SPEAKERS

Chris Harrison, Rainbo de Clown, Bobby, Jimmy Carper

---

- J Jimmy Carper 00:00
clothes this place, just about four, four or five blocks away was a place called the booby rock, which is where trenches is now. And that was women totally nude. I went in one time and there was a woman pleasing herself with a coke bottle on stay men or for women for men
- R Rainbo de Clown 00:24
you know, the J O club on Pacific street and they tried to close that way eventually did
- i 00:29
oh, let's not talk about all the behind bathroom doors sex that goes on and riches and some of the other gay bar club strip club.
- R Rainbo de Clown 00:40
Those cowboys in North Houston don't do stuff.
- i 00:45
Cheap into the bar. I've
- i 00:46
gotten play in the middle of numbers dance for exactly.

00:52

Yeah, but that's numbers. Yeah. Okay. But the fact is that, okay, we've we've got basically our communities being used as this this wedge device in this debate about or escape this community. So let's let's hear from someone who, you know, who know, you know, we're gonna add him defense of the meat rack, okay, they have loyal members that go there, go inside, take care of their business, and then they leave. Okay, what they're blowing out of proportion to on the television is about hustlers that are hustling around the place, going in the bushes, making money having sex? Yeah.

Chris Harrison 00:55

01:11

Chris Harrison 01:32

I mean, you just put you drop five bucks to go into a club where you're gonna have sex, you know, are you gonna go pay 40 bucks to screw around with some guy in the bushes. You pick them up? If you're, if you're gonna pick up the $40 scars on the corner, you know, spend the extra five bucks and take him inside the meat rack. You don't have to jump in the bushes.

Jimmy Carper 01:51

I mean, they've had the hustler problem in that area for years.

01:56

Has nothing to do with the meat. Right? Yeah,

Chris Harrison 01:58

I mean, that's, you know, I've driven through that area, you know, even even down closer to riches, you'll find guys working on street corners, you don't know what they're selling, you don't know. You're not sure if they're gonna be pulling their rocks or stones out of their pockets to try and sell you.

02:12

Why not club in the Midtown, they have security that watch the place, back and forth and go all all around the whole place to keep hustlers and prostitutes away from there all around the whole place to keep hustlers and prostitutes away from there.

C Chris Harrison 02:22

Yeah, at the Midtown. A couple of times I've been there, there has been hustlers in their work in the top floor. And you know, I don't know where you expect to be carrying money.

B Bobby 02:35

You know, I want to think about that.

C Chris Harrison 02:38

But you know, there are those elements that are there. Yes. But you know, you're coming out of a sex club. You know, if things are working, right, you've gotten your $5 Worth, you don't need to get the $40 side of the street special. And these people are just, you know, as getting blown out of proportion. And unfortunately, you know, that means no one's hearing our side from because the owners of the club are doing the smart thing. And they're backing off saying we're not going to touch this. Because you know, the they have from what's been reported. They're receiving threats about this. Yeah. It shows it shows the level of mentality of what the other side is going up with. Because, you know, they find out though the law is not on their side. I think that instead of reopening the meat, right? We got to have a drive in porno theater where everybody can screw in the privacy of their own automobile that is on that red blood. Drive in in Pasadena.

 03:26

R Rainbo de Clown 03:36

J Jimmy Carper 03:44

Downtown in there when that was operating.

R Rainbo de Clown 03:48

A truck stop driving. I don't know if it's still open, but years ago. Yes, they did have X rated movies.

 03:56

03:50

And their privacy fences weren't too good. There were lots of Yeah.

03:59

But it was a porno drive in movie. Yeah, it was great. It was fantastic.

Bobby 04:06

Every every time somebody rages against our, you know, something that's part of our community, some some supposedly dark and, you know, a moral side of our community. I want to go all Harper Valley PTA on some of these people. Oh, yeah. Start showing off some of their tea. Just fire him a dozen roses in a butt plug and say I love you.

Chris Harrison 04:31

Yeah, yeah,

Bobby 04:33

I want I want to just shove some. I love you.

