00:01

Hey, when they redistrict all the congressional and everything else, and if you're if the Republicans control the House, the Senate and the presidency at the national level, and again they control the House and the Senate and the governorship and Texas, were Sol people.

00:19

Yeah, matter of fact, Texas based on preliminary on preliminary statistics is due to pick up two seats. Okay,

Jimmy Carper 00:30

a little break. Let's take a little break and come back. And there's a lot lot to talk about. A couple of things while one thing in particular, as as he have faithfully, he does, just about every week, Buddha has provided goodies in the lobby for all of us, Buddha from Cafe, vino, right over there on Montrose buy by Fairview over there by Phoenix comics. And it's kind of odd, he went on vacation, and that was the one time I went in to visit. He said a little note, well, the Buddha bear is back in the dead. I go away with my sweetie mark for one weekend, after seven months, five days a week, 18 hours a day and everybody and their mother shows up and say hello, even me, Jimmy. Yes, I do exist. I'm back in my perch, serving coffee, pastries and sarcasm. Eat and enjoy kids. Again, thank you so much Buddha, I'm going to play a little piece of music, especially for Buddha, but because it's probably way off of what you expect me to play. It's from an album called lavender country that came out in 1973. Wow. And a lot of what is on here, I've just I have the original but I have recently recently got to see the copy is real protest music from the early 70s. And this guy was pretty, pretty damn courageous and a lot of what he does, and in this song called lavender country. He talks about everyone, everyone in this community. And that was I think before we that was before right after Stonewall. And so everybody was still a drag queen. We didn't have transgenders yet. So think of the the time this was done. And you'll I think you'll agree this is a pretty courageous song and you're listening to it on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. We'll be right back yeah, how to do is you know, that was that was lavender country that was protest music from 1973. Country and Western style. There's, it's it's a new CD out. I have the original album. It's incredible music. I've been listening to re listening to it. And they were pretty forward.

 Sarah DePalma 03:13

For 1973. They went forward holy cow.

 03:16

Yeah, very much. So there's my favorite song. I can't even tell you the title over the air.

 Jimmy Carper 03:18

 Sarah DePalma 03:22

Oh, yes, I see that one. I'm looking at some of the others here. I can't shake the stranger to you. straight white patterns of love know what that is? That's interesting. Okay. The reason I stuck around is because well, Monica, you tell?

 03:37

Well, we're about to get on our favorite sub check the HRC.

 Sarah DePalma 03:46

Yeah, the half assed rights campaign is there sometimes called 03:51

sub human rights.

 Sarah DePalma 03:54

Now, you know, if you've been a longtime listen to the show, you've heard me for the last eight, the last five years talking about the HRC. And from time to time, we've tried to make peace with the HRC. And that hasn't worked. Actually, making peace hasn't worked. And Monica has just had a recent meeting with them. And how did that go? Oh, that was fun. While the NGLTF meeting that I mentioned that Vanessa and I were part of while we had our friend Nancy Burgmeier in the room. And one of the first statements she made when she introduced herself to the group is we're going to have to agree to disagree on some things. And one of the things that they agree want us to agree to disagree on is the coverage of transgenders in civil rights legislation

04:13

S Sarah DePalma 04:40

and also hate crimes specifically in the event crime specifically and and hate crimes. That's unacceptable to me as an African American, and it's unacceptable to send a transgender can

04:43

S Sarah DePalma 04:50

I tell what is make sure you know, first of all, in 04:53

ENDA is the employment non discrimination act. What it would do would be To add sexual orientation and in what we've been doing lately gender, gender expression or gender, let's say into employment, and not only employment legislation but with also in hate crime in terms of hate crimes and other words, they were protected under federal law. Well,

K Katrina Rose 05:20

the key the key right now is the definition of sexual orientation in the Barney Frank slash HRC version of India is that it is a very narrow definition of sexual orientation, which covers homosexuality, heterosexuality, bisexuality, and it is deliberately worded not to cover transgendered people, as opposed to the Minnesota Human Rights Act's definition of sexual orientation, which does not mention the words homosexuality, heterosexuality or bisexuality or transsexuality for that matter. It is a very broad definition designed to be broad to cover. We'll people thank you, and it has worked quite well. Yeah, that's basically one fairness was passed in Kentucky, they also drilled airs very broadly. So here's the message, folks. If you're going to be for civil rights, you either protect everybody or not

06:01

K

Katrina Rose 06:18

at all, no inclusion, no pains.

