kind of things that we're dealing with.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: But the man has gone on to his greater reward, also.

ROGER KINSER: Hopefully.

TERRY ATKINS: Right.

BRIAN KEEVER: He really did, and I-- like I said, to this day, I still don't eat Twinkies. What a defense.

MALE JOCKEY If anyone's heard about the Twinkie defense, that's where it came from.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: If I go out and do away with a bunch of Christian fundamentalist weirdos, I can plead Twinkies?

ROGER KINSER: You don't have to get rid of the Christian fundamentalists anymore because they've teamed up with the Moonies.

MALE JOCKEY We've got tons of poetry, and tons of wonderful music for you, and tons of music here and here. And we haven't

1: heard any of it because--

ROGER KINSER: All of our local gay artists, too.

MALE JOCKEY --it cost money to do it. Although we don't get paid for doing any of this. We're volunteers.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: This is a labor of love.

ROGER KINSER: It costs about $40 an hour to keep KPFT on the air.

MALE JOCKEY We love coming down here and doing this show for you, but it's going to take financial to support-- financial 1: support to keep us on the air. And we can only do that by asking you to call 520-5738-520 KPFT.

BRIAN KEEVER: Call now.

MALE JOCKEY Roger, how much money have we raised up there this morning?

1:

ROGER KINSER: We've got $25.

MALE JOCKEY $25, and we have a goal of what?

1:

ROGER KINSER: $450.

MALE JOCKEY Somebody get Jerry Falwell on the line. It's going to be the old-time gospel hour.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Maybe we could borrow the prayer tower.

MALE JOCKEY So we're-- how much are we short?

1:

ROGER KINSER: Well, $425. Plus the $300 from last week.

MALE JOCKEY So how much is that that we need to raise in--

1:

ROGER KINSER: $725.

MALE JOCKEY That's not too bad. How many $128 pledges would that be? Blue satin jackets on the streets?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: And we do take plastic.

ROGER KINSER: Yes. Money is plastic. Yes.

MALE JOCKEY I can't imagine--

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Visa, Mastercard, American Express.

MALE JOCKEY Come up with a great deal for $128 pledge. Unless let's really kick the bottom out of the sack.

1:

MALE JOCKEY And you can pay little bits at a time, too.

2:

MALE JOCKEY You guys, let's put it together. That After Hours special pledge right now. So what can it be? Roger, you see all

1: the premiums out there. Put something together for us.

ROGER KINSER: Jeez.

MALE JOCKEY We'll do it. I know--

1:

ROGER KINSER: They're so good--

MALE JOCKEY Jen and--

1:

ROGER KINSER: They're so good now. You know what I can do, though?

BRIAN KEEVER: What can you do?

ROGER KINSER: For $128 pledge, I can give you the program guide for a year. I can give you the blue satin jacket. I can give you two hours of highlights from the March on Washington. And I can give you a nice, big KPFT duffel bag.

TERRY ATKINS: We have a duffel bag, too?

ROGER KINSER: A duffel bag.

MALE JOCKEY You can stuff it all in the duffel bag, and--

1:

ROGER KINSER: You can stuff it all in the duffel bag and carry it out.

BRIAN KEEVER: Just think how good that'll look at the gym.

ROGER KINSER: And those things hold a lot. You can use that for luggage or a very big purse.

TERRY ATKINS: Take it to the beach.

ROGER KINSER: Yeah, it's excellent for the beach. Excellent. It's real heavy canvas. It's blue with purple, and it's got the KPFT logo on it in the shape of a heart.

TERRY ATKINS: Be the queen on the beach.

ROGER KINSER: That's right.

TERRY ATKINS: With your KPFT duffel bag.

ROGER KINSER: You can pack your clothes in it and go flying. It's very heavy duty, and I think that's a great deal because we were offering those duffel bags last time for $120 pledges.

TERRY ATKINS: Are you serious?

BRIAN KEEVER: Oh, yeah.

ROGER KINSER: You can get what we're offering for--

BRIAN KEEVER: $128.

ROGER KINSER: About $300 worth of pledges for $128 pledge.