Chris Harrison 04:40

It's crazy. There's a lot of stuff going on within you. We're talking about a business that wants to relocate. And because of where they want to go to, they're being told no, they're being threatened. They're being intimidated. And, you know, this is a whole bunch of stuff. Some people have put out some some Questions about this because, you know, unfortunately, our quote unquote, the gay leadership, the gay voice hasn't addressed this issue before. And some may not. But there's some people who are putting out a suggestion of what they can do about this. I'm not sure who originated this, but they said, you know, some people were saying about a, a big protest or demonstration would be counterproductive. But they understand how you want to show their support for the work for them. Somebody made a suggestion that we're going to pass it along. It's an anonymous nonviolent and let you to vent your feelings. If you haven't figured it out yet, the news is talking about the old venture in 2923 Main Street, space has a huge window facing Maine and the train, if you'd like to stop by and take a note of support to the window, you're more than welcome. It'll be a visible expression to the many people or are unhappy with the situation. If you decide to do that, be sure to stop by Wheeler watch on the corner and thank them by sticking by sticking with the meat rack, they own the whole building, and the situation is worse for them than it is for the meat rack. Because the meat rack can always find a new space, but the people fighting them are denying him his property rights of who we can sell to. And you know, that how they can get him out of there. Because you know, you know, they'll turn around, they'll turn it around that, you know, he's pandering. And they can foreclose on the whole building. If you want a building Yeah, the if you own a building, you should have the right to lease anyone you want. I understand that meeting at the meeting the other night, it was suggested that residents boycott the watch shop and stop in and let the owner know that they're not happy. It's not fair. We should make sure that they know that we appreciate their support. And that we should stop in get your watch battery replaced, get a new a new one, buy a new watch and show them that you Thank you. Thank you, sir. Nice, but sales are better money. And you know, that's I mean, that's the thing, you know, who cares if it comes out of a pink white brown wallet is green money. They'll take it?

B

Bobby 07:19

You know, a few years ago when they started coming out with well, those little rubber stamps that had a money you could put game money, I still have one of the

C

Chris Harrison 07:29

Be careful you you just commit you're just admitted to Federal offense.

B

Bobby 07:34

I haven't done anything with it.

C

Chris Harrison 07:38

But then again, you know, if they want if they want to get you on something, yeah. Wouldn't it be a hot thing? Money? Yeah. Yeah. Was it your business? Because your business has been solicited by

R

Rainbo de Clown 07:51

C

Chris Harrison 07:53

a homosexual. But yeah, he said solicit the money. I can go on a little piece of paper that goes a month. But yeah,

B

Bobby 08:00

 Rainbo de Clown 08:04
I think we ought to dress up like the lady from Harper Valley PTA.

 Chris Harrison 08:10
You're the drag queen

 Rainbo de Clown 08:11
laying down in City Hall during three minutes to miss Alvarado and tell her what do you guys do you have that song? You know, that version of Harper Valley PTA?

 Bobby 08:16

 Chris Harrison 08:22
We've got the queer version. Okay, should we do that one? Okay. Now, yeah, right

 08:31 which way but

 Chris Harrison 08:32
I was gonna play red hanky and honor meat rack, but we've got the request for Harper Valley. So we'll go with that. We'll do that. And this is a story we're going to we're going to keep a closer eye on. We're going to keep listening in and checking out some of the stories if you're interested in it. There's a yahoo group called groups, groups at yahoo.com/group and I believe it's meat rack that they're posting some information on there to tell people and find out more about what's going on with it to let people know Hey, the keyboard I want to type on a sticky one that was about ready to drop and hold a bunch of people that are online right now. That would have been very Hey, they can't be meat rack then maybe we could have a very high class type gay disco place that's you know that's on the metro line that just blow everything everybody away.

 Rainbo de Clown 09:27

 09:40

Actually, I don't have a sex club on the metro line. I mean, what happens if the trains late What are you going to do to entertain yourself and you know what else both these guys that would probably come to come to the meet rack come late at night like nine o'clock. He said Come come at night. You know, I mean?