∅

06:20

And that has been the problem with our friends at HRC. Some of these folks just don't seem to get it.

S

Sarah DePalma 06:26

Well, I have sent an email to the Human Rights Campaign. And Monica has already seen it. And I don't know if Katrina is hip. I don't know if you had a chance to see it. Yeah, I haven't checked my email all the time. But I have offered the HRC four things. First thing is I've said I've told them is that they have two dinners coming up here on March 18. One and often in one in Houston. Thank you. And what I've offered them is we would like to have a table if they're at their dinner, upcoming dinner and upcoming dinner, and we would like to be talking about the Christie Littleton case, and how the littles in case intertwines transgender, and gay lesbians and bisexuals and gay marriage, and of course, gay marriage. Now, that's a fairly reasonable request, whether the HRC is going to agree to that, I sincerely doubt. But that's the first request. Okay, the second the second request that I've made, I submit to them was that I would like for us, we have T gain in Texas, the political organization for transgenders has been in existence now, in one form or another for about the last five years. We have not once in all that time ever heard a single person from the HRC contact us, but anything. We're asking to have a meeting with their legislative staff, state with our legislative positions will be in ask if we can support them again, pretty reasonable position, whether they will agree to it. I sincerely doubt it has as much chance to happen as but as I was moving the Oilers,

∅

S

Sarah DePalma 08:13

I think, I think I think so too. I think so. I think so too. And I point out to them, that our goals in Texas are very simple. Christie Littleton, Christie Littleton and Christy Liddell. That's going to be our legislative agenda, no matter what the courts end up deciding. And I've offered to do some training with them. I have offered to appear with the HRC and speaking events around the state to do some education about the transgender experience. Do I think the HRC will do that? When it snows in Texas in the middle of August?

K

Katrina Rose 08:52

Yeah. And what what what really makes the fact that that they will not they are not going to do this more so much of an atrocity, not only to us, but to the people that they are supposedly representing, namely, gays and lesbians, is that the Christie Littleton case, regardless, and I gave my views on it earlier, that this was a bad case shouldn't have been brought, however, now that it is in play, if it keeps going further, this could be the case to put the Defense of Marriage Act in front of the US Supreme Court exactly get it declared unconstitutional, especially since however, for that to happen. The the group that made gay marriage the top issue of the gay lesbian community, but regardless of whether that really was the top issue, the gay lesbian community, namely the HRC, they will have to get behind this, which means they will have to get behind the transsexual. And I would bet on by moving the waters back to Houston.

s

Sarah DePalma 09:53

Well, I've told them, I've told him that I am offering them an olive branch in I would say yes that they take it. Because I've explained to them that if they don't meet us at least halfway on some of these things, that I can promise them that I will lead the fight against them in the state of

o

10:11

Texas. And we've got some folks nationally that await and duty and

s

Sarah DePalma 10:15

exactly right now, I promise them that if if they can't start from around and meet us halfway, I have waited for now for four years, and I've been very patient waiting for the HRC to come around. But the Christie littles in cases forced our hand, we can't afford to be patient anymore. So I've told them that these things that I'm asking for, they're very reasonable, they're very straightforward, and willing to talk to them about it. But if some of this stuff doesn't happen, and it doesn't happen soon, that I would personally organize this state to fight them. And I hope they don't think that I'm bluffing because anybody who knows me, knows that I am not in the least afraid of leading a fight against the HRC. And I promise you with people like, like we have in this studio tonight will win

