

gcam_ah_19930130_t2_02_edit

Tue, Nov 29, 2022 9:13AM 19:26

SUMMARY KEYWORDS

group, sex change operation, amiga, wanted, switchboard, garth brooks, big, call, gay, volunteer, rupaul, love, sissy, houston, person, homecoming queen, marianne, read, pretty, triangle

SPEAKERS

Jewel Gray, Scott Lewis

---

J

Jewel Gray 00:05

That was who was that? That was Lisa cook. I want to keep saying Kotch it's Lisa cook software album colorblind blues, colorblind blues. I'm not even here. There I am. I hate when I can hear myself. I don't know if I'm on and it's called stay for the ride. Pretty neat, pretty song. Like I said, you can tell I'm in a strange space a lot of things been going on with me emotionally this week. And I'm kind of down. So if you have a joke or something you want to tell me or you want to give me something to make me lift me up. Give me a call down here. You can you know where we're at. What is it five to six, six KPFT KPFT five to six KPFT I'll be here. Obviously my guest not gonna make it is supposed to be here at 1230. And it's just you and I. It My guest was going to be Chris Dorman from the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard. And he was going to talk about Switchboard and the new training coming up. I believe it may have started. Friday. I'm not sure I may started Friday. Let me see. I know there's an ad in the twit for it. The training let's see. I know dinner Dinner dinner. Don't do that. Don't do that. It's in here somewhere. It's in a tweet somewhere. The Switchboard is starting a training class this weekend or last weekend. I mean, this weekend or next weekend. I'm not sure which one it is. I can't find it right off the top of my paperwork here. I'm terribly missed because um, I really feel strongly about the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard. Being that I've been a member for God six years now. And it's been something that I've cherished my participation there. And, and the people that I've met, there have been people that are going to be connected to me, I'm sure for the rest of my life. Which, indeed, is a very, very wonderful warm feeling. So if you are looking for a volunteer place to participate, the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard could use your help. So could Amiga I just found that somewhere? It tells me exactly what those letters stand for. Me. Amiga. It was in here somewhere. It's the Hispanic support group. Isn't it Amiga? Where's it maybe it's written down here I am just all the paperwork all at my fingertips here and not able to find anything I'm looking for. So if you forgive me, we can look at help one and it's no, I don't think so. Turn, I know, I just saw that expressed. Amiga. Well, wherever it's at, we'll have to have to trust that you can get their information from the phone number I gave you a while ago at 5205667. And you can volunteer for them. There are groups that you can attend to personal support groups. There's the women ag group every Sunday at 8pm and lambda. The lambda Group A meet at the Watergate Watergate Marina clubhouse that's down in Kima. If you're into sailing or you live down in that way, and you want to attend a meeting, and I'd like to tell you that you don't need to be an alcoholic to meet and want an AAA meeting some of the best 12 step meetings I've ever been to where AAA meetings. So you can attend one of those meetings if you're in a 12 step and you're looking for a good meeting. Coda, which is another kind of anonymous group meets at the Montrose Resource Center. That's the Codependents Anonymous. And if you're having difficulty separating from your love, or your parents or something, or just your boss at work, you know, this would be a good group to balloon and get some support from there's a gay father's group you can if you're into parenting, and you're a father, you can meet gay fathers and their partners meet in a discussion group. And you can get more information about that at 7825414. And they meet every Monday from eight to 10. Let's see. I think that's about it. Let's see gay support group Kobe house. That was Kobe Hensman support group, the open choir. The rest of the stuff is history. January 30/31. So it's history. Make yourself aware of your surroundings. Read, read the local paper. The new voice a couple of the better gay publications, the advocate. What's that? magazine,

 Scott Lewis 05:01

Texas triangle,

 Jewel Gray 05:02

Texas triangle. That's yeah, that triangles really looking great. I'm impressed, at first was a little skimpy for me. But the last couple of Article issues have been very poignant, very, we need more advertisers. That's why they're Skippy