R

Rainbo de Clown 09:47

C

Chris Harrison 09:58

Okay, let me pass Were trying to find out who were dedicating this song to real quick. The guy that started the whole mess well that's what I'm trying to find out the to do to do Mr. Alvarado name now and I miss Alvarado, the other. Here we are we just dedicated to all those groups like that, who know I had to find the organization here that we want to dedicate this to. Vince thank Kevin White for giving me this information. I would appreciate it though if Kevin White would have removed my name from the email he sent to them all the forwarding on the dirty. Yeah, no, but see down here he included mine my email and didn't remove my email address. So when I start getting the naughty emails from these people, we're going to let you know. But this song is dedicated to the downtown Midtown Residents Association. Who's working so hard. You know, I remember once we came out of the closet while we were in the closet, we saw your skeletons and we wore your first we wiped off on

C

Chris Harrison 10:23

R

Rainbo de Clown 11:12

they got rid of all the homeless people and now they're gonna go to the downtown Midtown Residents Association. We just want to remind you what it's like when people know your skeletons

C

Chris Harrison 11:15

Jimmy Carper 11:27

Well, you know, my community surprises me a lot. Just had a guy come in and pledge pledge a bunch of money per month for the next year. And it's you know, pledge drive was last the last two weekends and so I'm really impressed. Really impressed. It's always nice to meet listeners. Oh, yes. And this specially a guy that his face is very familiar. And we've known each other by face for a long time. Yeah, thank you, Richard.

Chris Harrison 12:03

Thank you, Richard. The music we played there kind of a buy request there to the people opposed to the meat rack. Harper Valley PTA by Mark Allen Cole. Yes. So thanks. I was really lucky. Allen Smith Smith. I'm sorry. We're gonna come up with a coal part.

12:23

What was that the Harper Valley parties Association.

Chris Harrison 12:25

Right now, my in the background there we've got a little bit of little but boy.

12:34

Yeah, good music.

12:36

That's where boys belong. But that

Jimmy Carper 12:39

no, that's where daddy's below

12:45

they're all pink on the inside.

Chris Harrison 12:47

We had two different ways. We're gonna go with some stuff here and in a way they kind of flow together. Yeah. 20 minutes to go. We got 2020 minutes here and Stacy in there. Yes. Okay. We're gonna we're gonna lead it in again into the to our discussion we had it for last week started with the death penalty. But we're gonna start with nothing Stacey wanted to go about was the Matthew Shepard 2020 story. Oh, I did not see that I think aired last night. I didn't get a chance to see it.

13:17

I thought it was airing on the 26th

13:21

Oh, yet. Oh, okay.

13:24

I do. That's just the information that I got via email. I mean,

Jimmy Carper 13:28

it's, it's a new controversial issue.

Chris Harrison 13:31

So you want to throw in your two cents while I double check the time.

13:36

I'm just amazed and appalled. I mean,

Jimmy Carper 13:41

okay, first of all, let's let the listeners know what's going on.

13:44

Okay. Well, I think everybody should be familiar with the Matthew Shepard story. But if you're not, he was a call a gay college student who was tied to, I believe a barbed wire fence. There. It was pistol whipped and strung heatedly Yes, strung up repeatedly beaten with a gun and kicked in the crotch and left to die.

14:09

Which he did, and he did in Wyoming and Wyoming. And there was a gag order put on several of the murderers who I will refer to as murderers. Well, because they killed him. Yeah. And they were convicted. They were convicted and they were sent in their sentencing. They were not allowed at any time to talk to the media. And ABC and 20/20 is airing this new found story. That is one of the murderers telling the story that it wasn't a hate crime that it wasn't because he was gay that it had to do with drugs and and robbery and money and whatever because you know as far as we're all doing crystal meth and have loads of cash coming out their their wallets.

14:11

14:21

14:24

Chris Harrison 14:52

14:57

No some of us have quit

Jimmy Carper 15:00

Yes, exactly. And but you know, like, why wasn't this brought up at the trial in the trial? Exactly. And, you know, I don't care one way or the other, whether it you know, whether it was because he was gay or because he was on crystal meth or because they wanted his money or whatever the heck it was. Yes, just no excuse.