BRIAN KEEVER: That's all?

ROGER KINSER: That's all.

TERRY ATKINS: Just $128 for all that?

ROGER KINSER: For $128, you can get $300 worth of premiums. That's a lot. That is a lot of premiums.

MALE JOCKEY 520 KPFT.

1:

ROGER KINSER: Call now. 520-5738-520 KPFT.

TERRY ATKINS: $300 worth of premiums for $128. Where else but in Houston can you get the--

ROGER KINSER: That's for the next listener sponsor.

TERRY ATKINS: For the next one?

BRIAN KEEVER: It's 3:37 in the morning. The next person that calls in.

ROGER KINSER: We still got that t-shirt and sweat shirt offer for the $68 pledge also.

BRIAN KEEVER: We've still got my offer with six months subscription to TWT magazine.

TERRY ATKINS: I want that delivered to my door because-- no. I never get down there in time.

ROGER KINSER: For a $38 pledge--

MALE JOCKEY You want that, Terry?

1:

ROGER KINSER: All you have to do is answer the question--

TERRY ATKINS: I don't have $68.

MALE JOCKEY Well, you don't have to pay now. You can pay it out.

1:

ROGER KINSER: You can pay it out.

TERRY ATKINS: Roger. Roger.

MALE JOCKEY Wait a minute. Roger, we're going to take you off for a minute, OK? I took him off. We're going to do something.

1: Terry wants to make a pledge. Punch up the line right there. Now call the number. 520 KPFT.

BRIAN KEEVER: It's ringing.

ROGER (OVER Thank you for calling KPFT Winterthon May I take your pledge, please?

PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: Yes, ma'am. I would like to make a pledge, please, and I also want the t-shirt and the sweatshirt, and the TW-- the TWT this week.

ROGER (OVER We can do that for $128-- $68 pledge. What your amount is?

PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: My amount is $68, but I'd like to pay that over a period of time, please. Can you do that?

ROGER (OVER OK. As long as you set that up with us, we can go ahead, and we'll give you your premiums when all your PHONE): payments are finished.

TERRY ATKINS: OK. Can I do it right now? Terry Atkins.

ROGER (OVER And your address?

PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: 1001--

MALE JOCKEY Go ahead and give that address out. Wait a minute. Wait a minute. Let me do this. We'll get the address. Don't 1: give that address out on the radio.

TERRY ATKINS: I'll give you my address later, OK?

ROGER (OVER OK. We'll take care of that a little later then, and we'll get those things set up.

PHONE):

MALE JOCKEY Then we'll get-- Ask her the number for the phone. You asked her for the phone number, and then what do you
1: ask her for?

ROGER (OVER) We'll be asking also, is this the first time you've given to KPFT?
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: Yes, it is.

ROGER (OVER) And we will want to make sure we get everything correct to get you the program guide mailed to you.
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: I appreciate it.

ROGER (OVER) And we'll also want to make sure that we have the authorization to use your name on the air.
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: You sure do. And I will get my TW tee, won't I?

ROGER (OVER) Oh, yes. Oh, yes. Now, the premiums do come after everything is paid in full.
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: Sounds good to me.

ROGER (OVER) Well, we thank you very much for your donation.
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: Thank you. You have a wonderful day.

ROGER (OVER) Thanks.
PHONE):

TERRY ATKINS: Bye.

MALE JOCKEY Now let's go back out to the lobby and see what's going on. Hello.
1:

TERRY ATKINS: Hello.

MALE JOCKEY Tell us about the special things.
1:

ROGER KINSER: The special for $128. You can get the program guide for a year, plus the blue satin jacket, plus the duffel bag, plus the two cassette tapes with the highlights from March on Washington. That's for $128, and that's $300 worth of premiums. We normally would ask $300 in pledges for those premiums.

MALE JOCKEY And do we have anybody to thank?
1:

ROGER KINSER: And we would like to thank Terry for her $68 pledge because she took us up on the t-shirt and sweatshirt offer plus with the TW tee offer.

MALE JOCKEY So what does that bring us up to now?

