

gcam_ah_19930102_t2_01_edit

Tue, Nov 29, 2022 9:36AM 22:14

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

call, thought, steve, dennis, cooper, lesbian, book, marty, haji, queer, ann richards, jim chapman, music, totally, rebecca, man, listening, hot, gay, young

SPEAKERS

Speaker 7, Speaker 3, [Introduction], Speaker 16, Speaker 17

S

Speaker 17 00:01

But of course, what BP is still famous for is his horror of masturbation. The result of self abuses always, mind you, always that a boy after a time becomes weak and nervous and shy, he gets headaches and probably palpitations of the heart. And if he carries it on two, very often goes out of his mind and so on and on. To be fair, he grew up when little was known of biochemistry, and most people genuinely thought there was a life essence that could be wasted. But he went on warning boys about the terrible danger of self abuse, the most dangerous of all vices, long after no one else believed it. It was only removed from the book scouting for boys when a printer flatly refused to print it. Only one incident suggests that BP ever experienced physical love with a man. When he was in Algeria, and he had no good reason for being there. But it's long been a famous haunt of gay men from Jeep to wild to South homes to Joe Orton to Robin Moore to Kenneth Williams. When he was there, he spent what he called a delightful nights in the desert with a man he called a very superior kind of Arab to, the seventh companion of a man who called him Haji Ahmor mingled Arabic and Latin for pilgrim of love. Haji you prepared a meal for them both of rice, chicken and kid goat, and when we call down to sleep, we did so together under his one blanket. It takes only the smallest leap of the imagination to conceive of the impeccably repressed BP, not partaking actively but letting Haji have his way, pretending to be asleep, pretending they were just keeping each other warm against the desert cold, pretending it wasn't happening, anything but admitting he was enjoying it. But can we say he should have come out even to himself? He would certainly have been a tormented invert in his time. Oscar Wilde was already disgraced and dying. Would he be a happy gay man today, has repressed sexual energy is almost directly responsible for the dozens of honors that were heaped upon him. Medals, five knighthoods, a baronetcy, the freedom of 11 cities, six honorary degrees and the adulation of millions, especially millions of men and us with whom he could enjoy an intimacy that two of us can. The man he was, would not have given those up for mere happiness.

S

Speaker 16 02:26

That profile of the first boy scout was based on the recent biography of Baden Powell by Tim Jeal and was produced by Hugh Young in Wellington, New Zealand. Thanks for tuning into This Way Out, the international lesbian and gay radio magazine. This week, Cindy Friedman. Bring way Out, the international lesbian and gay radio magazine. This week, Cindy Friedman, Brian Nunez, Peter Twitchell and Hugh Young contributed program material. Thanks also to Dave Buel, Ron Buchmeier, and the gay and lesbian Victory Fund, The Clash, Tom Lehrer, and Gertrude Lawrence and the original Broadway cast of the King and I performed some of the music you heard, and Kim Wilson composed and performed our theme music. This Way Out is brought to you each week by our staff and community volunteers and is sustained by financial support from the community audio cassettes of this way our programs are available by mail individually or by subscription. Write to us for more information, or with any comments, suggestions or questions or just to let us know you're out there listening. Your letters really do help keep us going right to this way out post office box 38327 Los Angeles, California 90038. And please be sure to include the call letters of this station. For This Way Out, I'm Greg Gordon. Thanks for listening on WBA in New York City. CEFROh, Vancouver and KUBO El Centro, among many others, and for supporting this community radio station, happy holidays and a new year of renewed hope, visibility and action. Stay tuned.

S

Speaker 3 03:49

Okay, we're back. What 1:45 at 90.1 fm World Radio KPFT. I just got this hot off the wire today, apparently Ann Richards is thinking of appointing to the seat formerly held by Lloyd Bentsen, a guy named Jim Chapman. And apparently this guy is a well, he just, he's hated by gay people. He's hated by environmentalists. He's hated by labor people. He's hated by people of color. And I guess it looks like he's not liked by anyone except governor Ann Richards. So what's been called is a statewide phone sap of Ann Richards office asking her not to appoint Jim Chapman to Lloyd Bentsen's Senate seat. And the number for that is to call Ann Richardson and complain is area code 512-463-2000. Apparently what's going on now in Austin is that a meeting has been set up between Mr Chapman and Glen Maxi, Jean Harrington, and other activists from around the state. They're gonna go and quiz him on his failure to vote our way on this just relating to queers, and to various AIDS issues. So please call Ann Richards at area code 512-463-2000 And tell her not to appoint Chapman. Up next think we're gonna play a little music and Eric had a couple of songs he wanted to play.