o

and Don Wilson to Kentucky, who, by the way, is a good friend of mine, and she's also the first African American winner of the Trinity award. And she's no friend of HRC. The Trinity award is Oh, Trinity award is the highest award you can get in the transgender community for activism above and beyond the call of duty. Don is the first African American winner of that one, and very proud of her way to go on that. But she is no friend of the HRC either. No. And so And also here's the other interesting thing. One of them another member of in tech, Dr. Sarah Fox of Columbus, Ohio, she was on the show. Yeah. Dr. Fox has come up with an interesting study. She did a scientific study documenting discrimination in the GL and B communities this this one she deliberately left transgenders out to document a copy of one of the bonus of contention that we have the one of the questions that she while the questions that she asked in the survey was were you done? Were you fired or this from a job based on your gender expression? Or do you feel because of your orientation? And yeah, she made it blatantly clear which was which? The survey in a nutshell, okay.

12:36

Commercial Free and listener sponsored community radio for the Texas Gulf Coast. Houston's 90.1 KPFT the sound of Texas, a Pacifica radio network station, KPFT Houston, que EOS College Station.

12:51

Oops station for us. That's our federal FAA, sar, FCC. FCC got the radio

13:01

thought that had to be done at midnight.

13:03

Oh, well, to top of the hour it has to be done. But oh, every top of it. Yeah. I knew it had to be done at midnight. Supposedly, for the audience that's just tuning in. This is after hours. And yes, this is KPFT radio. No, I'm not Jamie Carper Jimmy just gave. Jimmy is here on the left working with the controls. He just offered me his seat because I happen here this discussion about Christie Littleton. And in the studio tonight is the co host Monica Roberts and also in studio tonight, Katrina rose, Jackie thorn in Eleni black. There you go. Now the audience has an idea who we are. And this is a show about queer issues gay, lesbian, bisexual transgender issues,

13:07

S Sarah DePalma 13:12

K Katrina Rose 13:46

which thanks to Littleton versus praying are exactly equal under Texas law.

S Sarah DePalma 13:52

If you're looking for the religious station, it is not an accident that is slightly to the right of us.

So

14:02

stay tuned, you might learn something

 S Sarah DePalma 14:04

that's if you'd like to learn something though. Stay here with this.

 K Katrina Rose 14:08

Okay. If you want to learn what the Constitution actually says Stay tuned. But what 14:14

I was saying before the station before the break, was that the survey that Dr. Fox came up with basically says that on in in this current form the employment non discrimination X current form, it would exclude 76% of GLBT people from protection under this law Gob Gob because this is what we have been telling them for years, is the fact that you know if they get end of path with a sexual orientation protection and no gender protection, that all the employer has to do to fire somebody says I didn't fire him. worried because he was queer because she was a lesbian. I fired him because he wore a dress or she wore a pair of pants, or they were effeminate behaving or feminine, feminine, or in the case of the female, you know, was Butch

14:44

15:05

15:09

 S Sarah DePalma 15:12

Well, this is my time to say something unpopular. There isn't a snowball's chance in hell, we're going to be included in endet period know that. It's not necessarily going to be due to the HRC. We've been told this by people that are our friends in Washington. And I'm not saying this to discourage anybody, just that it's a fact. The truth of the matter is that Washington DC is not ready for transgenders. I mean, it is pure and simple as that. If you've been there, if you've talked to them, if you've been around them, then you know, they are not are not are not going to include transgenders and ended, especially at the current setup, especially especially right. Now, having said that, should we stop trying for of course now, but I think we ought to be realistic about this. And the realistic portion of this is we are not going to be included in end. On the other hand, there is no excuse for not being included in hate crimes. Will that will we get a chance in that, probably a slightly better chance than we had within debt, but probably not even a 5050 shot even there. The truth of the matter is, a Washington is a nest of vipers be if you want to get anywhere in Washington, you've got to have money. And we don't say you need a full time paid lobbyists, and we don't have one in D, you get the other route organizations speaking on your behalf. And we have none of that. And until we do we have to go on speaking against us.