1:

ROGER KINSER: Let me do some quick adding here. The calculator won't work. It's a solar calculator, and it's not working. I wonder why? That brings us up to $93. And we are still very far from our goal, and you can help us by calling 520-5738-520 KPFT and become a listener sponsor.

You can use your Visa, Mastercard, or American Express, and if you're outside the Houston area, you can call us collect. Or even if you're inside the Houston area near a payphone, call us collect. It's 713-520-5738 or 713-520 KPFT.

And pick us up on those premiums that we've got to offer. That $128 special. You can still get-- you can pledge for $38 and get the t-shirt, or $68 and get the sweatshirt. And take some of these premiums. Those blue satin jackets have gone very well. We've even had to order them.

We're going to take them down Monday and have them printed at the printers, and we'll have them available again. We do have small and extra large in stock right now, but the mediums and larges have gone very, very well. You can call at 520-5738-520 KPFT and support the diverse programming on KPFT. The eight languages, 20 different music styles, the public affairs, news, information,

BRIAN KEEVER: Entertainment.

ROGER KINSER: Entertainment. Lots of entertainment. The alternative. Hear what you've been missing on KPFT.

BRIAN KEEVER: Here in Houston, Texas.

ROGER KINSER: That's right.

BRIAN KEEVER: Listen to our sponsor, Pacifica Radio 90.1 FM on your dial.

ROGER KINSER: 18 years old.

BRIAN KEEVER: We're 18 years old.

ROGER KINSER: 18 years old. You have supported us for 18 years. Who would believe? Who would believe that 18 years ago, a-- the Pacifica foundation could start up a radio station here for alternative listening for the people that-- in a place like Houston? A lot of people still think Houston's a backwater.

MALE JOCKEY What's this button? It says the Jerry Falwell Show?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Don't touch that button.

ROGER KINSER: That's the feed. That's the feed Gene, I think, is fixing to put through.

MALE JOCKEY Is this the theme to their show? The Jerry Falwell that had him--

1:

ROGER KINSER: That's the feed.

MALE JOCKEY Wait a minute.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: That is their theme.

MALE JOCKEY That's it, the Jerry Falwell. They've got it here. It's coming next week.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: That's it.

ROGER KINSER: 520-5738-520 KPFT.

TERRY ATKINS: It's been real.

MALE JOCKEY Yeah, well, give us a call. 520-5738-520 KPFT.

1:

JOE WATTS: The Seminole Kid written and read by Joe Watts. There lies somewhere in the west plains of Texas a mysterious force that makes young boys grow so pure and sweet. It's not known if it's in the water, the air, or the earth itself.

Perhaps looking without is not the answer. Need we look within the shell to find the pearl? Inside his very soul must lie that wondrous force that makes his glow so beautiful to behold.

He's peaceful, yet exciting. Midnight Mass and New Year's Eve rolled into one. He loves to touch you with his hands, but does he know how deep his touch goes? His eyes dance and twinkle when making love like colorful rainbow raindrops bouncing gaily on a carousel.

His little elf ears and cherub nose look like spare parts from dolls at Santa's workshop. His body is warm and strong, like a flickering fireplace that shelters you on a cold winter night. His lips are soft and tender, like the first rose at the birth of a virgin spring.

It's frightening to know that one so young contains all these golden treasures, but joyful to think that there is more to come in learning about that secret force that lies somewhere between his soul and mind.

ROGER KINSER: The Smell of Man, written and read by Roger Kinser. I saw his figure in dim light. I stared at him, and he at me, defining his form, though difficult to see. He was built a man of the night. He was hot. I knew I was right.

With fire, his eyes caressed me, absorbing my form, straining to see. I knew then he wanted me that night. After our interlude, later in bed, I slept lightly, my head atop his hairy chest. My nostrils smelt him at his best, for the smell of a man is the most rousing to my head.

MALE JOCKEY Well, Roger, what's going on in the lobby?

1:

ROGER KINSER: It's kind of slow. Everybody's sitting around talking. The phones aren't ringing. I don't hear any jingling in my ears. I'd love to hear that. You can do that by calling 520-5738-520 KPFT.