S

Speaker 7 05:18

Yeah, well, to celebrate the 10 year anniversary of grunge we're gonna play wood about the master servant domination thing off the dirt album by Allison chains, and we're gonna play dirty boots by Sonic Youth off the new album

05:41

Hi, this is Valerie Stinson with heart song Houston women's Community Chorus, we are issuing an open call for first and second Sopranos. Since 1986 heart song has remained true to our original goals. We bring music of our hearts to the community by performing at various events to help promote love, peace and healing. Share your heart songs with us. If you can hit the high notes, let your voices be heard. Join us for tryouts beginning January the fourth 1993 at 7pm at the First Unitarian Church 5200 Fannin at Southmore. For more information call Valerie at 6671336.

06:29

You're listening to after hours a continuing tradition on World Radio 90.1 FM.

[Introduction] 06:46

Katie Lange one of the many artists that are part of KPFT World Radio 90.1 FM's new midday music lineup. The sounds of Texas in the world come to the airwaves nine to three every weekday, many familiar voices and a couple of new hosts bring you a unique blend of music, the sounds of Texas in the world on World Radio 90.1 FM.

07:36

Rebecca and I went camping, we made camp. We spent some time eating, we were laying down by a stream, and all of a sudden there were shots. My arm exploded, Rebecca was hit twice and started to bleed to death. Tempted to carry her, I was unsuccessful. The entire walk out of the woods, I believed myself to be hunted. My name is Claudia Brenner. We were identified as lesbians by a stranger with whom we had no connection. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. But Rebecca, who was 28 years old, is gone.

08:13

Homophobia can kill education is the only lasting weapon against bigotry, which is why the lesbian and gay public awareness project wanted you to hear and think about this message.

08:27

For more information, write us at Post Office Box 65603, Los Angeles, California 90065.

08:37

And here we have Michael Crawford and Eric Deutsch, who are going to tell you all about the new book by Charles Silverstein, Dr. Charles Silverstein, the new joy of gay sex, and they're about to illustrate for you the dirty talk section and what it's all about.

Speaker 7 08:53

So, hey, hey, what's going on? Not much. What are you into?

Speaker 3 08:59

What do you mean, what a man to?

S

Speaker 7 09:01

Man? You know, what will get you off?

S

Speaker 3 09:04

I don't know. I like to be taken advantage of.

S

Speaker 7 09:06

Oh, yeah. You'd like to be taken, you got a pretty hot ass.

S

Speaker 3 09:13

Yeah. And I like to get worked.

S

Speaker 7 09:15

Yeah, you'd like me to work it?

S

Speaker 3 09:17

Yeah. Work it.

S

Speaker 7 09:18

So let me show you something. What do you think about this?

S

Speaker 3 09:23

It's big. What do you do with it?

S

Speaker 7 09:27

Like to stick it up there?

S

Speaker 3 09:29

Yeah?

s

Speaker 7 09:29

I think you could take this.

s

Speaker 3 09:31

I'm sure willing to try.

s

Speaker 7 09:32

I think you can take this. This big thing up there.

s

Speaker 3 09:35

Yeah. Let's go for it. Okay.

s

Speaker 7 09:39

Like to really work it.

s

Speaker 3 09:40

Yeah. Get her up and put it on that thing.

s

Speaker 7 09:43

Let me slap it. You like that?

s

Speaker 3 09:46

Yeah. I feels good. Yeah, do it again.

s

Speaker 7 09:51

All right. You want me to put it in there? Yeah,

s

Speaker 3 09:53

I put it in.

S

Speaker 7 09:55

Beg for it.

S

Speaker 3 09:56

Yeah, put it in. Go ahead, Buck. Put it in. Do it. Do it.

S

Speaker 7 09:59

Okay. You like that?

S

Speaker 3 10:05

Oh, it's big. Yeah, yeah, yeah. Yeah. Work that thing.

S

Speaker 7 10:16

I was getting there. Yeah, tight. Sure it's not too big?

S

Speaker 3 10:23

Yeah, just right. Make it hurt. Harder. Do it harder.

S

Speaker 7 10:31

Let me see you work yours. Let me see you work your piece. Slower slower. Slow down. So yeah, she got real hard. Yeah, it feels good man. Yeah, man, when I slap that butt.

S

Speaker 3 10:54

Yeah, slap it harder. Yeah slap it. Yeah.