 16:48

Yeah, we've, we've got the we've got the you know, the Heartless rejection coalition, you know, speaking against us.

 Sarah DePalma 16:56

Now, I realized what I just said, is really unpopular. And it's not the position. But I'm not interested in blowing smoke up people's skirts. Yeah, that's true. I think realistically, the better approach for us to take is to continue working at the state level, educate congressional people when you can, but work at the local and the state levels, and work from the bottom up. It's a slower process. But as we learned when we went to Austin, politicians are cowards. Monica will tell you when we went to Austin, last time, we were we were advocating the removal of the sodomy law. In legislator after legislator told us look privately, this is I'll tell you, this is the dumbest law in the history of the world, and really ought to be repealed, it should be repealed, but I'm not going to vote that way. And if you push me into it, I'm not going to vote that way. Because it's a cutthroat issue. If I vote to repeal sodomy, my political throat will be cut.

 Katrina Rose 17:56

Here's something here's something everyone needs to consider. And I know that some people here have heard about the 1993, Minnesota Human Rights Act. So yeah, haven't. It is the law, which is the only state law that covers transgender people along with these lesbians, bisexuals, and employment discrimination and discrimination in a couple of other areas. It took 20 years to get that thing passed with it chain fee on the show talking about Yeah.

 Sarah DePalma 18:21

K

Katrina Rose 18:23

Okay. Now, what some people forget is they didn't repeal sodomy law when they did that. So some people, people were going to have to get to their heads, you aren't going to have to have a trade off. Are you willing to accept employment discrimination protection and have sodomy law left on the books? Because that's the way it is in Minnesota right now. Well, not only they have sodomy laws still on the books, they got fornication and beastiality to?

S

Sarah DePalma 18:50

Well, in Texas, they would keep all of those laws in the books.

K

Katrina Rose 18:53

Well, yeah. And that's, perhaps and this is something. Yeah, we want the sawmill repealed. And hopefully the case it's going going up to the courts right now will take care of that for us. It's not going to happen in Texas courts, it's going to have to be at the US Supreme Court. But I say we forget about the pastoring. And when the sodomy law, because they're not going to do it. Well, that's the conclusion. And we didn't do it in Minnesota, they're not going to do it anyway.

S

Sarah DePalma 19:17

That's exactly the conclusion we reached after last time, is that there is no point going over there and asking them for issues that we know they're not going to do because of what they told us about their political throat. Yeah. Now having said that, some people will say, Well, why do transgenders go at all? That answer is called Christy littles. And we're back to that. Yes. The and the reason where you're going to go is because we cannot let an issue like that stand and I asked the audience Put yourself in her position for a minute. But the other issues aside, here's a woman who has been married for more than 10 years, and she is a woman. She has been married for more than 10 years, seven year. Well, that's seven, seven years 39 and 90, okay. And she is accepted as his wife. He never wants out astor's about anything. Birth issue, birth certificate aside, it's a moot point she was female period. Okay, the man dies of an embolism. And she feels she has the right to sue for malpractice. And then gets told, Well, nevermind that you're 20 years post operative. Nevermind that you work as a woman you behave as a woman, you everything is a female, you're legally married. Regardless of all that we're going to say that you are what your chromosomes are, but we're not going to test you to find out what your chromosomes were. We're just going to make this assumption in all by the way, you lose. Oh, yeah. What's your cell from that position? The Ask yourself that called justice? I don't think so. So we will we think we can we think we can sell we think we can sell that kind of an issue to the legislature, especially when we start pointing out them? How many straight marriages this effect? Yeah, yeah. Then health care.

