SPEAKERS

Sarah DePalma, Roy McCarthy

---

00:01

Let's hear I think I've been looking you know, for years we've been looking for a single word to encompass GLBT. Nobody can

Sarah DePalma 00:10

Phyllis calls it lesbian hater.

00:12

Yeah, no, nobody can agree.

Sarah DePalma 00:14

But that to me is kind of again, I don't know, I know we use queer but you know, still there's a lot of people that don't like that word and even in the transgender community, what does transgendered mean? The transgender does crossdresser transsexual people, it's it's, yeah, it's a whole spectrum of people. We all are. Yeah, yeah. So it's that's a real interesting question. Yeah. If you hear that an underrepresented group to which you don't belong is legislating for laws that would name them specifically in laws that already exist. Hello, can we say no to? Yes. Would you most likely a, fight them on the grounds they want special rights, be assumed them soon? Assure them that the law would be interpreted to include them, or do what you can to support them? Well, the gay community has gotten around to the sporting part. But I sure had to do a lot of butt kicking to get it. And I wasn't the and I wasn't the only way. Oh, you're right. And there are still lots of people in the gay community who basically think transgenders ought to go away. I know, you know. And so and we're not the only ones. You know, there were lots of people who felt that African Americans didn't deserve any rights in the audit, continue paying poll tax. So it's an interesting question. Yes, it is. Did you grow up believing that you were entitled to a certain good standard of living? Or that a good standard of living was within your grasp? Only if you worked for it? Oh, wow. See, I'm definitely in the second category. You work hard all your life you'll be rewarded today's world you know, you can work hard all your life and you have nothing Hello, see Enron. Yeah, no kidding. You know, it's it's a different world. Do you sometimes find use Do you sometimes find you mistake a person for another person? Because it's difficult to tell those kinds of people apart? Oh, you know, those Hello? Hello. Yeah, all the queries like a like, you know, they all have a list and they're all dem florists. Yeah.

Sarah DePalma 00:22

Bobby has his hand up. On the business end of having we all all disabled people look like people are constantly mistaking me for a good friend of mine, despite the fact that I walk on a staff and he has two crutches.

S Sarah DePalma 02:29

My my the phrase that sets me off more than anything is when some of my best friends are gay.

02:35

Oh, best friends are filled in the blind. Oh, to run you don't walk run. Oh, boy. Let's see here. When you meet someone on the phone, in a letter or online? Do you assume they're the same race class or age or as other as aspect of identity as you are? No, I don't I don't. I know better than that layer online. Yeah, half the time. You don't know if they're telling you the truth about their name? Yeah. Yeah. Do you regularly credit by name? The ideas, beliefs or opinions of others? Yeah, yeah, I do. Yeah. But I think a lot of people who don't? Do you sometimes adopt the dress or mannerism or craft of an underrepresented group to which you do not belong? Acknowledging is origin. Ooh, yes. Because I believe that anyone has any special rights to those sorts of things. Yes, but I think that's part of our mult melting pot culture. See, I try not to I try not I try not to I just try to be made. Yeah. Yeah. It's hard enough to be mean it'd be then trying to be someone else is like, impossible. Okay, now, here comes some, but here comes some bonus questions. Okay. Okay. Check all of these that apply to you. Are you blonde, blue eyed, manager or executive? Do you have an annual income over 35,000? Over 50,000? Over 100,000? Do you own a car? Do you own your own business? Are you proud of your parents? Are your parents proud of you? Are you proud of your own children? Are your children proud of you? Do you have your own net account? I guess she's talking about internet. Yeah. Do you have X net access without a commercial service? Do you have all your hair and not color it? That's a fascinating question, Kate. Yeah, she's yet to sneak one in there somewhere. Do you need glasses or contact lenses? Yeah, dammit. Do you play some kind of sport? Have you received some honor or medal as an adult? Do you have an excellent credit rating? Who has an excellent credit? I don't even know have you never question your own gender before you read this book. Oh, interesting. Okay, and then she has she has a scoring system. In this world, the perfect gender is first defined by a penis and matching testicles. In fact, if you didn't check one A in this section, you have no chance to be perfectly gender, close the book and go home. For the remainder of the section, give yourself 10 points for every answer, five points for every b answer. And two points for every C answer. So the maximum you can get here is 270. Points Wow. Under the section called other genitals, and we talked about that genitalia other than penises simply don't give you much of a leg up on the ladder to perfect gender hood either. Sorry, that's just the way it is. Under the rest of your body, your race, age, state of health and how you measure up to the positive gender norms are each important factors in determining how perfectly gender you are. So she takes an age, health, all that stuff, how we're, oh, how we're perceived and what freedom we have to move around the world also contributes highly to the perfection of your gender. And if for example, for a lot of people who have not had surgery, if you go to get your passport, it's going to stay male, because they won't change it to you had your surgery right now then you go to a country where it's illegal to be cross gendered. You got a problem?

