Oh yeah, for that listener who wanted to hear Janis that's my favorite channels piece get it while you can, as you just don't know what's going to happen tomorrow babies before that we had, oh, some oldies that poetry by Pat Parker, the late great Pat Parker who died of breast cancer. She was a native Texan and a proud lesbian. It was where will you be when they come? And nobody has come close to delivering that poem like Pat Parker. And on top of that was Richard odd. who conducts the weather? Is it the East something here it is the east pacific symphony, which is Richard odd on electronics, an out gay man doing a version of somewhere, which was behind that poetry and before that, the good homosexual, which you haven't heard here on after hours, and ooh, before 1991, I think, just recently found again. Now, along a lighter vein, big Roy wants to dedicate the gay the queer policeman actually dedicated to Scott and southwest Houston, who is a faithful listener, and I believe he may be kind of in that line of work.

If you ever need a policeman all you got to do is holler. They're always there right on the job. For instance, here's the best one that money can buy. Oh

I have a real plate. Why would I love to give you the third degree? My gazing at my sexy farm with rapture you'll be stricken. Take one look at me fellows and meal fighter chicken. I ruffian wants to bite me. I gave him one call gays. And as I recently met with her, I said to him, I said, your arrest your arrest warrants with me. Are we going to the station and Assange? She'll serve tea. Now stop that. tittering I sent you a hard hard man. Because I'm a real policeman now honest to god I am. Well, you're a large to my walking down the street one day with my girlfriend by my side. She said look at that horrible fistfight. I think I'll run and hide. But instead of failing, suppose my smelling salts I do. And dashing mascara on my eyes and to the fray. I flew. So I says to him, you bugger. You're arrested. You're arrested. Now cabbage wants with me. We're going to the station and the Saudi shelter key stuff that snickering if you harvest hard, man, because I'm unreal policemen. Honest to God, I am cruising in my squad car last night. I came upon two lovely boys parked in a car. They are. So I shine my flashlight in the car and I says Okay, fellas, what's going on? And one of the boys said, well, nothing officer. We're just sitting there talking. Just you and the fan. You know? I said, Well, how long have you been parked here? He said about an hour, sir. I said You mean you've been parcher an hour and nothing has happened? He said No, sir. I said, well, here you get out and hold the place. Like let me in there. Well, I'll never forget my toughest arrest was a bartender, big and rough. He says I was a policeman. I didn't look happy now. But did I bought him out something terrible, right? Can I call his bluff? And suddenly my kerchief in his face. I said, I've had a no, Medic, it's bit. So I said to him with authority of my voice, your arrest. Not Thomas was with me. But going to the station and massages you'll certainly hold everything. No matter what you said three times.

The sergeant shields served to me I said it three times. Now. You mean the sergeant He'll serve to you don't know your English. Well, you don't know my sergeant. stickering I insist you hard, hard man. Because I'm a real policeman now. God

Oh, yeah, the queer policeman. How about a little more Indigo Girls who are going to be here on June the 25th. This is from their brand new album, shaming of the Son. And it's one of my favorites, called scooter boys. Oh yeah, Indigo Girls with Scooter boy, story of intolerance and injustice. You've been listening to after hours queer radio with attitude, but I want to talk about a few more things before we go out of here. The Gay and Lesbian Film Festival is coming up actually, it's kind of going on right now. There are a couple of films playing around right now. But officially It starts on the 23rd. With love, valor and compassion, the film playing at the landmark Greenway. And then at Landmark River Oaks, female perversion, starting on May 25. And of course it may 24 At midnight, Priscilla, Queen of the Desert, and may 31 will be the incredibly true Adventures of two girls in love. We'll be bringing you more information about that. And we've got some giveaway items we'll be doing next week, probably CDs and books. Don't forget about Ray Hill. Speaking out. Ray Hill and the prison years. That's a one man show coming up may 29 through the 31st at the actors workshop at 106 Charteris for reservations 5286132. And of course Pride week coming up. And there's more of the game has been Film Festival stuff. Yes, come meet the team. Team Houston is invite you to meet with us and share the excitement of the games at the black blast off mixer Thursday, May 22. At Kim song. That'll be Oh 6pm door prizes cash bar and complimentary hors d'oeuvres. Chem saw on Thursday, May 22. There's a new group out at the U of H called outreach and it's comprised of queers and non queers who want to bring the message of diversity to the community. They meet Thursday at 4pm at the University of Houston Alumni Center, Cullen Boulevard. It's next to the Hofheinz pavilion might want to check that out. Houston gay and lesbian parents present our first summer Lecture Series Tuesday May 20 is going to be alternative insemination with Pat Jones certified nurse midwife. And all meetings are held at the Grace Lutheran Church 2515 wall drive 7:30pm to 9pm. And one more time. The Memorial Day bash at the BRB, Monday, May 26, two o'clock pm the pride committee is going to be there and selling their stuff. They've got t shirts, tanks, pins, necklaces, bumper stickers, all of that. So go on over to the Brazos River bottom for shrimp and crawfish boil. We want to thank you for listening tonight. I want to thank Jul thank Ray Hill, everyone who called in with our requests big rah Jim out in the lobby. You've been listening to after hours career radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. Coming up at the top of the hour will be the BBC News, followed by the return of the sons of musical chairs with Billy Gilbert and Elmo and Randy. And the outgoing music this week is that that group that I love so much is raising ZR a zy with their CD, permanent happiness and the song off of it. Come out everybody. Of course that's what we wish for all of you no matter what closet you're in. Come on out. See you next week.