K

Katrina Rose 20:53

And certainly, sir, I think you said you kind of know if you've read all the law review article. But I've I start throwing things in there about what I think is probably going to happen at some point probably sooner than later. At some because a little one versus Brian, there's going to be an ugly divorce case between a typical generic male, female couple, someone one on one, one of the two demand and demand one of the two is going to be more money than the other. And that person with the most money wants will want to somehow avoid that marriage. They don't want they will not want the quote Justin right division of property, unquote, which would happen under Texas community property law. Someone say, well, obviously, this wouldn't be the case. If the the woman had born children say it's a child was married again, and someone in the lawyer for the husband says, ah, you know, I don't know whether or not she's not transsexual, I think we should have a chromosome task. It's gonna it's going to come up in the few in in settings in probate, I promise he was going to come up with a probate issue. It's going to it's going to come up in divorce issues. I don't think people realize just how far reaching this decision is, and they're going to be shocked when they find out well, sooner or later, it's going to happen that the state is going to start requiring chromosome tests in order to get a marriage license, and wait till they find out what that's going to cost.

Sarah DePalma 21:57

Ω

22:24

With regard.

Ω

22:25

I don't think it's too far fits that you have a divorce case, even if children were involved, that the spouse would go for it anyway.

K

Katrina Rose 22:33

Well, my prediction is I've been addicted. Well, the thing is the if it looks too much like vindictiveness, judge, judge would have to have the discretion not to do it. But what one thing I mentioned in my law review article is, okay, now I got did this the example of the husband does it do the wife? Probably less likely, but it could work the other way. The wife, just perhaps out of vindictiveness or whatever decides to force it on the husband. Well, at some point, some husband is going to find out that he has XX chromosomes. And I guarantee you the first time that that happens, when a he-man Texas male, finds out that he's really a girl. There is going to be violence in the courtroom, Texas courtrooms have have had shootings in them in the past and almost always in the context of divorces. Yeah, metaphor. And I guarantee you, your first the first Texas male who finds out and as a result of a divorce action that he's a girl is going to kill some people.

S

Sarah DePalma 23:41

And I can verify exactly what she said, because I've already been talking to legislators about that. In it's interesting, as is no, it will come as no surprise here. Yeah, they're kind of starting interested about how it affects transsexual. And there's some interest about how it affects gays and lesbians. But it starts to explain to them how it affects two straight marriages. And boy, they sit up and their eyes get wide all of a sudden they want to know every last blasted detail that matters. They don't give a damn if it affects us. But if it affects their let's let's be honest, their voters that makes a difference. And there's also what I don't think, really anybody's really looked into so far it is now I brought up the issue of the fact that Miss Littleton has had never had her birth certificate change. Okay, now remember, this marriage happened in Kentucky, right? Okay. And no, no, no, no, that's okay. Don't go into the woods yet. There will be an oops, but it's on behalf of the the oops, should be directed the judges. Okay. Now Miss Littleton was born in San Antonio, Texas native native Texan. She had gone up to Kentucky I forget for some medical reason not for medical reasons. Not related to SRS correct answer for something else.

K

Katrina Rose 24:19

S

Sarah DePalma 24:55

She attended a car accident. Excellent. Okay, she was up there. That's where she got married. Now. Kentucky has a statute specifically allowing change of gender on birth certificates for transsexuals. Okay, that is that state. But the thing is it only it only applies to people who were born in Kentucky and she wasn't she was born and raised in San Antonio. That's correct. Now think of how the litigation in this unfolded. You know, there was there was the marriage to Jonathan Littleton, he dies she decides to sue, the deposition occurs. The lawyers for the doctors sense that she might be transsexual isn't is that they saw her hands, that she gives unusually large hands for a woman. And that prompted the attorney. The ask, he know, have you ever gone by another name? Okay. I've

K

Katrina Rose 24:58

S

Sarah DePalma 25:38

K

Katrina Rose 25:50

read your article where they said something in a voice but yeah, the hands the hands would do

S

Sarah DePalma 25:54

it. That's what Christie said. Anyway, okay. Yeah.

K Katrina Rose 25:56

Okay. Now, let's all all of all of this, all of this happened, exactly the same except everything up to the same to this point. Right. This very moment in time happened exactly the same, except that Christy Littleton was born in Kentucky, and got her birth certificate change under a state statutory scheme, that specifically but she wasn't born in Kentucky. Well, 26:20

S Sarah DePalma 26:18

I'm sure sir. Hypothetical. Okay. Had she been okay.