Yeah. Sure, go to the phone lines. Oh, Dean Becker has calls in every week at? Well, he's a little late. With a special five minute report on cultural baggage. That is what's going on in the medical marijuana field. So I would like somebody to hit air and to hit the blinking light. And Dean Becker is on the air. Good evening, Jimmy. Hey, I want to introduce you to Sarah dipalma.

S Sarah DePalma 06:58

Hey, Dean, how are you?

07:00

Well, I'm well how are you today?

07:01

I'm very good. And I'm going to leave you to with it while you give the cultural baggage report for this week.

07:08

Well, fair enough. I'm just kind of reporting on what our our famous drug administrator ASA Hutchinson is up to. He's out trying to vilify the whole world called me out. It's characterized by God. And I don't much like it. But Sarah, yeah. Some things you want to discuss or know where you were just gonna let you go ahead here we're listening in.

 07:30

Okay. Well, very good. I'll just I'll put it this way. You know, asking ASA Hutchinson, the administrator of the Drug Enforcement Agency, for advice on the drug war, is kind of like asking your barber if you need a haircut. Did y'all know that ASA means hemp? In Japanese? No, but that's interesting. Oh, it's fun to say anyhow. Okay. This is not to say that this is a quote from ASA Hutchinson. The quote, This is not to say we have done enough, drugs are still readily available. And a new National Household Survey on Drug Abuse shows that American kids are increasingly using drugs such as ecstasy, as long as we have despair, poverty and frustration. As long as we have teenage rebellion, we're going to have problems with drugs. But we must keep in mind our success and also keep some perspective about us drug use. less than 5% of the population uses illegal drugs. That's 16 million regular users of all illegal drugs, compared with 66 million tobacco users. And 109 million alcohol users. That's interesting. Yeah. Now, he continues to say legalizing drugs is simply surrender is giving up on the hope of a drug free future for our next generation is riding off those still in the grip of addiction and despair without now now wait a minute, how much does it cost us to run the so called war on drugs?

 08:56

Well, I didn't I have a response here. I put together I in that regard. I was going to send out a letter to the editor, but I thought I just tell my friends that KPFT so here's my response. Aiza admits first off that drugs are readily available, despite the fact that we've spent over half a trillion that's with a T trillion dollars. In fighting this never ending war. We've arrested more than 20 million US citizens for drug possession. We now have 1.2 million of these citizens in prison for nonviolent drug crimes. Now, we cannot stop the distribution of drugs in our nation's prisons. That alone in what is supposed to be a free society. As Aiza says we have a much larger problem at hand with more than 100 million regular users of the worst drug of them all. Alcohol. Aiza thinks legalizing drugs would be surrender would be giving up hope of a drug free future. And I would say if he believes that I've got some swamp land, I'd like to sell him we're never going to stop poverty or teenage rebellion and Are the DEA lies, their drugs are and the administrator A's that lie every day that is their job. They lied to maintain their jobs and the jobs of a million other drug warriors whose sustenance and whose very future depends on the prohibition of drugs. Now, once the truth has been resolved, we've we put truth back in its rightful place of honor in our society. Nobody will ever, ever hire these lying hypocrites, not even as a barber. And, you know, they, they, you know, they're they're like a bad car salesman. They don't have the benefit of this nation in mind. They are not protecting the youth, they think it's better to send them to prison for you know, terrible lessons, you know, that we all know, are taught in our nation's prisons. They think that's better than smoking a joint, why wouldn't it make more sense to legalize drugs in the same way that some European nations have, rather than to conduct? This is so called drug war, which is, as long as there's a demand, you're, to me, the idea of having a so called interdiction is ludicrous.