S

Speaker 7 10:58

You're just a big fag man.

S

Speaker 3 11:00

Speaker 3 11:00

Yeah, but you're faggot.

Speaker 7 11:02

You like being a fag. Yeah, like taking it up the butt. Yeah, getting close. I think I'm pretty close, too. Yeah, you like that hot [unintelligible]?

Speaker 3 11:26

By the way, my name is Joe.

Speaker 7 11:29

Who cares, cares. Hope to see you later.

11:35

That was an illustration of the dirty talk section of Dr. Charles Silverstein's new book, The new joy of gay sex available at bookstores everywhere. I think you can get it at the Baptist bookstore.

Speaker 3 11:47

Yeah, and to be honest, what one of the reasons we wanted to talk dirty besides the fact that we get off on it was you know, the whole erotica thing happened what beginning last October?

Speaker 7 11:59

Well, there was a lot of media hype this summer about it, you know, the Steven Mizel sex book, The Steven Mizel shots and Italian Vogue all preparing us for this whole Madonna blitz once again, the calendar the book the movie the record that you're right yet started all around October.

Speaker 3 12:17

Yeah, and this time she's supposed to be doing it with dogs doing with older people doing rather exactly with you know, shaved head, my folding lesbians. And you know, to be honest, when that when that when I when I first saw the video, I'm thinking all right, new fashion trend. All the hot young fags and dykes will be running around in leather and bustiers and totally cool drag. And what happened? Nothing in Houston, nothing.

 Speaker 7 12:43

Nothing happened.

 Speaker 3 12:44

I mean, it was just another instance of Madonna being too far ahead of her time, of being just so avant garde that people didn't get it, not even queers.

 Speaker 7 12:51

Well, I'd like to note Yeah, what happened Madonna what happened? Usually. I remember in '84 I was wearing rubber bracelets all the way up to my elbow just like borderline. This time. Nobody came out in leather. I went I saw the erotica video, I went out you know, I was wearing my harness. I was already for a master dominant, domination kind of scene and, and everybody was like, nowhere to be found.

 Speaker 3 13:16

Well, and I looked at the book, and I saw her biting that that skinheads butt and I thought that's something I'd like to try. I went out and tried it. And you know, just everybody else was in into it.

 Speaker 7 13:28

Exactly. I personally have done everything in that book. And I'm still looking for adventure and I'm not finding it anywhere. Yeah, well, one disappointed

 Speaker 3 13:38

One place that I do think we find adventure is in Dennis Cooper's writing. He is like--

 Speaker 7 13:44

--a state and true erotica writer, artist. Yes.

 Speaker 3 13:48

To the totally hot fag writer these days. And I think you wanted to read a poem by him.

 Speaker 7 13:53

Yes. I would like to read David Cassidy Then from the book "Idols" by Dennis Cooper. David Cassidy picks me on the dating game. I walk around the partition and there he is, a quick kiss. Then Jim Lange gives us the good news. "David will be flying you and your date to Rio de Janeiro. You'll be staying at the luxurious Rio Hilton and attend a party in your honor." At the Hilton, we knock the chaperone out with a lamp. Then we drive around, smoke a little Colombian. David says something to let me know he's willing and I get to chew his clothes off. He dances Swan Lake naked and I sprawl out on the bed. He saunters over scolding me in French and covers my face with his modest rear. He gives me a few minutes. Then he's up blow drying the drool from his legs. He slips on a white jumpsuit. Runs, runs a thumb across his teeth and turns to where I sit, still dreaming on the bed. "Come on," he says full of breath. Never so proud. I bring my hands up rub his stink into my face like a lotion. I will wear it to the party. As the lobby doors open reporters start the sea of lights. The cameras take us kissing, dancing, the angle to get David's sheath body. Girls watch his ass like a television screen of men stepping onto the moon. Little do they know what really lies there that this is no tan. "This is David," I say smelling my face like a flower and pull him close, stoned out of my gourd.

S

Speaker 3 15:26

All right for Dennis Cooper. And to be honest, this is like some of Dennis Cooper's more tame stuff. I think the hot new book that well, my personal favorite of Dennis Cooper's is "Closer," which is basically about a young fan named George who gets used and abused by all sorts of people. But it's not in a bad way. It's in a good way. What's our next election?