K Katrina Rose 26:24

Please listen to me this this. This is this is critical, where the DOMA issue comes up where this will get up to the US Supreme Court, if people get impacted that the internet the interstate travel issues, as it is right now. The white the the rural people are able it was a Texas transsexual in a state where the the statutory scheme was interpreted by this court not to cover us. Kentucky's does very specifically doesn't say transsexual, but it says the birth certificate may be amended or changed as a result of sex change surgery. Okay, let's say that she had done that, under that statutory scheme in that state. Would the San Antonio court of appeals have recognized that? My My guess would be no, my guess would also be No. Yeah. Well, let me dome in the decision.

S Sarah DePalma 27:10

K Katrina Rose 27:14

And that, and that is that that's that is why everybody is affected by this because there are lots of states that have that same specific statutory scheme. And let me let me walk you when one of when someone who has has is from that from one of those states, who has essentially the same type of law, which allegedly, the Court of Appeals was kind of asking the legislature to pass which is a lie, they don't want to do any such thing. The minute a male to female transsexual from a state, which specifically allows birth certificate changes, and and even specifically allows transsexuals to marry. The minute that person walks into the state of Texas, your gender goes away. Your marriage goes away.

28:01

But also, let me throw a caveat in here to Kentucky has one of the more restrictive DOMA laws also they have a state DOMA law was isn't Mitch McConnell from Kentucky? Yes.

 Sarah DePalma 28:09

 28:15

Let me broaden this out a little bit. Sarah, and Monica, let me broaden this out a little bit. Because Christy Littleton is a relatively unique situation where we have a malpractice death that has resulted in this god awful decision. Yeah. But you mentioned very briefly, you said that this thing is going to come up in probate. Firstly, Littleton is a relatively unique situation. But there are a hell of a lot more situations where you've got a transsexual who is married to an individual, you know, a male to female, transsexual who is married to a genetic male. Alright, when that male dies, then all of a sudden, if he has kids by a previous marriage, or if you're hell, even if he's got brothers and sisters, or parents or cousins or whatever, that want to come in there, and you know, the guy's got money and try and cut the wife out of the survivors benefits, you know, by declaring that the marriage is null and void. There's gonna be a hell of a lot more of those than there is of malpractice.

 Sarah DePalma 29:24

But the biggest danger more than anything else is this decision is going to be quoted as precedent and other cases around the country. Yeah.

 29:31

JACKIE, the situation you're talking about has happened in Egypt. What happened? This male to female transsexual in Egypt when the father had a brother, and when the father died, and when the father died, the brother in terms of the estate, try to use Egyptian law to get her share. Have the estate reduced to the 1/3 share under Egyptian law that females would get.

 Sarah DePalma 30:06

So how do we use this for the HRC? Now?

 30:11

That it basically you use it as a club to bash them over the head with

 Sarah DePalma 30:16

...
...

now? Afraid?

30:19

No, seriously, the fact that we have a lot more in common

S Sarah DePalma 30:24

with our hrs, there you go.

30:27

We do sit down, we do adversarial relationships. And it's past time for that. Yeah, they need to wake up and smell the coffee. Now recognize that relationship that we have?

30:37

S Sarah DePalma 30:40

Well, we have the Lucy Littleton case could be leveraged to get their attention could be at the table, right? Whether whether the disposition is there in the HRC, is what I think is very unlikely. But it's important that we be perceived as having made that effort. Not say very honestly, if they tell us, no, they don't want to do any of that. I promise you, I'm going to take that letter, I'm going to put it on the internet. And I'm going to make it a case celeb. But I'm going to demand in whatever field it takes at the national level, I'm going to demand an explanation of how they could refuse such reasonable requests, and still call themselves a Human Rights Campaign and partly how they can call themselves a gay lesbian rights organization. Because that's exactly that little term. Littleton. Again, I can't stress this enough people, everybody out there within the sound of my voice. Repeat this to anybody who will listen, yelling at the top of your lungs. Anytime you see an equal sign on the car, Littleton versus praying can be the vehicle to get rid of DOMA.