 11:12

It certainly is. I mean, many nations, as you say, all across especially Western Europe, the UK, now Canada. I just interviewed Senator Pierre Nolan out of Canada, who produced that report that said, let's legalize it. Let's free the prisoners. Let's get out of this single convention, UN treaty, which is, you know, a mandate of the US government, you know, that you want our money you want to trade with us, you want to open borders, all that happy hogwash. So what used to be tied in with all that was in Colombia, they had to have, you know, meet the Human Rights sanctions. And now the US says, oh, nevermind, just continue on, do what you want to do. Here's $2 billion, Colombia, chase those patterns further into the Amazon, let's pollute that whole river. Let's, let's destroy the whole infrastructure?

 S Sarah DePalma 12:05

Well, I know, for example, I believe it's in Denmark, where they have legalized drugs across the board, they have actually created particular spots where people can go and get treatment. And it's working in to my the best of my knowledge in countries where they have just simply legalized it and said, Look, as long as there's a demand, we will never stop it. So we might as well deal with it. It just seems a lot more sensible.

 12:29

Well, I, I'm told that probably next spring, Switzerland will totally legalize marijuana. I mean, it's already where you can grow it as long as you say it's, it's for flowers, it's decoration. But, you know, they they still mess with people, but they intend to totally legalize it. this coming spring, and Amsterdam. That's where they have the coffee shops. Yeah. And you can go in and purchase an amount and sit around and play chess with friends. And the things they don't allow there is alcohol or hard drugs. And it's, it's a much better way for children to become of age, if you will, at 18 They're allowed to buy, and they're not exposed to hard drugs. They're not exposed to alcohol. And there's no violence. Yep, there's no violence. It's it's the the bars and the beer halls where the violence spills out into the streets. And, you know, the whole point is, I guess that if Canada does go ahead and declare them, which it looks like they will, then you know, John Walters is going to have a hissy fit. He's already arresting our, you know, the AIDS patients, the the Hep C patients, etc, out in California, for growing six plants or 20 plants. And that's that's federal dollars being spent, you know, billions that where should that money go? I think we should try to stop a terrorist or try to just build a better society, give that money for education, give it to a useful purpose, rather than wasting it on the prosecution and persecution of, you know, legitimate patients.

Well, I'm enjoy talking to you and we look forward to to having you next time.

 14:13

Well, I thank you so much.

 14:14

And brunch, remind folks about your 420 spot.

 14:18

Thank you, Jimmy. Yes, every day at approximately 420. It depends on whether work has a musical guest in but I do about a three or four minute report. I usually carry three or four stories from around the world that kind of highlight the hypocrisy kind of point out the benefits and occasionally stir the pot a little bit trying to get folks active in helping to change this to help in the drug war. You bet. Good. Good. Thanks for calling in.

 14:42

 14:46

Thank you all have a great evening.

 14:48

Thank you. All right. Bye bye. Dean is a is a terrific guy. He He's the only heterosexual who has a permanent spot here he calls in during the day half mark of the show to give us you know, just a little five minute thing of what's going on in the field. Cool because it's important. Yeah. Important. People with AIDS people with cancer. People who, who who need marijuana to stay alive.