S

Speaker 7 15:48

Well, actually, I would like to take the opportunity, as I'm on the radio to solicit all 19 year old boys to call the station if you've read "Closer" and you're really willing to be George, because that's a big sexual fantasy of mine. And I'll interview you on the air if you're fresh and fly enough to make it to my fantasy world. But, um, okay, I'd like to read "If I were Peter Frampton." It's from the same book, which is really hard to find. So go to your bookstore and pressure them into ordering all the Dennis Cooper you can get your hands on. First, I'd finger blink myself in front of one a one way mirror with all the lonely guys on Selma behind fed at last. Then I'd let all my friends make me and top it off with a go at Jagger, our Lyric screwed together like two hoses. I'd hire punk bands to open my tour. Give them a spotlight then play so badly crowds turn to them like surviving family. I'd retire to a life of hot sex and royalties. But the best part is the masturbation. Looking down at my own famous body with the kind of less reserved for perfect strangers. Finally mine without even the formalities of dinner, dancing, and drinks after.

S

Speaker 3 17:10

it's hot. Is there anything else by Dennis you'd like to read for us?

S

Speaker 7 17:15

Well, let's go on to something else. There's plenty of poems.

S

Speaker 3 17:21

Okay, then I think let's go to a song. It's going to be a very cool hot new song. Well, not new, but it's a cool song nonetheless. "It's a fine day," Opus III Okay, we're back. That was "It's a Fine Day" by Opus III. Now we have a kind of a little treat, something that we managed to finagle away into. There's a new movie out at the River Oaks theater, called The Crying Game. And it's probably one of the most fabulous queer movies of the year, which I know is not saying a lot since it's only January 2, or third actually now, but it's a totally cool movie by a totally cool director. And we happen to have a couple of passes for it. How should we give away these passes?

S

Speaker 7 18:21

Well, we're being very timely because you know, we are queer and we we know all about fashion trends and the whole thing so as you know tonight is the 10 hour marathon of Charlie's Angels on TNT. So our trivia question is please name all of the actresses who were angels and there are six so if you name them.

S

Speaker 3 18:40

Okay, so any, the first the first caller that calls in with the correct names of the six actresses who played Charlie's Angels will receive two passes to The Crying Game at the River Oaks Theatre and the number to call in is 526-KPFT.

S

Speaker 7 19:09

That was Love is blind by the Smarties concluding our tech no portion of the show.

S

Speaker 3 19:15

All right, and so far no one has won the tickets to the crying game. We repeat the I don't know the information for the contest. The first call that calls in with the names of the sixth actresses who played Charlie's Angels and call five to six KPFT will receive two passes to the Crying Game at the River Oaks theatre.

S

Speaker 7 19:38

And now for your listening pleasure. I'd like to read "One" from the book Idols by Dennis Cooper. These two are young whores who work the same beat, the one on his back is 19 and a big seller. The other does all right but doesn't have his friend's looks. This is where the one on his back sleeps. The other guy comes by to visit when he's not busy. It's partly lust and partly loneliness that led them to this. The liqueurs name is Marty. The others name changes every three weeks. Scotty, Tim, Robyn, Mark and Steve. Currently, they've both been blanked countless times and like it. Steve smokes Marlboro is constantly. In fact, one's gripped in his left hand. There is something of religion in their joining. Marty thinks of Steve's ass as an altar. He has just seconds ago lifted that leg and seen it. He is sniffing the great smell there. Steve is devastated because he is totally revealed. Even the stink of his blank has been discovered. The idea of someone would lick their gives him cold chills. In a moment his other leg will be bent back and a tongue warm way up inside him. At that point, he will say he loves Marty. In a way they are in love with each other. Both are from the Midwest and were beaten by their fathers. Neither of them can read more than street signs. Marty is at the point where he'd kill for Steve. Steve senses this and they stick together, sometimes sell as a duo. Both of them are thinking of nothing but Steve's blank. Marty is saying Christ you're so good, so good. You can hear the cars cruise on the street just outside this crash pad. They could be making a bundle tonight, but they're busy. After this. They'll go for dinner and taste each other in the food. Marty will say nothing tastes as good as your blank. Steve will laugh nervously and rode the back of his tight jeans. The sun will be up by the time they drop asleep. There are men who would give them 100 each just to hold a camera on this sex. They don't know that, though. And it's great sex regardless.

S

Speaker 3 21:40

Well, I have just one thing to say, "Sashay Shante." And that brings us to something that I thought was absolutely totally cool. I'm sure all of you out there familiar with RuPaul who is just like a totally fabulous African American drag queen who has a new thing a lot called "Supermodel (You better work)." Now what what our plan is, is to get all the people in the city of Houston to call up their local radio station and request "Supermodel (You better work)" by RuPaul