15:04

Chris Harrison 15:19

In fact. one of the comments his friend. trains Romain Patterson. which if you remember from in fact, one of the comments his friend, claims Norman Patterson, which if you remember from The Laramie Project video, she's the one who actually originated the concept of the angels. Does it make does it make Aaron McKinney or Russell a Henderson less guilty of the crime they committed? Absolutely not. You just don't kick someone in the crotch over and over again, unless you have a real problem with their sexuality to imply otherwise, in my opinion, it's irresponsible. I think it's irresponsible to be giving a voice to these very guilty men, these two very guilty men make a legal order of you know,

15:52

Chris Harrison 15:56

it was a plea agreement that the two men signed at their sentencing. They agreed never to talk to the media about the case as part of the agreement that spared them the death penalty.

16:09

If they breach the agreement that spared the death penalty, then they should get the death penalty.

16:13

Chris Harrison 16:15

But the downside is, I think on that.

16:19

And so we're Judy, we're going right in Judy Shepard. Yeah.

Chris Harrison 16:23

has opposed that and she said that Matthew would have been opposed to it. So that's part of the reason why they took this sort of I agree portion on there. I don't think they should get the death penalty. I think life in prison has little better. Life in prison.

Jimmy Carper 16:37

Yeah. Well, the knowing every day, the rest of their lives, they know what they did. And they're going to stay right where they are.

going to stay right where they are.

Bobby 16:47

The reason for the murder doesn't make them any less guilty. And it doesn't make Matthew Shepard any less did. Okay.

16:55

And I find it truly appalling that this is going to air during the holidays. Yeah. I mean, you know, if you have to be heartless ABC, if you have to be this cold and this callous? You could do it at a time when families aren't sitting around already mourning the loss of their dead gay son, you know, and you are right is the November 26 edition of 2020 is planning a quote unquote ex post day of Matthew Shepard's murder and why scandalized somebody that was brutally murdered.

C

Chris Harrison 17:17

17:26

17:30

Yes, you know, it is the right word.

17:35

I mean, I sent a crappy little email anybody that wants to email me for link to, to ABC, email me at Stacey is a boy's name. Sta Cy is a boy's name@hotmail.com, I will gladly give you the ABC email link and address info. And I also have the info on the Matthew Shepard foundation. So you can send the letters or phone calls of support to Judy Shepard who has been instrumental in hate crimes activism.

C

Chris Harrison 18:04

And there's even another website that's come up with a boycott from matthew.com. That is looking at the the sponsors of 2020. And getting that information together.

18:20

I forwarded my email that had all this stuff to it and it's in it's within a specific website that I did this, but I have a Friends List of 319 people. And I had to go through one by one by one and forward it. Wow. And a lot of these people are heterosexual and a lot of them are on gay aware. And I stayed up all night, Thursday night forwarding this email to everyone on the list one by one. And I've gotten quite a response. And actually I had more heterosexual men respond to me with supportive opinions than I did women or gay men. Wow. And it's pretty amazing.

 Chris Harrison 19:00

I was just looking at their website. There was one of his other stories that are coming up there as testing your gaydar.

 19:05

I would like to see the what the spot who the sponsors are.

 Chris Harrison 19:09

I mean, there's dummy today they did a thing on transgender twins. They were born two identical female, identical girls and now one's a girl and one's a guy.

 Jimmy Carper 19:20

What does this Sally Jessy Raphael? No, no. Springer. It's writing worse. Yeah, but I mean, what's the reality?

 19:26

 Chris Harrison 19:31

Yeah, they don't have the old message boards. Did they have a message board for this already? What are you talking about? On 2020s Little website here there's a forums. Oh, really? Oh. Somebody's talking about his sexual preference inborn or chosen and it's not a preference. It's an orientation Hello?

 Jimmy Carper 19:49

 19:53

Yeah. Our friend says top or bottom darling

19:57

sacks I prefer

Bobby 19:58

Yeah. Yeah, preference there.