 S Sarah DePalma 15:17

I'm in favor of have always been in favor of just legalizing drugs and getting the silverware. Yeah, as long as there's a demand you're never gonna stop it. Yeah, you're right. I mean, you know, well, you know, hey, that's just a damn liberal talking French.

15:29

I saw Francisco just drive up. Hey, cool. So he's here in the house. We want to mention that we're still doing we're still in the middle of our fun drive. Yep. We haven't been doing as well as I would like, we're not. We're not even halfway to our goal. So I urge people out there to you called in your pledge of support to after hours and KPFT at 526-573-8526 KPFT. Big Roy's out there. Chris is out there. A couple other folks are out there.

S Sarah DePalma 16:03

We haven't we're having an orgy.

16:06

And we have special after our stuff to give away only on after hours. And that is a DVDs of Claire the moon, or the perfect Son. For your pledge of $50. On plastic. We still have a pair of tickets to the witches ball, which amazed is still here. Yeah, I know. And that's that. I mean, they are $25 apiece, if you buy them, actually, if they're now $30. apiece, and we're only asking $50 on plastic for a pair. Yeah, for a pair. Yeah. If you want to buy them right now. They're you're going to pay $60 Like Buy One Get One Free People vastly, you know, plus the 50 bucks goes, goes here and helps us out. And as we just proved we get free speech in this show. Yeah. Certainly Correct. That's certainly correct. You want to touch on HRC before?

S Sarah DePalma 16:59

Yeah, just real quickly, because I know that we're we need to make room for Francis. Yes, we certainly do. I have ripped the HRC in the past. So I want to give them credit where credit's due. Okay. The credit the HRC did a public opinion research on transgendered issues? Lo and behold, guess what? They found out everything that we've been seeing on the show for the last six years was all true. How about that we were right. Among other things that they found 61% of for 61% of the people surveyed believe the country needs last project transgendered people from discrimination. Now, it's interesting, because HRC for years told us we could never get the laws passed. And then we find out well actually 61% of people are in favor of isn't that amazing? Yeah. And I thought that's interesting. But 57% incorrectly believe it is not legal to fire a person just because they are transgendered. Interesting, interesting. 67% agree that it's possible for a person to be born is one sex, but inside feel like another. So the point of all this, I'm not gonna go into because I know we don't have time. The point is, I want to give the HRC credit where credit is due. The last time I spoke with Elizabeth Burch there, she and I disagreed on lots of things. But she did tell me that the HRC was going to make more of an effort on transgender issues. And I think that this, this survey, is part of that effort. So I want to Pat her on the back. She'll never believe I patted her on the back and said nice things. You may be right, you know, but I give credit where credit's due. And I hope that they will continue going forward with this kind of research, because it's the only way we're ever gonna get into it. You bet. You bet.

18:44

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Sure.

S Sarah DePalma 18:47

Of course, before I go, we gotta leave our famous saying here. Yes, of course. Yeah. One and more. This has become more important lately. When decorum becomes repression. The only dignity free people have is to speak out. Yes, that's it for me.

19:02

Thank you very much, sir.

S Sarah DePalma 19:03

Jimmy. Hey, Francisco. How are you?

19:06

Hey, Brian Cisco. How are you? Good morning. Good morning. Good morning. How are y'all?

S Sarah DePalma 19:11

How are you? I haven't seen you in a while. Oh, 19:14

I know. Have you been great.

S Sarah DePalma 19:15

How's the Democratic Party coming?

19:17

It's coming along

Sarah DePalma 19:19

You know, I gotta tell you I watched I watched the debate the other night between Sanchez and in Perry What do you think? I think I want a third candidate so sorry, yeah, and it's funny because as the Lieutenant Governor's race to me is a no brainer. Yeah. But the governor's raise it that's the best Texas has to offer we're in deep state well, I'm gonna vote for Sanchez because of God because I don't want Perry appointing more conservative Republican judges. Yeah, we don't need that. Put I'm gonna do it while holding my nose. I gotta tell ya, I'm not impressed with the the candidate.

