Okay, um, people who visit the site can do so free of charge, right? A little bit not people who visit the site can come visit free of charge without becoming a member.

 00:17

Oh, yeah, there are quite a few areas that are free of charge and some very interesting areas. One of the editorial areas where members only post articles that they write, I believe you have one or two. Oh, yeah. I guess so.

 Gigi 00:34

Along with a

couple of events here, Harrison. Hotel real happy to have both of you there. Yeah. Also, they can access via information, any kind of information that comes along the pipe. I posted up there. Also by chat that's free. Anyone could come on in there and hopefully hopefully get to know a shareable information.

 Gigi 01:02

Oh, great. Well, we're running a little short on time. We're running a little short on time. I'm getting the wrap up sign. From Jeremy. He's my timekeeper. But anyway, I want to thank you for joining us tonight. And get that website one more time.

01:22

Yes, www dot find cafe.com. And the great news is the entire site is being reworked. So give me six weeks. And we're gonna turn a good site and to the best site the result.

G Gigi 01:37

All right. Well, thanks for joining us. You bet. GG.

01:40

Thanks for your time. I sure appreciate it. You bet. Look forward to seeing you out there. Come October.

J Jimmy Carper 01:46

Yeah, can't wait. Good night. Oh, okay.

G Gigi 02:00

We're still on.

02:03

We got another five minutes.

G Gigi 02:07

Put you on hold just okay.

J Jimmy Carper 02:12

Okay, there we go. How did that go? Oh, went great. Good. Good, good. Good.

G Gigi 02:19

I got to hear from Michael Page with my cafe. And he is such an awesome guy. Yeah, you know, one thing, there's a lot of people that sell stuff. But to make a profit. He has been doing this. And well, I can tell from the fees as Georgia, he's not making any money. He's not making a lot. And what literally makes he puts back into the community.

J Jimmy Carper 02:34

G Gigi 02:38

J Jimmy Carper 02:43

Because, you know, since we're Public Radio, we you know, we can't talk about prices when it's a for profit thing. But those prices, like I said, he's not making any money.

G Gigi 02:54

And like I say, it's really to help promote the make the community more visible. That's pretty cool. Well, we can announce that bike Cafe a lot more often. Get in the new segment, a new segment, we're about ready to go to the new segment. So thank you for being with us. For the BI group.

J Jimmy Carper 03:03

G Gigi 03:17

And I'll leave a couple of these leaks. With you. Good, good, good, good. So you can get plenty of them. Okay.

J Jimmy Carper 03:29

Wonderful. And right, before we go to the news, I want to play a little ditty for you. This is from Chris brought this it's from the movie trick. And what's exciting about the movie trick is that just second are still on the techie this thing was beeping

G Gigi 03:47

J Jimmy Carper 03:53

we have we have free passes for the Thursday, October no Thursday, August the 12th screening of trig at Greenway. And we're gonna be giving those out right after the news. Anybody who wants them will be given those away. So right now a little piece of music from that movie trick and then we'll go right to the news.

R

Roy McCarthy 04:32

People all over the place. And we're gonna lead off tonight's News with an event that happened this past Wednesday that we talked about last week on the news and that was police chief Clarence Bradford's presence at the Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus general assembly meeting that was held Wednesday at 730 and for love it in. I was there as well as many many people from the Community. Police Chief Bradford appeared there along with city council woman, a nice Parker and State Representative Debra Danburg, to answer questions regarding the recent police raids. Now up until that meeting, the police, the police chief was calling this stuff a, an inspection as opposed to a raid. And the police chief gave his definition of what an inspection and what a raid was. And the police chief's definition of an inspection was something that was conducted very low key that did not interrupt the normal flow business and was over and done with pretty quickly. Whereas a raid, all entrances and exits were would be blocked, they'd be a show of force. normal course of business wouldn't be interrupted lights would be turned on music would be stopped. And that and that the rage would be from 45 minutes to maybe an hour, hour and a half longer and a search everybody that was in the club and

Chris 06:04

R

Roy McCarthy 06:06

and so using his own definition of a raid, coupled with the live interview that I did last week with Matt who was a doorman here at the at the 611. I explained to Chief Bradford. I told him about the interview that I did with Matt, and how that using the police chief's own definition. It was a raid. Also. Charles Armstrong and other people who were present at the clubs, when they were rated were present. There was a show of force lights is turned on. When music was stopped, the normal course of business was interrupted. People were prohibited from leaving at attorney tried to leave Jr's and he was prevented from leaving by the police officer that was at the door. The officer told him he could not leave. Chief Bradford said well, did you ask him why you weren't allowed to leave? And everyone at the caucus said Well, here we have a show of force police officers with guns and badges and a very tense situation and you really didn't want to rattle their their cages. So no, no you in those instances, and the officer says, No, you're not going anywhere. You it's almost the best idea just to sit back down in the barstool and let it pass.