Chris Harrison 20:01

This is very interesting. Yeah, go to ABC news.com and then go to the 2020 link and then find a thing about the forums. And there is you know, the front page has got lot like 25 stories on the first page here. And you know, sexual preference the twin stories important transsexuals homosexuality, John Stossel gay marriage, cheating plagiarism gay community

20:28

john stossel so homeless now. Now we won't

Chris Harrison 20:31

even claim on him. You know he's been known for fudging the fact 20:36

Oh, I don't even think the straight folks claim him anymore.

Chris Harrison 20:41

I don't even think is wig would claim. I haven't seen a perm job that bad since Mike Brady. Or Liberace, 20:53

Clarence Thomas would appreciate that hairdo.

Chris Harrison 20:57

So it's an interesting thing to go to. I'm going to at a later time we can hear you know, we were talking last week we started about because of the one of the men who was found guilty of ...killing Mike Rosinski 10 years ago here in Houston are more than 10 years ago. Get them in the kidnapped guy, drove them around in his car and made him withdrawal foreigner dollars out of an ATM and then killed him execution style. And a couple of weeks ago, one of the men in that who was part of that was executed. Let me let me step back for a second here and make this disclaimer that you probably ought to make more often. The comments you hear during the segment, especially during the roundtable are those expressed by the person themselves and do not necessarily respect reflect present you use of KPFT or Pacifica Foundation, their staff employees or the general philosophy. I'm distancing all that because when we started talking about this was we started last week we you know, Stacy has just as much time for it. Yeah. Stacy made the comment of of being against death penalty. Scott was undecided, undecided. And I support death penalty. And I do you know, my no joke. Joking comments about my part about me being undecided. My comments on the thing with the Matthew Shepard case is if the gag order was to was, if the situation is that they would have been given the death penalty without the gag order, and they violated the gag order than they ought to be carried out with the death penalty, because that's basically a breach of legal contract. You just violated the law for your own self promotion. So you're gonna suffer the consequences of the deal you made?

22:47

I know, but I'm, I'm against it.

22:50

I'm against it the death penalty

22:51

to

Bobby 22:54

I don't know, I think in this particular case, I mean, they have it. Okay, they've been found guilty of the crime. They've, you know, as much as said that they've done it. Yeah, it's not one of those death penalty cases where the guy is still protesting, and you find out, you know, a month after they're dead, that, that they go, they might not have actually done it. This is in a case where they've already said, Yeah, we actually did this. I believe that, you know, if they got the death penalty, you know, take it off, take it off the table because of a plea bargain. If they break the terms of the bargain, guess what? Time to go.

22:55

23:44

That's living with the consequences. Well, even though they're in jail, there's still things that that can be taken away from them more freedoms that that they have, like put them in solitary or, you know, cut commissary. There's all kinds of ways to do it, and we put them on this date, right block.

Jimmy Carper 23:47

24:01

Chris Harrison 24:05

Okay, but let me leverage you further from one of our MBB. Okay. When we talked about that, finally, we arrived with the subject I'm nervous about, there are subjects that people have strong beliefs about one side or the other. And you have to be careful with what you say. I mean, stuff that can ruin a friendship. Chris, I must admit, it surprised me to hear you say that you support the death penalty. It served as a reminder of the flip side to views expressed are not necessarily those are the station is that the views of the station aren't necessarily those are the people on air, right? But anyway, I have to go on I have to go with you on this one man. Someone who commits a vicious act like this man did should die. The man who killed Matthew Shepard also, I'm not saying every murder or every killing, but someone who's killed multiple people killed because of hate or religion, been extremely brutal, etc. Yes, I support the death penalty. So those of you You say it's not a duck for a determined, determined deterrent? Maybe it is. Maybe it's not. It's hard to know how many people didn't kill someone because they feared the death penalty. But regardless of the answer to the above, it must certainly deterred that person. And please don't say life in prison will ensure the person doesn't kill again. Well, it's true. I absolutely have too many men die in here for that, even on a friendly unit. My, my personal experience with the death with some with the death penalty case and all that is this part I am. Back in the late 60s, some man named Kenneth Allen Macduff went and killed three teenagers in North Central Texas, stole their car went and robbed a bank found guilty, sentenced to death. The Supreme Court in the early 70s commuted said the death penalty under all circumstances was unconstitutional. And everything reverted back to the next highest penalty, which in the state of Texas at that time was life imprisonment, with the possibility of parole. So Kenneth Allen McDonoughs sentence was commuted to life in prison with the possibility of parole. Along came the late 80s, when there was a lot of prison overcrowding, and they had to start releasing people. The pardons parole board looked at this guy's folder and they said, Hey, he served 20 years for for murder. Let's let him out. He was released from prison and received a full college education was sent to college by the taxpayers. How did that happen? Because he killed three teenagers and robbed a bank who stole their car. He deserved a free college education.