Okay. What I'm really concerned about is Deborah Dannenberg. She She's in a bad district and she's having the fight of her life. Yeah, yes. And she is it's kind of hard to well, you know, she's been in ins for so long that I mean, she has a lot of seniority and, and she helps us out in many, many ways.

Sarah DePalma 20:15

Well, and for the transgender community, we've already Lachlan Maxie, who was one of our chief supporters. We lose Deborah Dannenberg. I don't know who we go to talk to. Yeah.

Harriet Earhart up in Dallas. That's right. Are here alright, Travis County delegation is going to be down by one good Democrat up there and then we'll see what happens here in this district.

Sarah DePalma 20:38

Yeah. Anyway, I'm gonna say this and then get out of here. If you people don't get your butts out to vote, you have no right to complain. That's right. Just that simple. Get off your fat, lard butts. Get your get your Finis out there and vote. There is no excuse for not voting. If you don't vote, then you're not participating in democracy. You have no right to complain. That's right. Okay.

Thank you, Sarah.

R

Roy McCarthy 21:06

I would like to I would like to add Roy Hello Hello I would like to add to what Sarah just said

I would like to, I would like to add Roy, never, never, I would like to add to what Sarah just said that every vote does count. And if you don't believe it, remember Florida? Yep. Every vote counts. Every vote matters. You do have a voice.

21:23

Sometimes it counts a couple of times. But that's only a Miami Dade.

21:30

Oh, you are in good spirits tonight.

21:33

I haven't had much sleep today. I was up at 730. Whoa, getting my third or fourth when you've been somewhere. You have a name thing on where? Oh, no, just a t shirt. Oh, that's Oh, whoops.

21:40

21:48

I don't know what that said.

21:51

It was a name tag.

21:53

I guess you're right. It kind of doesn't like a name tag.

Roy McCarthy 21:55

Yeah, it does. Sort of kinda. Oh, well.

21:59

I don't know. But I'm hoping I'm not offending someone that can read it.

22:04

It's kind of odd. I just thought it was designed there.

22:07

Have you been I've been doing all right, good. busy working on a project with rock the boat news folk coalition to get young people between 18-24 out to the polls on on to the polls on Election Day. So that's going well, we had a conference here a couple months ago. So important thing is getting people out to vote.

22:22

22:26

And that's the tough part. I mean, it's a Yeah, and I don't understand, especially getting that message to some of our young people. I mean, it took what African Americans about 100 Something years to vote women 94. And then all they had to do was turn 18. And they're still like going out and voting. Yeah. Only one in four registered to vote and even less than that actually go out and vote on Election Day. So we're working in teams that are community tuning to get out.

22:52

Whoever that just drives me crazy. I don't understand why every queer doesn't, you know, isn't isn't registered and does and doesn't vote. I mean, you know that. There's no excuse, whoever you're gonna vote for just go out and vote. And yes, there are times that you know, my lover and I vote and we cancel each other out, but we're voting. That's right.

23:04

23:06

23:13

Oh boy, he's with us this week. We missed him last month. So we've written him up and

R

Roy McCarthy 23:26

I was a bad boy.

23:28

And Hunter is off being a bad boy right now. boyfriend is person is again in town again. On the second. He was out last month. I haven't seen them since the afternoon. Omar heard them since the afternoon but I haven't seen them. I was trying to clean the house and be real loud about it and vacuuming so I wouldn't have to hear things. Yes, I know.

R

Roy McCarthy 23:51

Well, Hunter is a hottie. He is he is he is a little hotter. Yes.

23:54

dating a little college station boy. Oh, yeah. See, I told you we're all over.