 Scott Lewis 05:14

 Jewel Gray 05:17

skimpy. So pick up a triangle, we get it sent to us at the care center, you can stop in at Baron Care Center and pick one up. Probably on Fridays, we get them in on Thursday. So they're usually there on Fridays, and read one of those. That's why I get to see it because I delivered them there. And we're at a point of pickup. So stop in and say hello to me pick up a triangle and look around, see what the bearing character is all about. Perhaps you'd like to volunteer there. A lot of really great people have, and one of them has just moved to Chicago and I will miss her greatly. There's another piece of my emotional distress this week. Her name was Marianne and I cared about her greatly and will care about her. And she's driving up to Chicago this weekend. Gosh, I can't imagine trying to drive up to Chicago in the weather that they're having. But I will miss Marianne, who was also a partner of friend pier with the mastery, age mastery workshops. She did a lot of volunteer services with them too. So good luck, Marianne and good hunting. And let's see, do we have something else here? You know, I neglected to mention that several songs ago we did Martha Washington, or give it to you the Washington sisters. You open up my heart. So we did those songs. Did we do the Washington sisters? There's that one you just give her and tell me about? You had something tacky you wanted to do here a minute ago and I'm game for techie. Are you willing to do it now? Not yet? Not yet. It's not ready yet. We're running it backwards. Don't you just love these CDs? They just make life so much simpler. I wanted to tell you something. Another local paper you should read to keep yourself aware is the Houston press, which is probably the one most um I would say it's pretty impartial. I say they kick just about everybody. And they they you know, Pat everybody on the back. So are they I think it's pretty close to impartial. I love and have been reading with great excitement, press briefs, which is edited by Tim Fleck on Stan Tim is a brutal editor. And that's what makes him good. That's exactly that's what makes him that's what makes him good. And there's some good stuff in here today, which I think this is always good. Yes. It's always good. I just first thing I look at is the press briefs. And then I turned to the back. Before I read the rest of the magazine I turned to the back which is actually my true and true one true favorite part of the magazine is called news of the weird I think I've talked to you all out there about news of the weird before and there's one in here I thought was worth mentioning. This is by Chuck Shepherd. I guess he digs these little stories up from wherever yeah. Oh yeah, it says syndrome weird news to chuck Shepherd, St. Petersburg, Florida, okay. In Chuck is found this one little tidbit this little bite that I'd like to tell you about. In September a high school senior and Well, honey, Hawaii, who was allowed to run for homecoming queen after she became a female in a sex change operation. She finished last in a field of seven. But I think that was pretty good step for a for a high school to allow a sex change person to run for homecoming and be supportive in that way even though she finished last field seven eight is something to be amongst those who are nominated. I also find it intriguing that this is a senior situation. And this person has already had a sex change operation and is comfortable enough to be jumping around and running for homecoming queen, which usually for my understand because I didn't run for homecoming queen. I might have run for homecoming king. But at that time I was into my sweat shirts and army boots and real real radical days and I didn't run for homecoming queen. But our stand is pretty strange. So this person must have had the sex change operation probably in their junior year, which is the thing that is interesting to me. Unusual. So I wanted to point that out there a couple of other interesting things. Let's see. London. No last spring, Vermont poor pitch. No, that's the best one you don't you can read They're on the breast one. Where is it November chest pains. In June, FBI and Florida authorities finally arrested Paul E Flasher. 45, who'd been sentenced to five years in prison in 1980. for grand theft, but who'd never been jailed. Flasher said truthfully, that he'd gone home from the sentencing hearing in Tampa and at and sat tight just as his lawyer had instructed, waiting for notification to report to prison. The authorities then forgot about him for 12 years. I think that is just phenomenal. 12 years you're forgotten. There was another one here that very typifies these news of the weird here we go. Here it is. Raymond Moyer. 30 was arrested in West Haven, Connecticut November, after a police officer stopped him near a Wawa convenience store now, no, no, now let's not laugh. Wawa convenience store is no worse than getting go. And he was arrested near this convenience store that had just been robbed. According to the arresting officer when ask why. When asked when he asked more your what he'd been doing more, you said I just left the Wawa store that I robbed here. That's brilliant in black and white. So check out your local, local community through your local papers which one of them is the the press the Houston press the new voice the this week in Texas? Make yourself aware of what's happening. You know, you can't believe everything you read and you can only believe it. What is it you can't believe everything you hear and only half of what you read,