K Katrina Rose 31:26

S Sarah DePalma 31:49

Hello, give me we started saying that, what, six, two years ago, two years ago, we said that DOMA was going to be removed by a transgendered person we sit in on the year we predicted it. And I think the I think that case is now in our lap,

K

Katrina Rose 32:03

you see, and one of the one of the big fallacies when the DOMA was passed as ever, that, you know, people, some people who voted for it or supporting it, say, Oh, well, you know, I'm only supporting this now. Because it's kind of it's just a theoretical thing. No states ever really going to pass gay marriage, Vermont still might not they may still come up with some other kind of weird thing, a separate thing.

∅

And however, the the night initiative on Calico and even if that thing doesn't pass, the the DOMA shows the absolute total and complete incompetence of the Republican majority in Congress, because and I tell you, really, in 90 in 1996, we there were already strongly conflicting US court opinions regarding the validity of transsexual marriages. I mean, all all of the decisions cited by either majority LittleBird versus Brian, they had already been decided by 1996. Meaning that then the best one, the the one that most favored in the American case that most favors favors us, is the MT versus JT decision from New Jersey, which you can kind of understand why Littleton attorneys was relying on it so much, because from what I can tell that transsexual had not had her birth certificate changed, and the Court upheld the marriage anyway,

K

Katrina Rose 32:31

I predict that Katrina becomes the first transsexual to run for office from the Independence Party.

K

Katrina Rose 33:36

My goal is is to run the Minnesota Legislature.

S

Sarah DePalma 33:39

I rest my case. I run you can see she's been hanging around Jesse Ventura, you can tell because she's getting real feisty.

K

Katrina Rose 33:47

I will other than other than other than meeting meeting the love of my life and and my wonderful job with a wonderful boss, by the way is Republican but but a as what Phyllis Frye

K

Katrina Rose 34:21

Besides the love of my life, and the job that I have, the biggest thrill that I've had since I've been up in Minnesota is I did get to meet Governor Jesse Ventura. We have that picture in our walk. You made our memory wolf the house. Yeah,

S

Sarah DePalma 34:29

K

Katrina Rose 34:32

it was just by chance. A couple of weeks after I started work up there. He made a judicial appointment over in a town a couple of counties over from where I work, and working for a court I've got got the email notice of it. Went over there after work figured I don't know maybe, maybe Yeah, he is governor. He's probably got a busy schedule. But this is Governor Ventura. He's He's very affable guy. He hung around after he made the specific announced But schmooze with people, potty flanger and, you know, walk up to him and said, you know, vocoders Pleasure to meet you. You are one of the reasons that I'm up in Minnesota right now. You know, in addition to the Human Rights Act, I started sending resumes after after your election. And he looked at me, he said, welcome to Minnesota. So I got welcomed to Minnesota by my the governor himself. And yeah, Governor Jesse, he's, he's definitely an interesting guy and people their varying opinions of another Minnesota because he did win, by a three way split pretty much. It is an interesting situation up there. But you know, personally, I'm still hoping we'll run for president just remember you could have Governor shroud.

S

Sarah DePalma 35:47

35:51

gone for what, what?

K Katrina Rose 35:53

And well, bringing a gun or a shrub? What people aren't taking into account with the possibility of it becoming president. Is the Court nominations? He is whoever is elected in Court nominee, not just Supreme Court. It is all federal courts.

36:16

Because the the Senate has been the Senate has been holding back on confirming

K Katrina Rose 36:22

Yeah, that's that's that's one of the constitutional atrocities being committed by the current Republican majority in the Senate. They are refusing to, to confirm many of Clinton's nomination so that perhaps the next president, if he's a Republican, you can nominate them instead. And I think somebody is going to say something over there and Oh, someone on on the other side of the glass. Oh, yeah. For those of you who aren't watching on the video simulcast. Oh, you mean we haven't got that set up yet? Oh, no. Yeah.

36:56