24:00

Roy McCarthy 24:03

Which reminds me, I do want to thank those of you from College Station who brought in your pledges last week. That's right, man, and we had to write to you too. Got very generous pledges. Yes, very nice. And if there's any more folks out there in College Station or other Aggies, we invite you to call us at 7135265738526713526 KP ft. That's right. Your pledge. That's right. Chris and Greenwich are out there in the lobby yet Philip I just saw Philip walked by Phillips out there. So we got people ready to take your money honey. That's right.

And we have wonderful premiums only available during after hours only available. We've got DVDs of Claire the moon and DVDs of a perfect son. We have plenty of divas we have one once See the left of Margaret shows notorious who that the CD from her live in Carnegie Hall, I believe it was. And we have the book, Margaret shows book. I'm the one that I want.

R Roy McCarthy 25:12

I saw the movie that was excellent. Okay.

25:15

And we also have 25:18

$4,000 pledge you can meet Roy out back and 25:21

for those 50 bucks on plastic, that's all we're asking for. And we have we have a pair of tickets to the witches ball happening October the 26th. Now, I haven't been that what Tell me about it. I've not been to it either. But it's kind of a culty thing, you know, people who, who are into that type of thing, which is and you know, all that Renaissance stuff. It's a costume ball, and they're gonna have entertainment, the tickets. Right now, they weren't $25. Now they're $30 Each, if you want to purchase them, but you can get a pair of them for $50 on plastic. Now that's a deal. That's a great deal. That is a great deal. I have them. And I'll be more than happy to send them to you just give us a call 526573852 6k PF T.

26:17

So call us excellent programming. And you listen to us every month, four nights a month. And if you want to go to the witches ball, give us a call and we'll hook you up with those. If you're heading home from the club on your broomstick, pick up your cell phone, and we'll keep you KPFT is a bargain at any price. We really do encourage you to call in.

R Roy McCarthy 26:31

26:38

Yeah. And I think I think people need to have the distinction because I think people confuse it. Because we do a lot because this is really a public oriented news facility. And then sort of station people think that it's public radio, and it's not public radio, and it's not funded by public dollars. No, this is entirely based on we weren't on your contributions and your financial support. So it's not like PBS where they get government funding. It's because we're public oriented doesn't mean we're publicly funded. So give us a call and make a contribution. And we've got some good programming for you this evening. Yeah. And speaking of Margaret show, I don't know if anyone here went to go see your concert a couple of weeks ago. But she had a great performance. I missed it entirely. Yes. Yes. I just heard about it tonight. And her movie of notorious CHR was playing at at the green way. Oh, wow. It was okay. I'm not sure if it's still playing there. But we have the CD.