MALE JOCKEY Brian, I'm sure you'll back me up on this.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: What?

MALE JOCKEY We're the most financially affluent-- is that right?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: That's right.

MALE JOCKEY Community.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: We have more expendable income.

MALE JOCKEY And I have been slightly disappointed that our friends--

1:

ROGER KINSER: You can still call.

MALE JOCKEY --forward.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: We still have time. It's 3:50 in the morning.

MALE JOCKEY Sure. 520-5738-520 KPFT. And I can think of a lot better ways that I might be spending my Saturday night, so we

1: may be doing that very shortly. In fact, we may all be doing that very shortly.

BRIAN KEEVER: I could be in bed right now.

MALE JOCKEY If KPFT goes away. If KPFT goes away, you can bet the Jerry Falwell people aren't going to let us in here to do our 1: programming.

ROGER KINSER: No, not after they pay $500 for this place.

MALE JOCKEY Harvey Milk said, when the Proposition 6 thing was defeated in San Francisco back in 1978, that we must destroy

1: the myth once and for all, shatter them. We must continue to speak out, and most importantly, most importantly, every gay person must come out. As difficult as it is, you must tell your immediate family. You must tell your relatives. You must tell your friends if, indeed, they are your friends. You must tell your neighbors. You must tell the people in the stores you shop in.

And once they realize that we are indeed their children, that we are indeed everywhere, every myth, every lie, every innuendo will be destroyed once and forever. And that's true, but it's not going to happen if you don't come out. And if you can't come out of the closet, I can respect that, but you can get your checkbook out of the closet. You can be an anonymous donor to KPFT by calling 520-5738-520 KPFT. Charge it to Visa, Mastercard, American Express.

BRIAN KEEVER: Don't leave home without it.

MALE JOCKEY And you can be a supporter of this program and this station, and if the station's not here, we're certainly not

1: going to be here.

BRIAN KEEVER: Remember, this is your station. We need you. We're only here for you.

MALE JOCKEY That's it.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Directly here in the Montrose area.

MALE JOCKEY We're getting ready to cut out, and Michael Davis, who we missed last week, is back with Stepchild 213. I can't 1: wait to hear that--

TERRY ATKINS: Yay, Michael.

MALE JOCKEY --funkadelic sound that he's going to bring to you. We want you to support Michael. I know all of Michael's
1: listeners are getting ready to tune in and support his program.

BRIAN KEEVER: We've got five more minutes.

MALE JOCKEY We do?

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Five more minutes.

MALE JOCKEY Michael, you want to start next week at 2:00? Because we're not coming back.

1:

MICHAEL: At 2:00 in the morning?

MALE JOCKEY From 2:00 to 6:00? Can you go to a--

1:

MICHAEL: There is no way.

BRIAN KEEVER: Why not?

TERRY ATKINS: Well, Michael.

MALE JOCKEY I don't know what to say.

1:

MICHAEL: But you got five minutes. 526-4000, 520-KPFT. 520-57--

TERRY ATKINS: Listen, Michael is lighting it up--

MICHAEL: Oh, yeah! Call it.

BRIAN KEEVER: Call in now.

TERRY ATKINS: Tell them, Michael. Tell them.

MICHAEL: Serious side, folks.

TERRY ATKINS: Tell them.

BRIAN KEEVER: Call in. We need your help.

ADVERT I say, send your cash now, man! Don't take it to the bank! Don't give it to real estate agent, man! Don't give it to

ANNOUNCER: no fools in three-piece suits! Right here at KPFT!

MICHAEL: I'm going to talk about you this morning, but send some anyway.

ADVERT Bring it over here! You can mail it! You can pledge it! They need your dimes, nickels, pennies, quarters, dollars!

ANNOUNCER: $30 bills with Bill Graham's picture on them! They need all that stuff down here because this is free radio, and somebody's got to pay for it! Did that make any sense?

MALE JOCKEY Hey, Roger. Tell us about those special premiums while Michael cues up some records for us.