R

Roy McCarthy 07:38

However, we're not one of the very positive things that was a result of that meeting was how

Chief Bradford mentioned how that the officers that were involved in this meeting gave him an

Chief Bradford mentioned how that the officers that were involved in this meeting, gave him an entirely different story did not tell him that they closed the doors that they turn on the lights that they stopped the music that they interrupted the normal course of business.

 Chris 08:04

So all of his previous statements were just based off of the police reports that were issued by CHP that is correct the ATF

 Roy McCarthy 08:11

risers and according to Chief Bradford that there was some sort of snafu or a miscommunication or lack of communication between the ATF and the Houston Police Department. Which is why Jr's was supposedly rated twice in one night.

 Chris 08:30

Actually, we were using the wrong abbreviations or it's not ATF. This is the Texas alcohol, T ABC, NBC, I realized that after I said be ATF and wrong organization

 Roy McCarthy 08:39

TIBC folks, not the ATF. And one of the things that got me was how that Matt. In our interview, he did say that the police did not check the IDs. They didn't check IDs. They didn't check for drugs or anything. They just However, according to Chief Bradford, somebody had called in a complaint on the 611 which is why that place was targeted. And the complaint was prostitution and drug trafficking. But yeah, this is a cheap reference. Now, here's where it gets kind of murky. As far as I'm concerned. The police show up, show force, Sealy exits, stop the music turned on the lights. And according to Matt, they did not check IDs. In fact, according to all the witnesses from all the clubs, they did not check IDs, they were probably what they are off of was the fact that if you're if you're an officer in the Montrose area, and those were ones there, you pretty much know who the hustlers are in the community and who their drug traffickers are. And some of it also be some typecasting of looking at a person and going you know, you don't fit in here. You may, you may be in here just to sell something. And so that's probably what they went off and looked at the crowd. And this looks like a normal crowd for around here where we don't see any known hustlers in here. Someone's just trying to, to get a hard,

 Roy McCarthy 10:12

whatever, whatever it was. They didn't show up in the show force. And it was not. It was not an inspection as usual. However there have been a lot of calls to hear at the station and to me

INSPECTION AS USUAL. HOWEVER, THERE HAVE BEEN A LOT OF CALLS TO HEAR AT THE STATION, AND TO ME, and to various other game media outlets wondering whether or not this the gay community has suffered an adverse number of inspections throughout the year. And the answer to that is no. According to Chief Bradford, no, he did. But when pressed further, he did not have the actual statistics or paperwork to back him up. Apparently, he was not prepared to answer questions, the hard questions that the community asked and I want to say this about the community, the people in the community was were really phenomenal in the questions that they asked the statements that they gave, excuse me, the statements that they gave, and their professional demeanor at the caucus, General General Meeting. And I for one was very impressed with the way it was all conducted in hand handled, which is good, because it shows that we're not that that rabble rousing group of a decade ago, that

 Roy McCarthy 11:35

we're not they're not my they're not my kind of people that was there at Stonewall.

 Chris 11:39

We're not having we're not having that old. The activists are queer nation mentality of in your face. And I'm going to shout at you until you finally say I'm right. And it was good to hear that the community came together and handled themselves professionally. And probably why chief rapper didn't know of any other instances is because our community has a vocal network that we're going to, it's now coming to the point we're going to stand up and say something about this well, and you may not have that as much in the Latino community or the black community were of a raid like that isn't going to cause them to pique an interest. It would be an incident of police brutality during that raid. Usually, that will spawned some sort of media attention or media frenzy around it. Our community, we took that a little bit harsher because of the timing. And well, actually Bradford himself took her harsher because of the timing. He does not like the timing at all on it. And private said that he's going to conduct his own investigation on these officers. And some of them may be terminated. Well, it's good to hear that some may lose their jobs over this. I doubt I doubt that. I doubt that that will happen. But some of them may lose a job over. Another very positive thing that he brought out is that there are there are gay and lesbian police officers that are out there. Not closeted in the department, but they are actually out. In fact, one of the lesbian police officers just had her holy union. And it was posted in there were members of the department they're present at her holy union ceremony. And they have an opportunity to work anywhere in the city as any other officer Debra Danburg state representative, Debra Danburg asked if gay police officers, gay lesbian police officers be assigned to the Montrose to Bradford's response was the Gay Lesbian officers work wherever they choose to Yeah. Which I think is fantastic. Okay, in talking about lesbians, holy union, you have a whole union story here.