27:41

And we'll go check it out there. We've got a little snippet from you. Yeah, coming up from from Margaret show and a little bit that I think you'll enjoy some of our comedy we have coming up in a little while. And but before we get to that, when we get to that run need to remind folks that they're listening to after hours KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. There we go. There we are. There's a new book out called sex tips for gay guys. By by Dan Anderson 2295 by St. Martin's Press, and I'm sure you can pick it up. But lowball are probably just a bunch of other places. Oh, I'm sure. I suppose like an interesting book, I haven't had the chance to peruse it yet. But it's a good replacement to the joy of gay sex that has been available for for a long time. This is more the sort of the 21st century version of it. So check it out if you get the chance. And maybe we'll talk about that a little bit more next week. It's got a lot of just reading the reviews. It sounds like it's an interesting book. Everything from how to handle a bossy bottom, politely dodge unwanted trolls. Safe roaming how to handle guys who hauled off ejaculating and let you do all the work and how to deal with them. Sounds like an interesting book of a whole bunch of topics and I'm sure stuff we could go on here about ourselves. But you know, talking about the publisher there St. Martin's Press, I can. I can remember way before the Stonewall days. literature on anything that was pro gay was so hard to find. But yet, St. Martin's Press was always there for us. And it was it's amazing that they're still around. They were publishing pro gay books and pamphlets and literature, even before Stonewall. Oh, wow. And St. Martin's Press definitely deserves our support. And our thing as a community I mean, I'm sure it was one of the very few resources that we had that was a positive influence on us. They're wonderful vocoder. It's a more, we'll check that book out. That's something that that the one of their latest publications called six steps, six tips for gay guys by Dan Anderson. I'm sure you could find that at Lobo as well as bunch of other places. And so check that out. It should be interesting reading I know I'll pick it up and you know, I think after a while you assume that you that you know, everything there is to know about gay sex, but just looking. Exactly. Looking at the reviews. It's sort of like I didn't know like, explains, for example, the drag queen will be the one who untaped her genitals before sex without your help. I guess that makes sense. But I never would have thought about that. Picked up you want to take care of that day? Yes, yes, yourself. I don't imagine it's something that for sure. I can't imagine taping my genitals. But for those that do, I assume they're the ones that want to take that tape off. To check it out. Again, it's a it's by St. Martin's Press. It's called sex tips for gay guys. And you should be able to get it lower in your wallet. I think you can get it for like 2295 I think according to the reviews, so check that out. And I don't know if he can get any more information online, but she probably ordered online as well from planet out or any other places where you can get those kinds of books and illustrated. Let's see. Let's see. Alas, the volume is devoid of population pictures, but it doesn't have any pictures. But the review says, but more vital than that. Anderson delves into the particularly complex ecosystem of gay male sex world from having sex with a 12 stepper to spotting Klingons at a gay bar. Explaining what the heck, Eminem is no stone left unturned. Although the leather crowd may bristle at this tendency to poopoo. And quickly gloss gloss over anything beyond vanilla. So I guess it's missing. It looks like it has some caricatures in the cartoon drawings. I don't think you can find the real thing in their ROI. But I'm sure we've got wherever you go to pick this up, you'll be able to find the real thing, the real thing.

27:55

28:04

30:06

Roy McCarthy 32:17

Oh, yes. Yes, I will. Certainly I had a copy of the the joy of gay sex. And then in the post aids are during the current aids thing a few years back, they came out with the new joy of gay sex. And it was very, it was very interesting and very informative. I still have this book that I got back in, I think it was 70 or 71 called the gay spirit, which was a forerunner of the joy of gay sex. And it showed that book to gay spirit not only talks about actual gay sex, but It delves into other things, health issues, fashion, and health issues being how to take care of yourself working out exercising, what foods to eat to help you have a greater sperm count. And yes, I was talking about this book that I had gotten back in 1970, or 71, called the gay spirit, which was a forerunner of the joy of gay sex. And this book, not only talked about gay sex itself, but also about gay fashion, gay lifestyle, health issues, how to work out, have a good body, foods to eat to increase your sperm count. They also had things about fashion, etiquette, and all kinds of yeah, I've got it. The it's a little paperback book. Oh, it was just a little paper. Now. I don't have actually not a lesbian, which is amazing. I have a boyfriend but like we're supposed to. We live together. And like, you know, I went to go visit his family in Sarasota, Florida for Thanksgiving. And I was really worried before I went down there because you know, he's a big Irish family, big Irish guy. And I was worried Sarasota. I was like, asking him are there gonna be any Asian people there? He's like, No. I was like, well, could you just leave me at the dry cleaner then because I don't want to be around all white people, right? I love white people. But I don't want to be the only Asian person around a bunch of white people. Because like his family, I really love them. But they were like kind of too nice to me. So I just felt really like oh, this is my host family thank you Mr. Atheist father.

38:51

39:06

It's like the most long duk dong experience even though it's really hard to be the only Asian person around a bunch of white people though, I think it's a billion times worse to be the only white person around a bunch of Asian people because we'll just talk shit about you right to your face. 41:03

And speaking of comedians, tonight, Vicki Shaw, who I've never seen perform, actually, but

41:08

I saw her perform once and I was so impressed. And 41:13

I hear I hear she's great and cheap performance black tie dinner this evening. So if y'all went to that, or if y'all on the way back for that, did you go?