1:

ROGER KINSER: OK. For an $18 pledge, you can get a KPFT program guide for a year. For a $38 pledge, you can get a KPFT program guide for a year and a KPFT t-shirt. And for a $68 pledge, you can get a KPFT program guide for a year.

TECHNICIAN 1: Something's probably misaligned or--

TECHNICIAN 2: Twisted.

TECHNICIAN 1: That'll be the according to KPFT.

TECHNICIAN 2: Someone sabotaged it. Pull back. OK.

ROGER KINSER: KPFT Houston. We were interrupted there. Sounds like our transmitter dropped out again.

MALE JOCKEY No, it didn't drop out. We did one of these.

1:

BRIAN KEEVER: Did I hear those phones ringing out in the lobby?

TERRY ATKINS: No, you couldn't have heard those phones ringing out in the lobby.

VOLUNTEER: Be like Victor I-G-I-L. 3607 Mulberry. Number 12. One. 12. Yes, 006. I don't have a home phone yet.

MICHAEL: --on the microphone. What? Hello? Are we there? Yes.

TERRY ATKINS: Roger. Roger.

ROGER KINSER: Oh, I'm back.

TERRY ATKINS: Roger? Hello?

ROGER KINSER: Yes, we've got a pledge on the line. And let me see here. Hello. Let me see. Let me get back to where I was. For $128 pledge, you can get the KPFT jacket, blue satin jacket. They're fantastic. They're lined, have nice, big pockets, and you can also get the program guide for a year. These are just incentives.

BRIAN KEEVER: Who's on the phone?

ROGER KINSER: We're still taking the pledge.

TERRY ATKINS: Do we really have a caller out there?

ROGER KINSER: We really have a caller out there.

TERRY ATKINS: I'm impressed. I'm really impressed.

ROGER KINSER: I'm impressed, too.

TERRY ATKINS: We have a caller, Michael.

MALE JOCKEY We're going. Let Michael in here.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: Michael, we missed you last week, but we had fun.

MICHAEL: I was off on another misadventure.

TERRY ATKINS: Misadventure?

MICHAEL: Yeah, I was. I did. I went off on another misadventure, folks. And I'm sorry if I wasn't here last week, funkateers, but you better believe it's going to be funky up in this control room.

MALE JOCKEY So he's getting ready to rock and roll. Listen, all that stuff we promised we'd play for you, if Jerry Falwell old-time gospel hour is not on next week in our place--

MICHAEL: Falwell is one of my best friends, man. You need to watch your mouth.

MALE JOCKEY They may have more money. They make up more supporters than we got, so we may come in.

1:

MICHAEL: He's one of my friends.

MALE JOCKEY They may have Jerry's name on our box out there. Money.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: Michael and Jerry, funkateers.

MICHAEL: What you got?

ROGER KINSER: I've got a thank you here to Nicholas.

TERRY ATKINS: All right, Nicholas.

ROGER KINSER: This is the first time he's given to KPFT, and he's given $18. He'll get the program guide for a year. And it says here he works for another station, but he's listening to KPFT.

MALE JOCKEY Did he ask for any special premiums?

1:

ROGER KINSER: No, he didn't ask for any special premiums.

MALE JOCKEY Well, Nicholas, we're going to send you a KPFT t-shirt. I'll personally take care of that, and we'll send you the March cassettes if you'll call us back and let us know that you want them. If you don't want them, well, we'll send them to you anyway.

TERRY ATKINS: All right, Nicholas.

ROGER KINSER: Thank you.

MALE JOCKEY --Houston. It's time for Stepchild 213, and we're all going to get out of here.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: Goodnight.

MALE JOCKEY I don't want to say, keep calling.

1:

TERRY ATKINS: Keep calling.

MICHAEL: Better keep calling.

TERRY ATKINS: Keep calling. Keep going.

MICHAEL: Call us! Call now! Call! Where's Mojo Nixon? Get that tape out. Heal! Heal this heathen land! Jerry Falwell's coming. Time now is 4:00 AM. And you're listening to KPFT 90.1 FM--

TERRY ATKINS: Yes, Michael!

MICHAEL: --in Houston, Texas, and I am Stepchild 213.