Scott Lewis 11:39

you can believe none of what you hear and only half of what you say

J

Jewel Gray 11:43

half of what you see. So start reading and keep yourself abreast I like that word of what's happening in town. Some of my favorite sections in twit are the viewpoint that Ray Hills doing and the comments which are the letters and the news that they do in brief in the front. There are some things going on in news that you should know about. There's a discussion on women and age in Fort Worth next Friday. That that'll be a new thing that we're beginning to look at. I think the medical community is beginning to appreciate the fact that men are not the only ones with this disease and it is affecting women differently. It does not affect women in the same way. It affects men it does not the immune deficiency does not the diseases, the opportunistic diseases that affect the the person who is HIV infected are not the same with women as they are with men. So it's time we started paying attention to what what particular differences there are in the men and women and learning more about it. biologically we are different folks. And I've never been one to argue that point with anyone. But it's time we started to appreciate that difference and do some research. So that's something going on. Did I tell did I tell GABBY I said hi to Gabby. I think I said behind Gabby she's out there listening? She's a friend who I haven't I haven't really been face to face with. I met through the radio and she calls occasionally and says hi. And I wanted to say hi to her she's somewhere around Dallas and if she's not being able to listen to this tonight, she is having someone tape so I wanted to say hi now do you want to do the dog thing? No, not the dog thing. Okay, let's do some music. Then what do we got queued up? We got this one and you wanted to do something want to in your face. This is Wanda. I have a queen at work that just comes in spurts off lines from this version all the time thinks it's hysterical. I haven't heard it but I thought what the hell

S

Scott Lewis 13:48

J

Jewel Gray 14:02

through Paul supermodels, you better work how some love

♂

14:18

as you might have guessed that wasn't RuPaul that was a little sample of Madonna's retro 70s Hit deeper and deeper. But we're going to now do RuPaul and LaWanda page, you better work supermodel

J

Jewel Gray 14:46

Okay, I just had a call from a listener Thank you very much. Who said that she had watched an interview by Garth Brooks recently and that he is has been asked to do a was video during the Superbowl? I guess during halftime or something, I'm not real sure about that. But that he's gonna do that song that we play here very often, which one was that? Honestly the name, we shall be free, we shall be free. And she said that he called several times trying to make sure they understood that he made controversial controversial videos. And my, my understanding of that kind of comment would be that this video is going to be pretty controversial. So you might want to catch it. I would imagine it's going to be halftime during the Superbowl, Garth Brooks tomorrow. So let's catch it and in in expectation, we're going to play that song now. Uncle Mike, can I go out and play now?

16:00

Sure, Johnny. Just don't get any grass stains on your pantyhose. Hi, this is Mark and Zell. Can I take just a few minutes out of this landfilled album to get serious? You know, there are millions of fatherless effeminate young boys out there who need someone to look up to and kneel down in front of that's why I'm a member of big cities of America. Let me introduce the founder of big cities. Father Bruce. Oh, Mary, father. Oh, Mary.

16:31

Thank you Mark. Without a big sissy many a young lad would never see a Betty Davis film festival would never know how to match drapes to a couch would never realize that a basic black dress with pearls is always correct for late afternoon. As we say, There's no such thing as a bad boy. Just a boy who needs a little discipline. Thank you, Uncle Mark.

16:56

If you'd like to be a big sissy, simply send a recent photo of yourself in swim attire too. Big Susie's carolv The village idiots box 69 keychain by the Hegyi Falls Minnesota. Remember, every big sissy was once a little sissy.

Jewel Gray 17:15

Okay, was that it? Were in. Okay. And let's see, it's five to three. I wanted to make a special announcement. I neglected one of my very, very closest and intimate friends tonight. And I wanted her to know that I was sorry. And that this next music is going to be for you baby. And stay warm. I'm going to stop a few minutes after the show my personal message to those out there who want to know where I'm going. I'm going to stop a few minutes after the show and get something to eat over at Charlie. So if I'm not there when you think I should be I will be there shortly. So hey, how's it going? I see some friends down here getting ready to take the next show. And I think scooter is going to play something from Rocky Horror for me. The time warp. It's on. Great, great. So enjoy this scooter. And I'd like to thank you for listening. I'd like to thank you personally for being out there at this hour listening to his talk. And when we get the phone calls, it's very supportive, very rewarding. And I especially appreciate that call this evening from the Garth Brooks person. She said she had missed me down here and that really made me feel good. She appreciated that I was in a blue mood and and wished me well so thank you very much for the concern. That really warms my heart makes me feel better already. So I'm gonna let this music play then we're gonna go into our end and I will see you and I am really truly sorry but I'm not sure when I will see you next but it will certainly be very soon. Take care we love you. Good night.

S

Scott Lewis 18:57

You've been listening to after hours a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston World Radio 90.1 FM, please write us KPFT care of after hours. That's the other way around KPFT after hours care of KPFT 419 Love it. Houston, Texas 77006 Stay tuned for the carbon dating game with Eric