C Chris 13:51

Yes. A lesbian couple is going to be married at 1440 Harold Street. Now that's the address for bearing Memorial United Methodist Church, but it's not inside the church. They will be holding their holy union ceremony in the street because of the Methodist churches decision to not allow trans would you thanks for destroying my constant don't get over it here for not allowing SAME GENDER whole union ceremonies to be conducted inside of a Methodist Church bearing bearing Memorial United Stated a couple months ago that they will not do any marriage or holy union ceremonies until the Methodist Sunan changes their philosophy. So the ceremony is going to be held on August 27. Reverend Troy Plummer will officiate the wedding of Linda Edgar and Eleanor. I'm going to butcher the name here but I'm going to say Pam b&o was supportive Lady and the you the Methodist clergy will be nearby On. This is the second time that a wedding has occurred outside the UMC building. Wedding ceremonies were held in February. And so this is a nice way that people were going to be able to have their ceremonies and habit somewhat sanctioned thereby the local Methodist Methodist church, but still be able to pull up the policy of not inside the sanctuary. And Roy, you got a story on inclusiveness and the chamber?

R Roy McCarthy 15:27

Right. You know, remember about a month or so ago the game was in Political Caucus at the general meeting, gave the transgender bisexual and inclusiveness and our mission statement. Well, apparently that's rubbing off because the chamber, the Houston Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, has changed its mission statement to reflect the impulsiveness. They were being put under a lot of pressure, their feet were being held to the fire by the transgendered and the bisexual community. And they agreed that there should be a change in the mission statement, which now reads, The greatest use of Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce advances the economic and cultural development and vitality of gay lesbian, bisexual, excuse me, transgender, and supportive heterosexual individuals, businesses and organizations. The change was a result of public debate over the mission statements lack of inclusiveness, and I thought that was just really fantastic. And it was really needed. And I understand we've got another candidate, gay candidate, openly gay candidate throwing his hat into the political ring that for the seat that's being vacated by Jo Roach, because of term limits.

C Chris 16:48

Because the term lifts I actually heard he was also looking at running for Mayor

R Roy McCarthy 16:53

Joe roach. Yes. Well, he could.

C Chris 16:57

But Attorney Alex worth waiting I can't believe I butchered his names as I know the guy.
Attorney Alex will throw his hat into the fall civic elections for on August 3 becoming only the

ATTORNEY, RICK WILL THROW THIS OUT INTO THE FALL CIVIC ELECTIONS FOR ON AUGUST 3, BECOMING ONLY THE third openly gay candidate to run for city council this term. He's running on a platform of tax cuts for Houston's and hate crimes inclusion. He is running at the he's going to be running in the at large position to race against stuff with six other candidates, including Andreas Pereira and the second gay candidate in this. This will be they're also facing Gordon Kwan Dwight Boykins, Mike O'Brien Karish. Shining Wolf and Willie Wright, Jr. So we have two candidates running for public at large position two, and a nice Parker, the first openly lesbian member of the Houston City Council is seeking reelection for her at large position one. So stay tuned for some of the Year from their activities you'll be seeing and you'll probably hear some more about them from the caucus. Well,

R Roy McCarthy 18:07

yeah, they'll be they'll be before appearing before the screening committee to see you know, who screens in and who screens out. You know,

C Chris 18:17

in our politics, you almost had the perfect word they're performing.

R Roy McCarthy 18:23

That's still called The Greatest Show under 18:27

Let's start getting ready for next month's then.

29:44

Right now. We need to make some phone calls on that one. Anyway, moving right along. We just came back from Guadalajara and fun game of pool

Chris 29:56

30:10

it was that kind of like trying to play pool during the strip contest of Jr's or was that at Jr? is that you did this

30:16

I found a better strip contest.

30:17

Yes

I just got the CD and I was listening to it over in the other studio because we were you probably didn't hear it we were playing a song called como take Gustave finger

31:26

31:55

Probably gonna get them or at least play some music. So what's been going on this week?

Chris 32:05

With me? Not much. It's been a hellacious week for me. I've been trying to get prepared. I'm going to be stepping into a Catholic church tomorrow. Scary. Yes. So I don't know if I want to burst into flames be stricken into a fetal position or what's going to happen there but that's going to be an interesting time for me.

32:27

Best chance to get baptized again.

Chris 32:29

Well, that's why I'm I'm going there to be a godfather for that event. So that's going to be it's an old church that I was at a long time ago and it's going to have a wonderful after party. There was about 50 strippers and none of them are the type I like.

32:46

I've said it before, and I'm gonna say it again. Thank the Lord. I was raised Presbyterian, because we believe St. Peter stands that gay says, Do you believe in Jesus? And if you say yes, then you're in.

Chris 33:00

Well, the thing about us Catholics is whenever we do something wrong, we can go into a little booth and tell him and he said a couple of Hail Marys. A couple Hail Marys we go right back in all is forgiven. We still have 33:11

33:10

our we still have our advanced reservations. That was a fun noise.

33:16