Jimmy Carper 27:12

I know that for I don't get I don't understand because it's that because

I know that for I don't get I don't understand because it's that because if they're released from prison, they get they can get trc funding for certain things. Oh, and and before people get into the anti idea of that, it's not easy to do. It's available. It's it's the funds are limited. And it's if you ever want to change the system with the people who are in the system, you have to allow them the availability to change their life. Here's interested, here's the, here's the rest of this story.

Bobby 27:45

Chris Harrison 27:46

Here's where the personal part of it comes to me. His free college education was at the same college. I was going to that I couldn't get state funding to go to I never committed a crime. I was a C student. You know, that's good enough to be president nowadays. Absolutely. I couldn't get funding to go to school. But this guy killed three teenagers stole their car, robbed a bank. He got a free ride. During the time he was a student at the school, Texas Tech tactical College in Waco. He killed at least two women. One was a woman that was seven months pregnant. Oh my God. He is a prime. He was a prime suspect. And another one because the last time she was seen alive, was knocking on windows on the dorm building. He was in going is Kenneth here was the last time she was seen alive. He was a suspect in another five or six murders. And he was recaptured. Reach we've tried for those new murders since the death, okay, and has been executed. Okay. When you when you talk about the fact you know, I get it from the personal point of this guy did these things and got a free ride. But you also have to look at it the fact of if that would have been carried out that right now, there would be at least a 10 year old walking around in Waco. That mother wouldn't have been killed. You know, we're talking about four lives actually because, you know, the woman that was knocking on the window there, of course the link in killing him hasn't resurrected any one of the people that he's murdered.

29:35

Chris Harrison 29:39

True. But the fact is that if this would have been if, if the punishment would have been handed out as it was set in the late 60s, you know, or would have been more people walking around.

more people walking around.

 Chris Harrison 29:56

Women would be here I felt that I used to remember their names, that that story hit me so much.

 30:05

Let's see do we have left?

 Chris Harrison 30:07

Not much, a little less like three minutes. So this is something we're gonna we'll come back to other times, we'll give it more time we spent a lot of time with the meat rack because that's a that's a topic that's here now and may be gone tomorrow. Definitely one is one that will be here around. And we'll be talking more about that.

 30:22

 Bobby 30:24

And we will and it's known as the death penalty, we'll be here to talk about and

 Chris Harrison 30:29

but you know, if you have an opinion on it, and you're listening to show as my finally hit puberty here, my voice changes I'm having written on the closing thing here, it'll tell you where how you can contact us give us your your information, your feedback. And, you know, this is a It's not often we hear a debate on this where we can hear multiple side we can hear the stories. And you know, that's the kind of stuff we want to continue on with him. Yeah, challenge of what's with Stacey that doesn't involve a humbler.

I just I the only thing I think that really hits personal with me is I was in a facility with a guy who was 19 when I met him that murdered his mother at the age of 14 while on acid and had had the system had his way with him, they would have kept him locked up and behind bars forever. And it was a fight to keep him out. And as I met this 19 year old he was sentenced into this particular facility for 10 years, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. But he couldn't have been a Meeker, humbler, sweeter, gentler boy. And he wore this tag over his head every day when he went introduce himself that says I murdered my mother. Do you know that? Because they plastered his his face all over everything. And he had this overwhelming guilt. But you know, he's now a taxpaying citizen. He lives outside the facility. He works, you know, I mean, and he's helped other people get through some stuff. So you know, and I just feel like had he been sentenced to a harsher sentence? We would have lost an asset. Okay, well,