41:20

No, I

41:21

didn't go. Oh, I didn't have money. I weren't sure. But it was a note by knowing is a black. Oh, boy. That's a pricey. Yes.

41:27

41:31

Yeah. Last time I went it was like 175 A ticket now. No idea how much it is?

41:35

That's the lower tickets. Yeah. Way in the back. But yeah, there was still confused me for the service.

41:42

41:50

More water over here, for instance.

41:53

Like I paid my 175. Right.

41:58

But they raise a whole lot of money.

41:59

Oh, they do it. It's benefiting about 12 different organizations, including hatch, including hat. particularly fond. Oh, really? Yeah. Great. Yeah.

42:06

42:09

And particularly important this year? Because I think just recently, I think there's a couple of things. The Montrose clinic was a beneficiary of not sure. At least one of any organization was and I don't know if you are, but just in the past week or so TDH. The State of Texas cut funding for HIV testing in Harris County in half. No. So that's some grant money that they won't be available. And so they'll have to make up that is one of the dumbest things I have heard in all time. Cut funding and HIV testing and half da so you know, they're going to Texas, here we are, you know, screaming week, after week after week, get tested, get tested, get tested, and they're cutting the funding for exactly so if you say we had a black tie dinner or if you contributed because organizations had to just let you know your contribution really goes hard, particularly in these kinds of circumstances. So and also I think the Texas Human Rights Foundation has a beneficiary I believe also liked Idaho this year, who is celebrating their 25th year anniversary. Wow. In doing remarkable things in Texas, in the gay lesbian community and as Sarah has spoken about before Texas Human Rights Foundation, what also underwrote the legal expenses for the Kristy Lee Littleton case yes, a couple years ago. So to find out more about the F, check out the website www.thrf.org. And I'm on the board so I'm a little biased but it's a great organization check it out. And we've got some the F board members that are in town this evening. There were in time for the black tie dinner and then we've had a board meeting tomorrow to see where we go in the future and how HR can continue serving our community in the state so little plugin for them there to a lot of great work and we look forward to being able to continue to do more so well

42:31

44:02

Lee's phone so Did Lee

44:07

at 315 in the morning boys I think it's funny is on the way to go do apparently right but I don't I don't get those calls anymore

R Roy McCarthy 44:40

44:45

Oh well hey,

R Roy McCarthy 44:46

my little buddy there. But 44:51

But that's what's going on. And so if you went back had dinner, thanks for going out there and thanks for your for your support and you So if you feel like writing another check, give us a call. Yes. Can't plug that enough. We're trying to meet our goal here. And I'm not sure what What's our goal? Do we have a goal?

45:08

Yeah. 363 60. And we're about halfway there.

45:11

Oh, good. So another, another 100.

45:16

And that's modest for, you know, a three hour show here.

45:20

Oh, it is? Yes. So give us a call 713536 KPFT. And we'll continue to bring you good programming. And I guess we were talking about what's going on here locally, and some of the campaigns earlier, just wanted to bring something up that sort of might be of interest to everyone. We had. We have actually, now my phone rang. And I just turned it off. It was actually David. Oh, there goes that. Where were we? Oh, he got confused.

46:01

46:04

We had in Montana. It looks like the Democratic incumbent is going to win the Senate race there but for very interesting reason that the Republican dropped out of the race, Mike Taylor, the US Senate candidate in Montana, because there were ads running that he was gay. Yes. And he felt that his character had quote, been assassinated. And for those of you don't know the story, I'll just give you a little bit from from a news wire story. Republican candidate in Montana US Senate race with through Thursday, saying that a democratic opponents campaign had assassinated his character by insinuating that he is gay. Mike Taylor, a GOP state senator said the television spot also squashed his standing in the polls. And he'd actually been 90% behind the polls up to this point. I'm not sure that that really
