Gigi 00:01

Some music because they have some music they want to play. But go ahead and finish the question.

Speaker 1 00:07

Yeah, the thing that you were talking about about sexuality and in the community, this is not specifically druidic, it will actually definitely not druidic, but there is a part of the pagan community that is, and they call themselves a sacred prostitutes. It's reclaiming the priestess hood, where young men and women would come to the priests and priestesses for the first sexual experience for so it'd be a positive spiritual experience rather than a behind the woodshed experience. And we're traveling.

Gigi 00:42

But one thing I have seen a lot in the community is that a lot of people get caught up and in just getting an experience, and sometimes when that what's the wrong partner, or partners that aren't really as sensitive and to the needs of someone that's having their first experience of one type or another, whether it be first sexual experience, or first heterosexual experience.

Speaker 1 01:15

I'm not saying sacred prostitutes do this for people's first times I'm saying, this is where the tradition comes from. The sacred prostitutes of today. reteach women and men about their sexuality, how to enjoy themselves how to make love, real love better, more pleasurable, longer, without guilt. You know, there's no sin anymore in it, there's no guilt.

G Gigi 01:42
There's still some guidance, guidance.

S Speaker 1 01:45
and they teach you how to be healthy and safe and really enjoy yourself. And that's something that a lot of society needs to reclaim so they can walk around and be comfortable rather than uptight and angry about a lot of things.

G Gigi 02:00
And with that, we're gonna go for some music back again, with Gigi and binet. We make yes. And we meet every Wednesday night at MCCR church from seven to nine. I kind of wanted to throw that little plug in for us.

M Michelle 02:26
We'd love to have you so if anyone's listening and is either interested in coming to those undertones?

G Gigi 02:32
Oh yeah. Oh, baby, we plug them in. Find it.

M Michelle 02:40
Now if that wasn't an innuendo, I don't know what was.

G Gigi 02:44
And Gigi loves getting plugged.

M Michelle 02:47
We all know that Gigi.

G Gigi 02:48
Oh yes, I'm such a sled puppy. So anyway, we're talking about paganism tonight and dribs and fun in the woods. And mysticism. Oh, baby, when I do it in the woods, it's fine. So anyway, I wanted to get kind of get a little bit more of a feel of how pagan what paganism is meant to y'all. And has it made any changes in your sexual expression to each other? Absolutely. Can I address this?

M

Michelle 03:29

Okay. Well, for one thing, like I mentioned before, I was raised United Pentecostal and basically any kind of sexuality is highly highly stomped upon frowned upon whichever you want to put it.

G

Gigi 03:46

And this is a show you can tell it all baby,

M

Michelle 03:49

basically, basically, I've been bisexual since I was 13 years old. And I've always had to hide it. I've always had to be you know, filled major guilt when I went to church for it. And I was like, Okay, this is this is something else here. So when I discovered paganism, I was able to express my sexuality with no problem and people in the community didn't care what your preference was. That's one of the reasons you know, I feel that a person that's bisexual is actually expressing their divine feminine and the divine masculine side. No matter what sex what sex you are male or female, you both have, you know, the God and Goddess within you. And now I'm able to express it so openly that you know, I can just say okay, to the heck with everyone else. I'm doing this my way and no one can say anything otherwise.

G

Gigi 04:41

Oh, Miss Gigi sent her dress tonight expressing her films.

M

Michelle 04:47

In the red nails.

G

Gigi 04:48

Oh, girl in combat boots.

S

Speaker 2 04:55

What did it for my sexuality is I came from the Roman Catholic Church. I mean, you My absolute traditionalism put women in their place, you know, missionary position? I don't think so. I've always been a top and very aggressive and asked my men out. And that's for sure she engaged, she proposed to me.

M Michelle 05:14

S Speaker 2 05:19
And so cool. I've always been a person who knew what they wanted and wasn't about to back down and the church didn't, just wouldn't put up with me and, in fact, have been very close to getting getting kicked out before I left. So it was a real good thing for me. I mean, it wasn't on sexuality issues on other things, but I'm, you know, not a traditional person in that I can be passive in the past role in a sexual way. And for me, I thought women were beautiful. And I wanted to explore that path for myself. And I did and I didn't feel guilty and it didn't feel wrong. So I guess I wasn't Catholic.

G Gigi 06:04
Let me ask this. Since you become pagan, have you found any different dimensions in your sexuality? I mean, besides just not feeling a sense of guilt, like, is there any spiritual sides coming open for you? Or is there any differences in the way you relate to other human beings now than before you became pagan?

S Speaker 2 06:33
Yes, yes, yes. And yes.

S Speaker 1 06:35
And yes.

S Speaker 2 06:38
I think everybody gets more beautiful when you're pagan. I mean, it kind of sounds crazy, but-

G Gigi 06:44
They're probably not the Playboy style beauty, right?

S Speaker 1 06:48
I'm not talking blonde USA, all American. No, what I'm talking about is, you see radiance, and beauty and light from every person. No matter if they're tall, thin, have a couple of warts are a few pounds overweight, or a lot of pounds overweight or totally thin. We have ways of describing the various women in the pagan community. One of them is the goddess of Willendorf beautiful, large women who enjoy their bodies enjoy their sexuality and share it with the men around them that they love and care for. And they are truly beautiful. They're larger women, but they're proud of who they are. And they enjoy their sexuality. And some of them are bisexual, you know, some of them are lesbians.

G Gigi 07:36

And when you look into the face of other pagans that you celebrate with, do you see a difference in their eyes or see a difference in their spirit?

S Speaker 2 07:46

Incredible sparkle. Another thing I'd like to institute on that one as well. You said if I noticed a difference? Yes, I do. I see the God and Goddess in every person. There are some lesbians that are very good friends of mine that I every time I look in their face, I see the aunt or glory. And I'm like, wait a minute here.

G Gigi 08:08

Like I see those that aren't familiar.

M Michelle 08:12

I see the God and Goddess and every person now before. Now I can actually say that I can see the god goddess in God and almost everyone that I look at now even people that are not pagan. Take for instance a age old Catholic saint that's not quite a saint yet, which is Mother Teresa. I see the goddess in her I see her opening her arms and embracing the world like the mother goddess.

S Speaker 2 08:38

She's most beautiful old crone that we still have living. I mean, I know the Catholics are gonna send her eventually and truly one of the wisest old caring, beautiful crone and you can see it in her eyes. She has that sparkle that admits power of the female energy that radiates from the goddess and she is one of them.

S Speaker 4 09:00

If I may break in here for just a second Yeah, this is the other Jim.

G Gigi 09:04

Hi. Jim.

S

Speaker 4 09:11

There are some pagan publications out there like magazines and things that we haven't mentioned yet.

G

Gigi 09:21

Oh, this is my spot. Let me bend over. Right there right there.

S

Speaker 2 09:30

What are the best of the best? Renee gotta get it really good publication. The report is from the council magical arts. It's our local publication support our local publication it's hopefully gonna go national Everybody cross your fingers here.

G

Gigi 09:46

We have a new newsletter coming out right?

S

Speaker 2 09:49

I'm starting up a magazine it will be out this Beltane it's called the pagan personal pages. It will have a few articles. It'll have movie movie reviews that are pagan movies or pagan content and music movies, it'll have book reviews. And it will have personal pages networking pages inter on on the internet, it will have internet working pages it will have a business finding personal ads, personal ads, of course. And we're also going the other good issue to look over is circle network news. Really good newspaper. I mean those those three issues are really really good. There's a whole bunch of other ones.

G

Gigi 10:31

And I don't want to have things sound like everybody's a bunch of older or overweight people in paganism. Oh no, definitely very beautiful. Thank you. And so I don't want to get that misconception even though you know because earlier we had talked a little bit about how you see beauty and everybody now of course.

S

Speaker 4 10:59

My favorite pagan is you know, any sprinkle everything I've picked up lately.

Gigi 11:10

It's just weird. It's it's very well we're almost wrapping up here. You've got some numbers to give out.

Michelle 11:15

I've got a Darrin, our wonderful person down in Katy had given us a couple of numbers to give out for people that would be interested. There is a BBS in Houston by the name of wizards realm, and the number there is 9467315 That's 9467315 And you also want to get in contact with ADF you can contact them with the 800 number of one 800 Druidry. That's 1-800-378-4379 and Lady Phoenix has got a few numbers here in Houston that you can get in contact with.

Gigi 13:18

Okay, and you're listening to binary Houston we've covered paganism and sexuality and paganism and how it can make a difference and and get you back more in touch with the Mother Earth. We'd need to do a station break this is KPFT 90.1 in Houston

13:44

Also Kayo s and college station which unfortunately I don't remember the numbers for but 89.1 Anyway, yeah, that's them so don't feel neglected or anything so Billy.

Speaker 4 13:57

is coming on an hour earlier due to this nifty little daylight savings time.

Gigi 14:03

He just and don't forget by net mates it MCC our church seven to nine every Wednesday night. And we're going to have a new phone number but we don't have it quite yet. By next month. When we're back on the air. We'll have a new number for bind net where you can get in touch with this literally Oh goodness. Let's go on out with some music here, shall we?

Jimmy Carper 14:34

Once this thing gets on over here to Yeah. You're listening to KPFT Wow, what do you think? Station.

14:44
